WHEREAS by "The Thames Conservancy Act, 1857," it is enacted that the Conservators of the River Thames shall have power and authority from time to time to make Bye-laws for the regulation, management, and improvement of the River Thames and the navigation thereof, in the manner thereby provided, and to impose penalties not exceeding five pounds for the breach or non-performance of such Bye-laws :

And whereas by the forty-seventh section of the said Act it is enacted that no such Bye-laws shall be in force until the same have been sent to the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench, the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, and the Lord Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer, and shall have been approved by one of them :

And whereas by the thirty-first section of "The Thames Conservancy Act, 1864," it is enacted that from and after the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, section forty-seven of "The Thames Conservancy Act, 1857," shall be repealed, and that Bye-laws made after the commencement of such repeal under the authority of either of the said recited Acts shall not have any force unless and until they are allowed by Order of Her Majesty in Council :

And whereas by the forty-first section of "The Thames Navigation Act, 1866," it is enacted that, from the passing of the said Act, the Conservators of the River Thames shall have the same or the like powers and authorities over and with respect to the Thames and Isis from Staines to Cricklade, as they have by virtue of the Thames Conservancy Acts, 1857 and 1864, over and with respect to the Thames below Staines :

And whereas by the forty-second section of the same Act it is enacted that the provisions of the said Conservancy Acts of 1857 and 1864 respecting Bye-laws shall extend and apply to Bye-laws for the purposes of the Upper Navigation Acts, or the said "Thames Navigation Act, 1866" :

And whereas by the twelfth section of "The Thames Conservancy Act, 1867," and by the eighth, ninth, and thirty-fifth sections of "The Thames Navigation Act, 1870," further powers were vested in the Conservators respecting the making of Bye-laws :
