

The London Gazette.

Numb. 2486

Published by Authority.

From Thursday September 5. to Monday September 9. 1689.

Cadix, Aug. 15.

THE Four Spanish Men of War, that are in this Bay, will sail in few days, being design'd, as we are told, to carry Soldiers for Catalonia. It's said, that the Galeons will depart the beginning of the next month.

Rome, Aug. 20. On the 8th instant the Pope fell into a great weakness, occasioned by the return of his Fever. The 10th he received the Extreme Unction. The 11th the Cardinals, that compose the Congregation of the H. Office, repaired to his Anti Chamber, and the Cardinal Colredo, Great Penitentiary, entred alone into his Chamber, to acquaint him, that they waited his Orders. He charged him to give them the Benediction in his Name, desiring their Excuse that he did not fend for them in, seeing he was not in a Condition to speak of publick Affairs. He recommended to them the chusing of a worthy Successor, and desired particularly, that the Sums of Money he left, and which amount to about 5 or 6 Millions, might be employed towards the relieving of the People. The night following, according to the usual Practice, the Prisoners, to the number of 500, were removed to the Castle of St. Angelo. The 12th, about 22 hours, dyed Pope Innocent XI. aged 78 Years, and 3 Months, having held the Pontificate 12 Years, 10 Months, and 22 days. Cardinal Cibo, his first Minister, gave immediately Notice thereof to Cardinal Altieri, Chamberlain of the Church, who repaired to the Palace with the Clerks, and other Officers of the Chamber, and, according to Custom, thrice call'd the Pope with a loud Voice, and then ordered an account to be drawn up of his Death. He afterwards broke the Fishers Ring, and caused the Lead of the Bulls to be likewise broke: And having performed this Ceremony, return'd to his Palace, attended by the Pope's Guards, as a Mark of his Authority during the vacancy of the See. Cardinal Cibo retired also to his own Palace, where he call'd together the chief Cardinals, and dispatched Letters to those that are absent, to acquaint them with the Pope's Death, which was declared to the People by Ringing the Bell of the Capitol. At the same time the Magistrates assembled, and, as a Mark of their Ancient Liberty, released some Prisoners. The 14th the College of Cardinals met, and made choice of Dom Livio, the late Pope's Nephew, to be General of the Church, which was vehemently opposed by the Cardinals d'Estree and Maldachini. The Cardinal of St. Cecile was confirm'd in the Government of this City; and the Sieur Cusani was appointed Governour of the Conclave. The 15th Dom Livio took the Oath of General, and received the Staff of Command. The 16th at night the Pope was privately buried in St. Peter's Church, (where the Body had layn exposed three days,) amidst an extraordinary Concourse of People. The 18th the Cardinal d'Aguirre, on the behalf of the Crown of Spain, and the Cardinal d'Estree for France, made the usual Complement to the College of Cardinals: And the Cells of the Conclave were distributed by Los; the best falling to the Spanish Cardinals. The Conclave will be opened on Tuesday next.

Genova, Aug. 20. By a Vessel come from the Levant we have an Account, that the Venetians have besieged the Fortrels of Napoli di Malvasia by Sea and Land. And that the Doge had sent the Prince of Harcourt with a Detachment of 8000 Men towards Corinth, to observe the Enemy, who were drawing some Forces together on that side. Two great Feluccas, belonging to Naples, have brought in here three French Tartanes. The Cardinal of Medecin is gone to Rome, to assist at the Election of a new Pope.

Venice, Aug. 27. The Letters from our Fleet, of the 23th past, give an Account of their arrival before Napoli di Malvasia, of the Landing of the Forces, and of their having formed the Siege of that place. That the Doge had sent a Squadron of Ships under the command of Signior Vener, to observe the Turkish Fleet; And that the Gallies of Malta were ordered to cruise in the Archipelago. This week Signior Trevisani, Signior Guerra, and Signior Rumieri, were added to the Body of the Nobility, each of them paying the usual Sum of 10000 Ducats.

Warsaw, Aug. 19. The Letters from Lemberg, of the 11 instant, tell us, that the Army of this Crown was then encamped at Staritz; from whence they would march, so soon as the Forces of Lithuania (who were within 2 or 3 days march of our Camp,) had joyned them towards the Niefter, to observe the motions of the Tartars, that were drawing together in great Bodies in the Country of Budziack. In the mean time we hear, that Sultran Nuradin was advanced with 10000 to Ciczora, and had sent out Parties which had ravaged the Country as far as Gloradenko, and had carried away a great number of People and Cattel. The King of Poland parted from Zalkiew on the 9th of this month, and arrived the 11th at Zlotzew, where he intended to make a short stay, and then to go to the Army, which is now commanded by the Crown General, who complains of the ill Condition he found the Troops in at his arrival in the Camp. A Diet will be held here about the end of November next.

