India Office, October 15, 1880.

THE following General Order by the Government of India has been received at the India Office :—

GENERAL ORDER.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

Simla, the 20th August, 1880.

FIELD OPERATIONS.

No. 480.—Under the orders of His Excellency the Governor-General in Council, the following Correspondence and Despatch are published for general information :—

From Colonel Allen Johnson, Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Adjutant-General in India.—(No. 7893-K., Kabul Field Operations, dated Simla, 20th August, 1880.)

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 4342-A, dated the 13th August, 1880, forwarding a Despatch relating to an engagement between the troops under the command of Brigadier-General Burrows and the mutinous infantry of His Highness the Wali of Kandahar.

2. In reply, I am directed to state that the Governor-General in Council awaits the promised report from Brigadier-General Burrows, and meanwhile the Despatch forwarded with your letter under reply will be published in the "Gazette of India" for general information.

From Major-General G. R. Greaves, C.B., Adjutant-General in India, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, —(No. 4342-A,—Kabul,—dated Simla, 13th August, 1880).

I AM directed by the Commander-in-Chief to submit to Government Lieutenant-General J. M. Primrose's Despatch, No. 1, dated the 23rd July, 1880, reporting an engagement on the 14th idem, six miles from Girishk, on the Herat road, between the troops under the command of Brigadier-General G. R. S. Burrows and the mutinous infantry of His Highness the Wali of Kandahar's forces.

2. Brigadier-General Burrows' report of the action has been called for, and when received will be forwarded.

3. As far as can be judged from the Despatch now submitted, it appears to His Excellency that the operations, which resulted in the capture of the guns in the hands of the mutineers, were well carried out.

From Lieutenant-General J. M. Primrose, C.S.I., Commanding the Kandahar Field Force, to the Adjutant-General in India,—(No. 1, dated Kandahar, the 23rd July, 1880).

I HAVE the honour to report that early on the morning of the 14th inst. the infantry regiments of His Highness the Wali of Kandahar (numbering two thousand), who were stationed at Girishk, on the right bank of the Helmand, with the object of opposing the advance of Ayub Khan on Kandahar, mutinied, and, taking with them a battery of artillery, moved off on the Herat road, apparently with the intention of joining Ayub Khan, whose troops were reported to be within two marches of Girishk on that date.

2. The Wali's cavalry, two thousand five hundred strong, accompanied him across the river; but Brigadier-General Burrows reports that the majority were completely out of hand, and went off at once in the direction of Kandahar.

3. The force, as per margin,* under the command of Brigadier-General Burrows, which had been sent out from Kandahar to support the Wali, was then encamped on the left bank of the river.

4. On its being reported that the infantry had mutinied and were marching off with the guns, Brigadier-General Burrows ordered troops, as per margin,† to cross the Helmand and pursue, leaving two companies of the 66th Regiment, the 1st Grenadiers, and five companies of the 30th Regiment Native Infantry to guard the camp.

5. The cavalry and horse artillery under Brigadier-General T. Nuttall pushed on at once to feel for the enemy and hold him in check until the infantry could be brought up.

6. The ground being much cut up by numerous wide and deep canals, difficulty was experienced in getting the artillery along; and Brigadier-General Nuttall, fearing that the enemy might make good his retreat, sent the 3rd Sind Horse, under Colonel J. H. P. Malcomson, rapidly to the front, leaving the 3rd Light Cavalry with the guns.

7. They came upon the mutinous troops about six miles from camp, formed up in a strong position on a rocky ridge, their left resting on the right bank of the Helmand, which was here steep and precipitous. Here they held them for three-quarters of an hour, being unable to charge in consequence of the cramped and enclosed nature of the ground.

* E-B, Royal Horse Artillery, No. 2 Company, Bombay Sappers and Miners, 1 officer, 45 rank and file; 3rd Sind Horse, 4 officers, 207 sabres; 3rd Light Cavalry, 6 officers, 300 sabres; Six companies, 66th Foot, 20 officers, 513 rank and file; 1st Bombay N.I. (Grenadiers), 8 officers, 603 rank and file; 30th Bombay N.I. (Jacob's Rifles), 8 officers, 502 rank and file.

