India Office, December 31, 1880.

THE following General Orders by the Governor-General of India have been received at the India Office :—

GENERAL ORDERS. MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

Simla, the 27th October, 1880.

FIELD OPERATIONS.

No. 598.—THE Viceroy and Governor-General in Council has much satisfaction in directing the publication, for general information, in continuation of G. G. O., No. 551, of 1880, of the subjoined correspondence regarding the gallant and devoted conduct of the 66th (the Berkshire) Regiment of Foot at the affair of Maiwand on the 27th July last.

From Major-General G. R. Greaves, C.B., Adjutant-General in India, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department. —(No. 5994-A.,—Kabul,—dated Simla, the 25th October, 1880).

I AM directed by the Commander-in-Chief to forward, for the information of Government, the accompanying letter from Lieutenant-General Primrose, C.S.I., reporting on the gallant and determined stand made by the 66th Regiment at Maiwand.

The events mentioned have already been referred to in my letter No. 5351-A., dated the 25th September, 1880; but the details now given show the gallantry and devotion to duty of the officers and men who fell on that occasion.

The accompanying documents, mentioned in paragraph 1 of Lieutenant-General Primrose's letter, are Brigadier-General Daubeny's report and accompaniments of the proceedings of the force under his command in connection with the burial of the dead on the field of Maiwand, which have been forwarded to Government with this office No. 5948-A., dated the 22nd instant.

From Lieutenant-General J. M. Primrose, C.S.I., Commanding the 1st Division, Southern Afghanistan Field Force, to the Adjutant-General in India, Simla,—(No. 1050-K, dated Kandahar, the 1st October, 1880.)

IN forwarding the accompanying documents, I would most respectfully wish to bring to His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief's notice the gallant and determined stand made by the officers and men of the 66th Regiment at Maiwand.

The disposition of the regiment was as per margin*, and of this number 10 officers and 275 non-commissioned officers and men were killed, and 2 officers and 30 non-commissioned officers and men wounded.

The officers and men nearly all fell fighting desperately for the honour of their Queen and country.

I have it on the authority of a Colonel of Artillery of Ayub Khan's army, who was present at the time, that a party of the 66th Regiment, which he estimated at one hundred officers and men, made a most determined stand in the garden marked "A" in the accompanying plan.

They were surrounded by the whole Afghan army, and fought on until only eleven men were left, inflicting enormous loss upon the enemy.

These eleven charged out of the garden and died with their faces to the foe, fighting to the death.

Such was the nature of their charge and the grandeur of their bearing that, although the whole of the ghazis were assembled around them, not one dared approach to cut them down.

Thus standing in the open, back to back, firing steadily and truly, every shot telling, surrounded by thousands, these eleven officers and men died; and it was not until the last man had been shot down that the ghazis dared advance upon them.

He further adds that the conduct of these men was the admiration of all who witnessed it.

This is the testimony of a man who witnessed the scene, and who gave the information before Brigadier-General Daubeny proceeded to Maiwand.

From an examination of the ground, from corroborative evidence, and from the position in which the bodies were found, I have not the least hesitation in stating that this account is true; and I think His Excellency will agree with me when I say that history does not afford any grander or finer instance of gallantry and devotion to Queen and country than that displayed by the 66th Regiment on the 27th July, 1880.

A nominal roll of the officers and men who fought and died thus nobly has been already forwarded to you; and enquiries from survivors elicit the following facts :—

Lieutenant-Colonel James Galbraith was last seen on the nullah bank, kneeling on one knee, with a colour in his hand, officers and men rallying round him; and on this spot his body was found.

* Fighting line.—15 officers, 364 men—all ranks. Baggage guard in rear.—4 officers, 63 men—all ranks. With smooth-bore battery.—1 officer, 42 men—all ranks. Sick.—32 men.

Here too fell Captain William Hamilton M'Math, a gallant soldier, and one who would, had his life been spared, have risen to distinction in Her Majesty's service.

Close by Second Lieutenant Harry James Outram Barr was shot dead over one of the colours.

Captains Ernest Stephen Garratt and Francis James Cullen were both killed on the field in front of the nullah, up to the last moment commanding their companies and giving their orders with as much coolness as if on an ordinary regimental parade.

Captain Walter Roberts was mortally wounded in the garden, where the last stand was made; and here also fell Lieutenant Maurice Edward Rayner, Lieutenant Richard Trevor Chute, Second Lieutenant Walter Rice Olivey, and Second Lieutenant Arthur Honywood.

The two latter officers were seen holding up the colours, the pole of one of which was shattered to pieces, as rallying points; and Lieutenant Honywood was shot down whilst holding a colour high above his head, shouting—"Men, what shall we do to save this!"

