AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 28th day of February, 1880.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Lord President.

Viscount Sandon.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under

The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :

1. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty; and words in this Order have the same meaning as in The Animals Order.

2. Notwithstanding anything in The Animals Order sheep, goats and swine brought from the port of Hamburg in the German Empire to the port of Hull may be transhipped in the River Humber or in any Dock in the port of Hull approved by the Privy Council from the vessel in which they are brought to another vessel for conveyance to the foreign animals wharf as defined by Order of Council dated the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, subject to the following conditions :

First. That the vessel (in this Order called the landing-vessel) into which the sheep, goats and swine are transhipped be specially fitted and appropriated for the purpose of conveying such sheep, goats and swine.

Second. That the owner, agent, or charterer of the landing-vessel has received the special permission of the Commissioners of Customs so to employ the landing-vessel under this Order.

3. Those sheep, goats and swine shall be transhipped in the presence and under the supervision and control of an Officer of Customs, who shall remain in charge of the sheep, goats and swine on board the landing-vessel until its arrival at the foreign animals wharf.

4. The landing-vessel shall proceed direct to that wharf, and the sheep, goats and swine shall be landed there in the presence and under the supervision and control of an Officer of Customs.

5. The landing-vessel shall not be used for any other purpose during the time of its being so appropriated, and shall, immediately after each occasion of use, be cleansed and disinfected in manner provided respecting vessels by Article 60 of The Animals Order.

6. Sheep, goats and swine so transhipped shall continue to be deemed foreign sheep, goats and swine.

7. If anything is done or omitted to be done in contravention of any of the provisions of this Order, the owner or consignee of the sheep, goats and swine, and the owner and the master of the landing-vessel, and the Dock Company at Kingston-upon-Hull, shall each be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

C. L. Peel.