† E-B, Royal Horse Artillery, No. 2 Company, Sappers and Miners; 3rd Sind Horse, 3rd Light Cavalry, 410 sabres; four companies, 66th Regiment; three companies, Jacob's Rifles.

8. Before the guns and infantry could get up, the enemy moved off in a direction parallel to the river, but being followed and threatened by the cavalry, came into position again, and opened fire on them with his artillery.

9. In the meantime four guns of E-B Royal Horse Artillery, were brought into action, and in the course of half an hour the enemy's guns were silenced and abandoned by their gunners.

10. The cavalry at once charged to seize them; but on reaching the guns were received by a heavy musketry fire from a body of infantry who had taken up a position on the reverse slope of the hill from which the guns were firing.

11. They were in consequence slightly withdrawn behind the crest of the hill, and some dismounted men being formed under cover of the wagons, returned the fire of the enemy until the infantry and guns arrived.

12. On this the enemy immediately retreated under our artillery and infantry fire, into the valley below, dispersing in all directions, and leaving sixty dead on the field.

13. Brigadier-General Burrows reports that the country was dotted over with villages and intersected by watercourses and walls, rendering pursuit almost hopeless. Moreover, he had a long and difficult march back with the captured guns, the horses of which had been carried off by the enemy, and he was anxious to recross the river by daylight.

14. He therefore recalled his infantry, and sent the cavalry on to secure the baggage, &c., which the enemy were taking off.

15. Brigadier-General Nuttall states that he followed the retreating troops closely, hoping to engage them in some favourable spot, but they at once quitted the bank of the river, leaving the whole of their baggage, ammunition, &c., and retreated through country over which it was impossible for cavalry to act.

16. He therefore abandoned the pursuit and secured the baggage which the enemy had left behind, consisting of 53 camels, a quantity of small arms, ammunition, accoutrements, and supplies.

17. The battery captured consists of four 6-pounder smooth-bore guns, two 12-pounder howitzers, and three ammunition waggons; but being unable to move the wagons, they were destroyed, the guns and howitzers being brought safely into camp.

Brigadier-General Burrows reports that the behaviour of all ranks left nothing to be desired; and particularly brings to notice the fact that the men of the 66th Regiment dragged the captured guns over three miles of difficult country until teams could be obtained for them.

18. Our casualties were as follows:—
British Troops, 66th Foot, 4 men wounded, one since dead.

Native Troops, 3rd Sind Horse, 2 horses killed, 3 horses wounded, 1 horse missing.

Native Troops, 3rd Light Cavalry, 2 horses killed, 1 horse wounded, 2 horses missing.

19. Brigadier-General Burrows informs me that he received every assistance from his Brigade-Major, Captain W. H. M'Math, 66th Regiment; from his Deputy Assistant Quartermaster-General, Captain T. Harris, 66th Regiment; and from Captain J. R. Slade, Royal Horse Artillery, his Orderly Officer, to whose untiring energy he is indebted for the guns being brought on intact with their carriages into camp.

The cavalry under Brigadier-General Nuttall was well handled; and the determined energy with which the artillery was brought up to the front reflects the highest credit on Major G. F. Blackwood, commanding E-B Royal Horse Artillery.

20. Brigadier-General Nuttall states his thanks are particularly due to Colonel J. H. P. Malcomson, C.B., commanding the 3rd Sind Horse; Major A. P. Currie, commanding the 3rd Light Cavalry; Major G. C. Hogg, Poona Horse, Cavalry Brigade Major; Lieutenant J. Monteith, 2nd Sind Horse, Orderly Officer; and Lieutenant G. S. Jones, Royal Artillery (on transport duty), who accompanied Brigadier-General Nuttall as galloper.

21. A sketch by Brevet-Major E. P. Leach, Royal Engineers, illustrating the day's operations is attached.

The Tramways Act, 1870.