Sergeant-Major Alexander Cuppage was shot dead outside the garden whilst carrying a colour; and many other non-commissioned officers and men laid down their lives in the attempt to save the colours of their regiment on that day.

With the gallant band who made this last grand effort, fought and died Major George Frederick Blackwood, Royal Horse Artillery; Lieutenant Thomas Rice Henn, Royal Engineers; and Lieutenant Charles William Hinde, 1st Bombay Grenadiers, Native Infantry, with some of his men.

The men of the 66th on baggage guard, under the command of Captain J. Quarry, did excellent service during the retreat.

The party told off to man the smooth-bore battery under Lieutenant G. De la M. Faunce worked their guns steadily and well during the fight.

No. 599.—The Governor-General in Council is pleased to direct the publication, for general information, in continuation of G. G. O. No. 582 of 1880, of the following Correspondence and Despatch, relating to the part taken by the troops of the Kandahar garrison, under the command of Lieutenant-General J. M. Primrose, C.S.I., in the action of the 1st September last, near Kandahar.

From Colonel Allen Johnson, Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Adjutant-General in India,—(No. 8853-K.,—"Kabul Field Operations"—(dated Simla, the 27th October, 1880).

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 5754-A., dated the 14th instant, forwarding a Despatch from Lieutenant-General J. M. Primrose, C.S.I., detailing the part taken by the troops under his command in the operations of the 1st September, 1880, near Kandahar.

2. With reference thereto, I am to state that the Governor-General in Council concurs in the remark made by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief in paragraph 12 of your letter No. 5585-A., dated the 7th instant, that these troops rendered good service on the occasion referred to.

3. Lieutenant-General Primrose's report will be published in the Gazette of India on an early date, for general information.

From Major-General G. R. Greaves, C.B., Adjutant-General in India, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department,—(No. 5754-A.,—"Kabul,"—(dated Simla, the 14th October, 1880).

In continuation of my letter No. 5585-A., dated 7th instant, paragraph 12, I am instructed by the Commander-in-Chief to forward herewith Despatch No. 999 of the 27th ultimo, from Lieutenant-General Primrose, C.S.I., reporting the part taken by the troops under his command on the 1st September.

2. His Excellency concurs in the remarks already made by Sir Frederick Roberts, that the Kandahar Force rendered good service in the engagement.

From Lieutenant-General J. M. Primrose, C.S.I., Commanding the 1st Division, Southern Afghanistan Field Force, to Lieutenant-General Sir F. S. Roberts, K.C.B., Commanding in Southern Afghanistan,—(No. 999-K.,—"Field Operations,"—dated Kandahar, 27th September, 1880).

I HAVE the honour to report that, in compliance with instructions received from you early on the morning of the 1st September, 1880, I issued the following orders:—

"I.—E-B Royal Horse Artillery, escorted by two companies of the 7th Fusiliers and four companies of the 28th Native Infantry, will march from Kandahar, via the Edgah Gate, so as to reach the hill behind the village of Gandizan by 9 A.M.

"II.—The Officer in command of this party will report himself to Brigadier-General Gough, V.C., Commanding the Kabul Field Force Cavalry Brigade, which is to be formed up behind the Gandizan Hill by 9 A.M.

"III.—The infantry and guns will precede the cavalry, and clear the way for them.

"IV.—The detachment of infantry with E-B Royal Horse Artillery, at Gandizan, will remain stationary when the cavalry advances.

"V.—The troops as per margin,* under the command of Brigadier-General Burrows, will be formed up at Kalacha-i-Haidar (the old cavalry lines) at 8 A.M., for the purpose of threatening the Baba Wali Kotal and watching the Kotal-i-Murcha.

"VI.—The Commanding Royal Engineer will detail a party of sappers to accompany the force.

"VII.—This force will remain stationary during the day.

"VIII.—The Officer Commanding the Royal Artillery will see that a good position is taken up by No. 5-11th Royal Artillery, for firing at the guns on the Baba Wali Kotal; and, in doing this, he will bear in mind that the object of the movement on the right is entirely to hold the enemy on and about the pass, whilst the real attack is delivered by the left in the direction of Pir Paimal.

"IX.—The following troops, under the command of Brigadier-General Daubeney, will at once occupy a line of pickets (in relief of those of the Kabul Field Force) extending from Picket Hill on the right by Karez Hill to Chil-Zina on the left:—

4 Companies 66th Regiment.
2 " 1st Bombay Native Infantry.
2 " 28th " " "

"X.—The whole of the available cavalry of regiments as per margin,† under the command of

* No. 5-11th, Royal Artillery, four guns, 40-pounders. 4 companies, 7th Fusiliers. 4th Regiment, Bombay Native Infantry. 19th Regiment, Bombay Native Infantry.

