

sold) by private contract as an alternative to and not to the exclusion of the powers we already have to sell the same by public tender or by public auction and so that any such sale or sales may be made either at one time or at more times than one and either in one lot or in several lots and either altogether by private contract or by public tender or public auction or partly in one mode and partly in another as may in our opinion be expedient and so always that all moneys arising from any such sale or sales shall be paid over to us for the purposes mentioned in the said Order hereinbefore recited. And secondly That as from the day of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the said forecourt and passage which as aforesaid is annexed to and abuts upon the western end of the southern side of the site of the fabric of the said church of Saint Dionis Backchurch so taken down as aforesaid the boundaries and estimated measurement of which forecourt and passage are set forth in the recitals of this scheme shall (the same being ground annexed to and necessary for the use and enjoyment of the site of the said church) be appropriated for ever as a free and uninterrupted approach from and to Fenchurch-street for the purpose of giving access to and from and for the better use and enjoyment of the site of the said church of Saint Dionis Backchurch so far as the same remains to be sold as aforesaid subject only to such rights of access, if any, as now exist to the said South Churchyard but so that no disturbance of or interference with the graves or remains of any persons interred in or under the same forecourt or passage shall at any time take place and so that the user of the same forecourt and passage shall be secured by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England to such person or persons and in such manner and subject to such provisions for the maintenance and repair thereof or otherwise as we may deem expedient.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said supplemental scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said supplemental scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of February, 1880.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirteenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Gee Cross, in the new parish of Saint Paul, Werneth, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Werneth, of the new parish of Saint George, Hyde, in the said county of Chester, and in the said diocese of Chester, and of the new parish of Saint Thomas, Hyde in the same county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective new parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Werneth, of the said new parish of Saint George, Hyde, and of the said new parish of Saint Thomas Hyde, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Gee Cross, as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester, as such Bishop, and as, in right of his See, one of the patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Werneth, and also one of the alternate patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Thomas, Hyde, with the consent of Montagu Woodmass, of Green Hill, Compstall, in the said county of Chester, Esquire, of the Reverend John Bateman Wathen, Clerk in Holy Orders, now rector or incumbent of the rectory of the consolidated chapelry of Saint Mary, Guarlford, in the county and diocese of Worcester, and of Charles Andrew, of Coughton Court, Redditch, in the county of Warwick, Esquire, the remaining patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Paul, Werneth, with the consent of the Reverend William Symonds, Clerk in Holy Orders, the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Stockport, in the said county and diocese of Chester, and, as such, the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint George, Hyde, and with the consent of the Right Honourable Benjamin, Earl of Beaconsfield, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, First Lord of your Majesty's Treasury, acting on behalf of the Crown as the other alternate patron of the said vicarage of the new parish of Saint Thomas, Hyde aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be ex-