Vicna, Aug. 28. The last Account we had from Prince Louis of Baden was, That the Imperial Army, consisting of 30000 Fighting Men, decamped the 12th instant from Beshrowitz, where they had built several Redoubts to secure their Bridge over the Morawj. That they had provided themselves with Provisions for 3 Weeks, and with 60 small Boats, which they had put upon Wagons, in order to the making of a Bridge in case of need. And that they had taken their march directly towards the Enemy, (who lay within 15 Hungarian Miles of them, under the Command of the Seralquier, and were said to be 50000 strong,) with a Resolution to fight 'em, and in case they avoided it by their retreat, to march to Nissa, where they hoped to arrive in 13 or 14 days. General Heuster, who is with a Body of Troop on the Frontiers of Transilvania and Upper Hungary, gives an account by his Letters of the 30th past, That he had received Advice from several places, that the Tartars, since the retreat of the Moscovites, did assemble a great Body of Forces near Budziack, which were to joyn the Turks in Hungary; And that the Hospodar of Valachia had received Orders from the Port to send 2000 Men of his Troops to reinforce Count Teckelej, who was encamped at Cavansebas, having put a Garrison into Orsawa, (which the Imperialists had abandoned,) with Orders to fortify it. We have advice from the Count de Corbelli, who commands the Blockade of Great Waradin, that he had defeated a Party of that Garrison, and taken several Prisoners; who confirmed, that they were within the place in great want of Provisions, but that the Bassa would not hear of a Surrender, expecting a speedy relief from Teckelej. The Turks of Ginua and Jeno had a design to have surprized the Castle of Fregetabor, but were repulsed with considerable loss.

Hamburg, Sept. 6. The Letters from Moscow, of the 5th of the last month, say, That their Forces were come back from the Nieper, and gone into Quarters; And that their General, Prince Gallitzen, was return'd to Moscow, where he made his Entry with a great deal of Pomp.

From the Brandenburgh Camp before Bonne, Sept. 6. The 29th and 30th past there came a great many Detachments out of the Town, who reported, that they had there Provisions enough, but that through the Scarcity of Ovens, the Soldier, Soldiers could hardly be supply'd with Bread. The 31th the Elector of Brandenburgh went to confer with the Elector of Trier at the Castle of Wrochels, and return'd the next day. The Enemy made a Sally with some Horse, and kill'd 2 of our advanced Guards. The first instant they fallied out again, but were beaten back with the loss of several Men. The 2^d some Horse and Foot were detach'd to reinforce General Schoening, who, we told you in our last, was sent against the Marquis de Boufflers. The 4th a French Officer was taken, who design'd to have got into the Town with Letters; And four Deserters more came over to us. Yesterday the Dutch Horse began their march towards the Meuse. We are now working on a Line of Circumvallation; though, as we hear, 'tis not intended at present formally to beleige the place. We have an Account from General Schoening, that he was advanced to Meyen, (a Little Town on the Moselle;) and that he had block'd up 500 French in a Castle, and doubted not but to force them to surrender at discretion.

Cologne, Sept. 6. Their Imperial Majesties parted from Nieubourg the 30th past towards Ausbourg, where the Princes Electors are to meet about the end of this month, in order to the chusing a King of the Romans.

Edinburgh, Aug. 31. We have advice, that Colonel Canon has quitted the Blair of Athol, and is retired, with the small number of Rebels that remain with him, towards the Isle of Mull. The Highland Clans come in daily, and lay hold of Their Majesties Gracious Pardon. The Earl of Levins is made Governor of the Castle of Edinburgh; his Commission was read yesterday in Council, and he sworn accordingly.

Chester, Sept. 4. All our Advices from Ireland give a very good Account of the disposition of things there; and tell us, that his Grace the Duke of Schomberg would in few days begin his march towards Dublin. Yesterday Colonel Villar's Regiment of Horse, and Colonel Hamilton's of Foot, set sail from Highbake with a fair Wind. And the Lord Hewit's Regiment of Horse will be shipp'd to morrow.

Pembroke, Aug. 31. Yesterday was brought into this Harbor a French Prize, laden with Fish, of about 60 Tuns, taken by Their Majesties Ship the Dover; she was ordered for Plymouth, but forced in here by the Weather.

Falmouth, Sept. 2. On Friday last was sent in here, by Their Majesties Ship the York, a small Irish Prize; which came from Corke. The Merchant Ships that were in this Port, homeward bound, set sail the day before for the Downs.

Plymouth, Sept. 3. Our Fleet is still in Torbay. Several Merchant Ships are pass'd by to the Eastward.

Hampton-Court, Sept. 1. The Baron de Goers, Envoy Extraordinary from the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel, had this day his Audiences of Leave of Their Majesties, and of his Royal Highness the Prince of Denmark; being conducted by Sir Charles Cottril Master of the Ceremonies.

On Wednesday the 28th of August last the North Mail going out, was, betwixt Kingland and Newington, about 4 in the morning, set upon by three middle sized men on horseback, two of them being mounted on black Horses, and the third on a bay-bald Horse; and one of them taking the Packet Horse by the Bridle, led him and the Post Boy out of the Highway to an adjacent by-Lane, where they taking down the Grand Mail from the Horse back, and opening the same, took out the Scotch Mail, and cutting open the same, they found therein my Lord Melville's Black Box, which they likewise cut open, and rifed; after which the said three Men rid away as fast as they could.

