THE FAIRS ACT, 1873.

COVENTRY FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Town Council of Coventry, as owners, that a Fair has been annually held in the city of Coventry on certain days fixed by an Order of the Secretary of State, made under the Fairs Act, 1873, on the 29th August, 1874, which Order directed that such Fair should thereafter be held on the Friday next after the Feast of Corpus Christi, and continued for five days, viz., for the said Friday for the next following Saturday, and for the Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday in the next ensuing week, and for those five days only, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the days for holding of such Fair should be altered, and that instead of being held as directed in the Order aforesaid such Fair should in future be held on the Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday next following Whit Sunday in each year.

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1873:"

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the time for the holding of the said Fair should be altered as proposed:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1873," do hereby order that the days shall be altered for the holding of the Fair which has been annually held in the city of Coventry on certain days fixed by an Order of the Secretary of State made under "The Fairs Act, 1873," on the 29th August, 1874, which Order directed that such Fair should thereafter be held on the Friday next after the Feast of Corpus Christi and continued for five days, viz., for the said Friday, for the next following Saturday, and for the Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday in the next ensuing week, and for those five days only, and that instead of being held as directed in the Order aforesaid, such Fair shall in future be held on the Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday next following Whit Sunday in each year.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 23rd day of September, 1879.

Richard Assheton Cross.
