

the said parish of Prestbury, and with the consent of Sir Philip Tatton Mainwaring, Baronet, of Over Peover aforesaid, the patron of the incumbency of the said antient chapelry of Over Peover otherwise called Peover Superior as aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Prestbury and of the said antient chapelry of Over Peover otherwise called Peover Superior which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint John the Evangelist situate in the township of Chelford aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist Chelford with Old Withington.'

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist Chelford with Old Withington being:—

"All those portions of the parish of Prestbury in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester which are comprised within and are co-extensive with the limits of the two townships of Chelford and of Old Withington which two said townships have heretofore been held to constitute the antient chapelry of Chelford and also all that contiguous portion of the antient chapelry of Over Peover otherwise called Peover Superior in the parish of Rostherne in the county and diocese aforesaid which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the township of Snelson save and excepting all that portion of the said lastly-mentioned township which forms the north-western corner thereof and contains by admeasurement forty-nine acres or thereabouts and which is situate to the west and north of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said township of Snelson from the particular district or new parish of Marthall in the county and diocese aforesaid at a point at or near to Snelson House where the road which leads from Merehills turnpike-gate and which is called or known as Pepper-street is joined by the cross road which leads from Snelson House aforesaid into the road which passes along the western side of Highfield Cottage and extending thence that is from Pepper-street aforesaid first south-eastward along the middle of the said cross road for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts (thereby passing along the north-eastern side of the triangular plot or close numbered 55 on the map of the ordnance survey of the said parish of Rostherne on the scale of $\frac{1}{2500}$ and upon the map hereunto annexed) and then south-westward along the middle of the same cross road for a distance of thirty-four chains or thereabouts (thereby passing along the south-eastern side of the said plot or close) to a point on the western side of Highfield Cottage aforesaid upon the boundary which divides the said township of Snelson from the township of Over Peover otherwise called Peover Superior in the antient chapelry of Over Peover otherwise called Peover Superior as aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of March, 1880.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows; viz. :—

In the Saint Neot's Churchyard and Saint Neot's Independent and Baptist Burial-grounds, in the county of Huntingdon, to the twenty-fifth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

In the churchyard of Llanbedrog, in the county of Carnarvon, to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty.