On Sunday the first instant, betwixt 5 and 6 in the morning, three Persons on Horse-back set upon the Chester Mail about a Mile beyond Highbury, taking the Packet-Horse and Packet into an adjacent Wood; but they only broke open the Leicester Bag, all the other Bags remaining seal'd. A Gentleman riding Post with the Mail, was likewise taken into the said Wood; they blinding him and the Post-Boy whilse they robb'd them. These Persons were mounted as followeth, viz. One of them on a bald sorrel Horse, with 3 white Feet, and about 12 hands high; this Person had a loose Camblet Coat on, and under it a grey close Bodied Coat: The second in a whinish close Bodied Coat, with a brown Bob Perriwig, and a Steel hilted Sword, mounted on a bay Horse about 12 or 13 hands high. The third in a grey course loose Coat, mounted on a brown bay Horse, seeming to be a Cart Horse, about 13 hands high. They took away the Horse on which the Gentleman rode, being a dark brown Horse belonging to the Post-Master of Old-street, and Crupper gall'd. These Persons are supposed to be the same that robb'd the North Mail. They only asked for the Chester Bag, the Post-Boy answering, he knew it not, it escaped being opened, as did all other Bags except the Leicester. Whoever gives Notice of the said Robbers to the General Letter-Office, London, shall be very well rewarded.

There are to give Notice, That there is now in the Custody of the Keeper of Their Majesties Goal of Newgate, London, two Persons suspected to be House-breakers and Robbers, several Instruments for breaking of Houses being taken with them. One of them calls himself William Freeman, whose right Name is William Hill, but commonly call'd or known by the Name of The Golden Farmer: He is an indiffernt tall black Man, well set, with black Hair, has a shaking in his Head, aged betwixt 50 and 60. The other, who goes by the Name of Thomas Tylour, whose right Name is Thomas Hawkins, is a middle sized, strong made, black Man, with a short brown Wig, a down looking Countenance, aged about 50. If any Person hath been robb'd by either of the said Parties above named, let them repair to the Keeper of Newgate, whither they may have a fight of them.

Advertisements.

Whereas His Majesty has been graciously pleas'd to grant His Royal License and Privilege to a Relation of Mr. George Walkers, for the sole Engraving and Publishing his Effigies, and that no other Person presume to Print or Publish his Picture in any manner or form whatsoever; or to copy, counterfeit, buy, or distribute the said Effigies. There are to give Notice, That the said Picture, newly drawn from the Life, will be published in a few days; together with a full Account of the Siege of London-derry.

Vade Mecum: Or, A Companion for a Chirurgion. Fitted for Sea or Land; Peace or War, &c. By Thos. Brugis, Doctor in Physick. Wherein is added (by way of Supplement) a new Discourse, call'd Chirurgus Methodicus, Or, The young Chirurgion's Conductor through the Labyrinth of the most difficult Curcs occurring in his whole Art, and whereby he is distinguished from Empyricks and Quack-salvers. By Ellis Prat, M. D. The Seventh Edition. Sold by Fr. Hubbard next the Crown Tavern in Duck-lane.

Taken the 11th past from Mrs. Mary Agon, at Mr. Thriplands, Oylman and Grocer, near Chring-Croft, a Silver Chafing Dish, Basin and Handle, a Silver Tankard with 2 Lyons Rampant, a Porringer, 3 Spoons, a Gilt Cup, some Jewels, a pair of Stays embroydered with Gold and Silver, 2 Meddals, some Silver Buttons, with several other things. Whoever gives Notice of them to Mr. Swan's, Haberdasher, at the Angel near Angel-Court in the Strand, shall have 2 Guinea's Reward.

Taken out of the House of Richard Newman Esq; in Tuston street at Westminster, about 3 weeks since, 6 Books of Accounts, 3 other Books written, one Deed of Mortgage, with the Title thereof, 6 Old Almanacks, and several Bundles of Papers. Whoever brings them either to the said Mr. Newman's, or to Mr. Plants a Glazier in the Bowling-Alley, Westminster, shall have 3 Guinea's Reward.

Lost in June last, near London, a Gold Snuff-Box, with a Cypher on the Top S.H. on the Bottom 2 Figures of Pleasure, and at one end the Arms of England, with 3 Wolves-heads; and at the other end a Plate of Feathers in a Dical Crown. Whoever brings it to Mr. Nicholas Knowles at the Blue Balcony near Kings-gate in Holborn, shall have 3 Guinea's Reward.

Thomas Griffin, aged about 15, having fair lank short Hair, a black Hat, with a Ruffled red and Green Ribon, a sad coloured thick Serge Coat and Breeches, Cinnamon coloured Worsted Stockings; he is little of Stature; went away from his Master the 25th past. Whoever gives Notice of him to Mr. John Pater Cheesemonger at Shadwel-Dock, so he may have him, shall have 20 s. and Charges.

Horses are now taken in at Mr. Green's House in Nonfich Park, by Epsham in Surrey, for Eighteen Pence the week, where they may run till the first of May next, at the same rate, and be well Forthered in the Winter.