In the Matter of Edmund Hammond, of No. 14, Cunnigham-place, Saint John's Wood-road, in the county of Middlesex, Builder, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr. Registrar Murray, sitting as Chief Judge.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 25th day of June, 1879, reporting:—1. That no property of any description had been received by him, and that he believes there is no property of the bankrupt that can be realized for the benefit of his creditors; 2. That there is no probability of any property being forthcoming, and that in his opinion it is desirable to close the bankruptcy; 3. That he had no assets whatever in hand, and that to the best of his knowledge and belief there is no outstanding estate of the bankruptcy, and upon hearing Mr. Maybrook, the Solicitor for the Trustee, and upon reading the affidavit of service of the said Solicitor, of service of notices on creditors of this application, and the Official Assignee's report, dated the 15th July, 1879, and no one appearing to oppose, the Court being satisfied that no property had been received by the Trustee, and that there is no property of the bankrupt that can be realized for the benefit of the creditors, that there is no probability of any property being forthcoming, and that the Trustee has no assets whatever in hand, and that there is no outstanding estate of the bankruptcy, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Edmund Hammond has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 18th day of July, 1879.
