

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the said district chapelry of Saint James, Bolton-le-Moors out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken.

And whereas the said patrons of the district chapelry of Saint James, Bolton-le-Moors aforesaid have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme and the said incumbent of the same district chapelry has offered certain objections or observations to or upon the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has notwithstanding such objections or observations as last mentioned been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of November, 1879.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twentieth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist situate at New Clee in the parish of Clee in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist situate at New Clee as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Christopher, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Clee which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist situate at New Clee as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, New Clee.'

"And with the like consent of the said Christopher Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint John the Evangelist situate at New Clee as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, New Clee, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Clee in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln which is bounded on the north by the northern boundary of the said parish in the estuary of the River Humber, on the west for the most part by the new parish of Saint Andrew Great Grimsby in the county and diocese aforesaid and upon all other sides that is to say on the remaining part of the west on the south and on the east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Andrew Great Grimsby from the parish of Clee aforesaid at the point where East Marsh Drain is joined by Weelsby Drain and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named drain for a distance of eighteen chains or thereabouts, thereby crossing Wellington-street, to the junction of the same drain with Carrs Drain and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named drain for a distance of thirty-one chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the road leading from Clee to New Clee and called or known in part as Carrs occupation-road and extending thence first north-westward and then north-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of forty-two chains or thereabouts to its north-eastern end at its junction with Stirling-street on the southern side of the line of the Manchester Sheffield and Lincolnshire Railway and containing thence in the same direction that is in a straight line north-eastward across the said line of railway and across the foreshore of the estuary of the River Humber aforesaid to the northern boundary of the parish of Clee aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is
