

that part of the said parish of Speldhurst which is described in the schedule hereunder written all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of All Saints situate at Langton Green as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of All Saints Langton Green.'

"And with the like consent of the said Archbishop Campbell Archbishop of Canterbury (testified as aforesaid) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages baptisms churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of All Saints situate at Langton Green as aforesaid and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that so long as the Reverend John James Saint the present rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Speldhurst shall continue to be such rector or incumbent all the fees which may be received in respect of the performance of church offices in the church of All Saints situate at Langton Green as aforesaid shall be paid over by the minister thereof to him the said John James Saint; and provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of All Saints Langton Green being:—

"All that part of the parish of Speldhurst in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury wherein the present incumbent of such parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded upon the west partly by the new parish of Saint Peter Fordcomb in the county and diocese aforesaid partly by that detached portion of the parish of Ashurst in the same county and diocese which comprises within its limits the mansion house known as Ashurst Park and partly by the boundary which divides the portion of the said parish of Speldhurst which is within the hundred of Washlingstone from that portion of the same parish which is within the hundred of Somerden upon the south by the new parish of Eridge Green in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester, upon the east by the district chapelry of Saint Paul Rusthall in the county of Kent and diocese of Canterbury aforesaid and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the north by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Speldhurst from the district chapelry of Saint Paul Rusthall aforesaid at the point in the middle of Workhouse-lane a little to the north of the house called or known as Rusthall Lodge where such boundary diverges from the said lane in a north-easterly direction, and extending thence, that is, from the last-described point, north-westward along the middle of the said Workhouse-lane for a distance of twenty-one and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction near the house called or known as the Hole with the lane which leads towards Gipps Cross and which is called or known as Hole-lane and extending thence first southward then westward and then south-westward along the middle of the last-mentioned lane for a distance of twenty-two chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road leading from Gipps Cross past the houses called respectively Speeds, Little Farnham, and Waterfrets to Burnt House, and extending thence first north-westward then north-eastward and then again north-westward along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of twenty-nine chains or thereabouts to its junction at Burnt House aforesaid with the road leading from Speldhurst to Langton Green and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of twenty-one chains or thereabouts to its junction near Quintain Cottages with the lane leading to Fordcomb and called Leggs-lane, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of fifty-seven chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Speldhurst from the new parish of Saint Peter Fordcomb aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 6th day of September, 1880.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her Majesty chapter sixty-three, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of your Majesty chapter sixty-three and of the Acts therein mentioned have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a new archdeaconry within the diocese of Chester to be called 'The Archdeaconry of Macclesfield' and for endowing the same in manner and to the extent hereinafter mentioned, and also, for altering the area of the Archdeaconry of Chester within the same diocese (as the same area will be after the constitution of the said Archdeaconry of Macclesfield) in manner herein-after mentioned; and also for altering the names and areas of certain rural deaneries within the said Archdeaconry of Chester, and within the said proposed Archdeaconry of Macclesfield, and also for creating one new rural deanery (to be called
