

our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Eccles and of the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Patricroft, which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Andrew situate in Monton-lane as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Eccles.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Eccles, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Eccles in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded on the south by the district chapelry of Saint Catherine Barton-upon-Irwell within the original limits of the said parish of Eccles or in other words for the most part by the River Irwell on the west by the district chapelry of Christ Church, Patricroft, also within the original limits of the parish of Eccles aforesaid and upon all other sides that is to say on the north and on the east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Patricroft, from the parish of Eccles aforesaid at a point where the road called or known as Clifton-road joins Slack-lane and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said lane for a distance of twenty-two and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Monton-lane and with Half Edge-lane and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of five and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road called or known as 'Abbey-grove' and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of six and three-quarters chains or thereabouts to its junction with Wellington-road and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of nine and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Lower Albert-street and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of six and a quarter chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing over the line of the Liverpool and Manchester Branch of the London and North-Western Railway) to the point where the said last-named street is joined by Russell-street and by Peel-street and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of eleven and a quarter chains or thereabouts to its junction with Church-street and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to its junction with Barton-street and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of three and a quarter chains or thereabouts to its junction with George-street and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of seven and a quarter chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road called or known as 'Irwell Grove' and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of nearly two chains to its junction with Gipsy-lane and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to its south-eastern end and continuing thence still south-eastward and in a direct line for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to the boundary in the middle of the River Irwell aforesaid which boundary divides the said parish of Eccles from the district chapelry of Saint Catherine Barton-upon-Irwell aforesaid.

"And also all those two contiguous portions of the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Patricroft, which are speaking generally bounded on the north partly by the new parish of Saint Mark, Worsley, and partly by the new parish of Saint Peter, Swinton, both in the county and diocese aforesaid on the south-east by the parish of Eccles aforesaid and upon the remaining side that is to say on the south-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Eccles from the district chapelry of Christ Church, Patricroft, aforesaid at the point where Trafford-road (formerly called 'Back-lane') is joined by Robert-street and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Liverpool-road and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to its junction on the eastern side of the building called or known as the 'Patricroft Police Station' with the footpath which leads past the eastern end of Cromwell-road to the eastern end of the road called or known as 'Hampden Grove' and extending thence that is from the said Liverpool-road northward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of eleven and a quarter chains or thereabouts to the point on the southern side of the line of the said Liverpool and Manchester Branch of the London and North Western Railway aforesaid where at the eastern end of 'Hampden Grove' aforesaid the same footpath joins the footpath leading into Ellesmere-road and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-described footpath for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts to a point at the southern end of the bridge which carries the said lastly-mentioned footpath over the said branch line of railway and also over the Manchester Eccles Tyldesley and Wigan Branch of the London and North Western Railway aforesaid upon the boundary which divides the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Patricroft, from the parish of Eccles aforesaid and extending thence northward along the said boundary (that is along the middle of the said bridge) for a distance of thirty-five yards or thereabouts to a point in or over the middle of the last-named branch line of railway and extending thence that is from the said boundary north-westward along the middle of the last-named branch line of railway for a distance of sixty-five and a quarter chains or thereabouts to the boundary at Folly Brook which boundary divides the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Patricroft, from the new parish of Saint Mark, Worsley aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and