The columns appropriated for the days in each week are intended to show on what days the labourers were employed, and should be filled up thus: (1) or $(\frac{1}{2})$, according as the labourers were employed for the day or part of the day.

This Account may extend over a longer period than one week, if in that column. the Local Board so direct, and in such case the column "Week ending, &c.," must be repeated, and the heading of the form altered accordingly.

The sums set opposite the names of the several labourers in the column headed "When paid" were paid by me to such labourers respectively on the date specified
