WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-second day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for

England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and four have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the new parish of Tynemouth Priory in the county of Northumberland and in the diocese of Durham and out of the new parish of Cullercoats, Tynemouth, in the same county and diocese.

“Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said new parish of Tynemouth Priory and of the said new parish of Cullercoats Tynemouth which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas there is not within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

“And whereas by a certain deed bearing date the thirty-first day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine and made under the authority of the ‘New Parishes Acts, 1843, 1844, and 1856,’ or some or one of and being under the hand and seal of the Most Noble Algernon George Duke of Northumberland and being also under the common seal of us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England which said deed is intended to be enrolled in the Chancery Division of your Majesty's High Court of Justice) the said Algernon George Duke of Northumberland did grant and convey unto the minister or incumbent of the said proposed district so soon as a minister or incumbent shall have been appointed and licensed thereto and so soon as such district shall under the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act have become a new parish then to the incumbent of such new parish and to their successors the ministers or incumbents of the said district or new parish for the time being one clear yearly rent-charge of one hundred pounds sterling to be issuing and payable out of and charged upon certain messuages, pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments situate in the parish of Lesbury in the said county of Northumberland which are particularly described in the schedule annexed to the said deed and are also delineated upon a map or plan drawn upon and forming part of the same deed.

“And whereas the said rent-charge or annual sum of one hundred pounds has been so granted and conveyed as aforesaid upon the understanding that we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England should out of our common fund created by the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act pay to the minister or incumbent for the time being of the said proposed district when he shall have been duly licensed as aforesaid or as the case may be, of the said new parish, a grant of fifty pounds per annum and upon the further understanding and condition that such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or as the case may be of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas we have agreed and undertaken to make such grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid by an instrument to be executed by us
