Veterinary Department, Privy Council Office, 28th October, 1879.

Cambridgeshire (to wit).

AT the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden at the Shirehall, in and for the county of Cambridge, on Thursday, the 16th day of October, in the year of our Lord 1879, before Arthur Sperling, Esq., Chairman, and Edward Hicks, Esq., M.P., Biscoe Hill Wortham, Esq., and others, their companions, Justices of our Lady the Queen assigned to keep the peace within the said county, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdeeds in the said county done and committed.

Whereas at a General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden at the Shirehall aforesaid, in and for the said county of Cambridge, on the 17th day of April now last past, the Justices then and there assembled did, in pursuance and by virtue of the powers vested in them by the Act of Parliament of the 25th and 26th Vict., cap. 61, intituled "An Act for the better management of Highways in England," make a Provisional Order in the words following (that is to say):—

Whereas five of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace acting in and for the said county of Cambridge, and two of whom were resident in the district proposed to be reconstituted, did, by writing under their hands, dated the 21st day of February, 1879, require the Clerk of the Peace for the said county to add to, or send with, the notice required by law, to be given of the holding of the then next Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said county, a notice that at such Court of General or Quarter Sessions a proposal would be made to the Justices then and there assembled, to rescind the Provisional Order of the Court made on the 2nd day of January, 1868, and the Final Order of the Court made on the 13th day of March, 1868, forming and constituting the Arrington and Caxton Highway District, in order that the same might be dissolved and abolished, and that in lieu thereof, or a part thereof, a new highway district might be formed, comprising the following twenty-five parishes, namely:—

Arrington, Bourn, Caldecot, Caxton, Croxton, Croydon, East Hatley, Elsworth, Eltisley, Great Eversden, Little Eversden, Gamlingay, Little Gransden, Graveley, Hardwick, Hatley St. George, Kingston, Knapwell, Longstowe, Orwell, Papworth Everard, Papworth St. Agnes, Tadlow, Toft, and Wimpole, or some of them. And the said five Justices did, by such writing, also require the said Clerk of the Peace to send by post, in a prepaid letter, notices to the Churchwardens and Overseers of every parish comprised in the said district that such a proposal would be made to the Court.

And whereas such requisitions have been duly complied with by the Clerk of the Peace, and a proposal has been duly made to this Court in pursuance of such notice, to the effect that the said now existing Arrington and Caxton Highway District be altered by the subtraction therefrom of the seventeen parishes hereinafter more particularly mentioned, and the Justices now assembled at this present Court of Quarter Sessions have entertained the said proposal.

Now, therefore, this Court, in pursuance of the powers vested in it by law in this behalf doth provisionally order that the following seventeen parishes (that is to say):—Abington Pigotts, Barrington, Bassingbourn, Foxton, Harlton, Haslingfield, Kneesworth, Litlington, Melbourn, Meldreth, Guilden Morden, Steeple Morden, Shepreth, Shingay, Wendy, Whaddon, and Royston (in Cambs), be from and after the 25th day of March, 1880, subtracted from the said existing Arrington and Caxton Highway District, and that (as heretofore) one Waywarden be in future elected for each of the 25 parishes not subtracted from such district.

"And the said Justices making the said Provisional Order did then and there further order that the confirmation thereof by a Final Order would be taken into consideration at the present Sessions."

And whereas proof hath been made to this Court that the notices required by the said Act of Parliament as to the making the said Provisional Order, and as to considering the confirmation thereof by a Final Order at the present Sessions, have been duly published and given by the Clerk of the Peace.

Now, therefore, the Justices assembled at the present General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, having considered the premises, do, by this Final Order, confirm the said Provisional Order without variation.

By the Court,

Hale Wortham, Clerk of the Peace.