† 3rd Light Cavalry. Headquarters Poona Horse. 3rd Sind Horse.

Brigadier-General Nuttall, will move out in advance of Brigadier-General Burrows, and take up a good position for watching the Baba Wali and Kotal-i-Murcha passes, with the ground intervening.

"XI.—C-2nd Royal Artillery will proceed at once to Picket Hill, where Major Greig will report to Colonel Johnson for further orders.

"XII.—A day's cooked rations to be taken by the troops.

"XIII.—Only the first reserve of ammunition will accompany the troops.

"XIV.—Signallers to accompany each party.

"XV.—The Deputy Surgeon-General will make all arrangements for the reception and care of the wounded.

"XVI.—The headquarters of the Lieutenant-General will be at first in the Sappers' garden.

"XVII.—Colonel Mainwaring, 30th Native Infantry, will take command of the city during the day, and make all local arrangements."

2. In accordance with the above, the cavalry moved out at about 7.30 A.M., and Brigadier-General Daubeney followed at about 8 A.M., occupying the ground ordered as follows:—

2 Companies 1st Bombay Native Infantry were posted on Picket Hill.

2 Companies 66th Regiment on Karez Hill.

1 Company 66th Regiment between Karez Hill and Picket Hill.

1 Company 28th Bombay Native Infantry between Chil-Zina and Karez Hill.

1 Company 28th Bombay Native Infantry watching the gardens in left rear of the Chil-Zina.

3. Brigadier-General Burrows marched shortly after, taking up a strong position in the old cavalry and Jacob's Rifles' lines.

4. An excellent position was found for No. 5-11th Royal Artillery, about one hundred yards to the right of Picket Hill.

5. During the whole of the march of the above troops into position they were constantly shelled by the enemy from guns in battery on Baba Wali Kotal, but no casualties occurred.

6. At 9.15 A.M. No. 5-11th came into action under a heavy fire from the enemy's artillery, and remained in action until 12.30 P.M., engaging the guns on the Kotal, which replied with much spirit until about noon, when they were apparently directed upon the troops who were making the turning movement by Pir Paimal.

7. During the early stage of the advance of the 1st and 2nd Brigades on the village of Gandhi Mulla Sahibdad, the enemy gathered in strong force on the low hills directly in front and east of the Baba Wali Pass, evidently contemplating a rush on the guns of No. 5-11th; but their leaders, who could be distinctly seen urging them on in the direction of Kalacha-i-Haidar, could not force the ghazis collected there to face the position taken up by Brigadier-General Burrows; and, though some few actually advanced down the hills, the main portion would not follow, and they remained under cover until the position was turned, when they retreated rapidly over the Kotal.

8. At 9 A.M. Major Tillard, commanding E-B Royal Horse Artillery, with the escort of the 7th Fusiliers and the 28th Native Infantry, arrived at the village of Abásabad and reported to Brigadier-General Gough, who directed him to proceed along the Kokeran road and clear the low hills near the village of Gandizan.

9. Immediately on opening fire the enemy commenced a heavy musketry fire on the guns (which was, however, soon silenced), and also fire from the two guns at the foot of the south-west spur of the Pir Paimal.

10. The practice of these two guns was continuous and good; and though the guns of E-B were engaging them some time, they were unable to silence them.

11. Shortly after 11 A.M. Brigadier-General Gough directed this party to advance and hold the hills by Gandizan, which had been abandoned by the enemy, and in this position they remained until ordered to return to quarters at 5 P.M.

12. On reporting to Colonel Johnson, Major Greig, commanding C-2nd Royal Artillery, was ordered to form up behind Karez Hill with the rest of the attacking troops.

13. At about 9 A.M. two guns of this battery moved to the right of Karez Hill and opened fire against the village of Gandhi Mulla Sahibdad, and were shortly after joined by the rest of the battery, which kept up a fire on the village until masked by the advance of the 1st Brigade.

14. The battery then limbered up and followed the 1st Brigade during the remainder of the day, coming into action on the left of the village of Gandhi Mulla Sahibdad, but, the enemy dispersing, they did not fire.

15. At 2 o'clock the cavalry, which had been watching the passes, received orders to cross by the Baba Wali Kotal and pursue up the Arghandab valley in the direction of Kajah Múlk.

16. Brigadier-General Nuttall, taking with him the 3rd Sind Horse and the 3rd Light Cavalry, proceeded at once to carry out these orders, and, pushing on, came upon bodies of the enemy making for the hills and along the valley.

