In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of Victor Vernon Harcourt, of No. 203, Clarendon-road, Notting Hill, Middlesex, Draper, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr. Registrar Hazlitt, sitting as Chief Judge.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 25th day of April, 1879, reporting that so much of the property of the bankrupt as could be realized had been realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy, and that although the bankrupt had filed his accounts and returned his assets as nil, yet he, the Trustee, had realized from the estate the sum of £117 18s. 2d., as shown by his report and accounts already filed, and that no dividend had been declared, and upon reading an affidavit of Walter Watts that the meeting required by section 41 had been held, and also upon reading another affidavit of Walter Watts, sworn 23rd June, 1879, that notice of an application to the Court for an order to close the bankruptcy had been given, and upon reading the Official Assignee's report, dated 28th June, 1879, and upon hearing Mr. Allen, Solicitor for the Trustee, and no one appearing in opposition, and the Court being satisfied that so much of the property of the bankrupt as could be realized had been realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Victor Vernon Harcourt has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 27th day of June, 1879.