Barton, Eccles, Winton, and Monton Local Board.
Notice of Intended Lease of Tramways in pursuance of the Tramways Act, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Barton, Eccles, Winton, and Monton Local Board intend, subject to the approval of the Board of Trade, by an indenture to be made between the Local Board, of the one part, and William Turton, of Leeds, in the county of York, Merchant, and Daniel Busby, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Coach Proprietor, of the other part, to lease to the said William Turton and Daniel Busby, the sole and exclusive right of user by them, their executors, administrators, and allowed assigns of the tramways next hereinafter mentioned, in the district of the Local Board, namely (first), a tramway commencing in the Liverpool-road, at Peel Green, in the township of Barton-upon-Irwell, passing along Liverpool-road, Church-street, Regent-street, and part of the Eccles New-road, and terminating in the Eccles New-road at the municipal boundary of the borough of Salford, by a junction there with a tramway authorized by the Salford Tramways and Improvement Act, 1875; (secondly), a tramway commencing by a junction with the tramway first above-mentioned, at a point in Church-street, in the township of Barton-upon-Irwell, opposite the north-easterly corner of the house No. 100, occupied by Samuel Fish, in that street, and terminating in Eccles Old road, at the municipal boundary of the borough of Salford, by a junction with a tramway authorized to be constructed by the Salford Tramways and Improvement Act, 1875, and certain other tramways, all being sidings or passing places in connexion with the tramways first and secondly above-mentioned, and of all other passing places, and of the works and conveniences connected with the said tramways, and the right of demanding and taking in respect of the premises, the tolls, and charges authorized by a Provisional Order of the Board of Trade in the intended lease referred to. The term of the lease is to be 21 years, calculated from the 1st day of April, 1878. The rent reserved to be £1,729 per annum, and the lease is to contain the covenants and conditions next hereinafter generally described, namely, a covenant by the lessees to pay the rent by quarterly payments, and all taxes (except property tax), and other outgoings in respect of the tramways; not to carry goods, animals, or things other than passengers and passengers' luggage on the tramways, between 8 A.M. and 8 P.M., without the consent of the lessors; not to use carriages or trucks adapted for ordinary use on railways; to observe the regulations and bye-laws to be made by the lessors as in the lease mentioned; to permit the lessors, when required to use the tramways for sanitary purposes, and for the conveyance of materials required for any works of the lessors, free from toll; to carry, when required by the lessors, goods, minerals, and parcels in separate carriages or separate parts of carriages; to run carriages each way every morning and evening in the week, Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday excepted, for artisans, mechanics, and labourers at fares not exceeding one halfpenny per mile (but with a maximum fare of one penny); to observe all rules and bye-laws of the Tramways Act, 1870, the said Provisional Order, or any general statutes for the time being affecting tramways, and which ought to be observed by the lessees; not to assign or underlet the premises without the consent, in writing, of the lessors, which is not to be withheld to any responsible and respectable persons, company, or corporation, and at the expiration of the term to deliver up the demised premises to the lessors; and the said lease is intended to contain a power for the lessors, upon notice, to determine the said term of 21 years in case of non-payment of rent for 21 days, or breach of any of the lessees' covenants, and a power also for the lessors to recover the said rent, with any arrears, by distress upon the carriages, horses, plant, and effects of the lessees upon any part of the tramways. And the said lease is also intended to contain a covenant by the lessors for quiet enjoyment by the lessees of the demised premises upon payment of the rent and observance of the lessees' covenants; that the lessors will maintain the demised tramways, with all proper appliances, in a sufficient state for all purposes of the traffic thereon, and will not exercise the powers conferred by section 19 of the said Provisional Order (namely, as to declaring the tramways to be open for use to the public) without the consent, in writing, of the lessees. And notice is further given, that a copy of the draft of the said intended lease is deposited for public inspection, during office hours, at the office of the Local Board, situate in Liverpool-road, Patricroft.—Dated the 1st day of October, 1880.