17. These he charged and dispersed, following up the retreating enemy to Mansúrabad, a distance of some fifteen miles.

18. Night coming on compelled him to abandon the pursuit, and he therefore returned, reaching the lines at about 10 P.M.

19. Brigadier-General Nuttall estimates the loss of the enemy in this pursuit at one hundred men killed.

20. At 5 P.M. the whole of the pickets being relieved returned to quarters.

21. A complete casualty list, with amount of ammunition expended, has been already forwarded.

No. 214.—"Field Operations,"—dated Quetta, the 2nd October, 1880.

Forwarded to the Adjutant-General in India, in continuation of Field Force No. 88, dated 26th September, 1880, to which I beg that it may be attached.

F. S. ROBERTS, Lieut.-Genl.,
Commanding in Southern Afghanistan.

No. 600.—The names of the undermentioned officers were inadvertently omitted from the list of those enumerated in the Despatch of Lieutenant-General Sir F. S. Roberts, G.C.B., V.C., C.I.E., No. 88, dated the 26th September, 1880, as having rendered specially good service during the march from Kabul to Kandahar, and in the action near the latter place on the 1st September, 1880:—

Lieutenant-Colonel G. N. Money, Bengal Staff Corps, commanding the 8rd Sikh Infantry.

Quartermaster J. Walsh, 72nd Highlanders, Provost Marshal of the Kabul Kandahar Field Force.

ALLEN JOHNSON, Colonel,
Secretary to the Government of India,

Colonial Office, December 30, 1880.

THE accompanying Despatch has been received by the Earl of Kimberley from Sir George Cumine Strahan, K.C.M.G., Administrator of the Cape Colony :—

Government House, Cape Town,

MY LORD, December 7, 1880.

IN continuation of my Despatch No. 117, of the 30th ultimo, I have the honour to inform your Lordship that the following casualties in the Colonial Forces have since been reported, viz. :—

On the 1st instant, Private Kiddy, Cape Mounted Rifles, killed; Captain Bremmer, 3rd Yeomanry, and Private Dykeman, Duke of Edinburgh's Own Volunteer Rifles, seriously wounded; Bolton, Kimberley Horse, slightly wounded; Lieutenant Honey, an Officer of Native Levies, killed; and F. Wernhart, Cape Town Rangers, severely wounded.

I have, &c.,

GEO. C. STRAHAN, Administrator.

P.S.—It has just been reported that Captain Bremner has since died, and has been buried, with military honours, at Mafeteng.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of December, 1880.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty in the words and figures following; that is to say :—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty chapter eighty-two have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist situate at New Bromley in the parish of Bromley in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Bromley and of the new parish of Saint Mary Plaistow in the county and diocese aforesaid which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and new parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Bromley and of the said new parish of Saint Mary Plaistow should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist situate at New Bromley as aforesaid,

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell Archbishop of Canterbury as such Archbishop and also as the patron in right of his See of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Mary Plaistow, and with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry Bishop of the diocese of Worcester as the patron in right of his See of the vicarage of the said parish of Bromley (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Bromley and of the said new parish of Saint Mary Plaistow which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint John the Evangelist situate at New Bromley as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist Bromley.'

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist Bromley being :—

"All that portion of the parish of Bromley in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, and also all that contiguous portion of the new parish of Saint Mary Plaistow within the original limits of the parish of Bromley aforesaid which said portions of such parish and of such new parish respectively are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Bromley from the new parish of Saint Mary Plaistow aforesaid at the point where the road called or known as Palace-grove is joined by the road leading from the northern end of Palace-road to East-street and extending thence that is from the said point of junction south-westward along the said boundary for a distance of three and a half chains or thereabouts thereby following the course of the road leading from the northern end of Palace-road to East-street as aforesaid to the point where the last-described road is intersected by the public footpath which leads from Bromley along the rear of the houses situate on the western side of Palace-grove aforesaid and across the Bromley Direct Line of the South-Eastern Railway to Alma-grove Plaistow and extending thence that is from the said point of intersection first northward and then north-eastward along the middle of the said public footpath for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to the point at the gate on the south-eastern side of the said line of railway where the same footpath bends towards the north-west to cross such line of railway at or near to which point a boundary-stone inscribed 'B. St. J. C. C. 1880 No. 1' has been placed and extending thence north-eastward and in a direct line for a distance of twenty-five chains or thereabouts to a boundary-stone inscribed 'B. St. J. C. C. 1880 No. 2' and placed on the western side of Plaistow-road at its junction with the public footpath leading to the northern end of Palace-road aforesaid and extending thence that is from the last-mentioned boundary-stone still north-eastward to the boundary in the middle of the said Plaistow-road which boundary divides the said new parish of Saint Mary Plaistow from the parish of Bromley aforesaid and extending thence south-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts thereby following the course of the last-named road to the point at the junction of the same road with Freeland's-road where the said last-mentioned boundary bends towards the west and continuing thence still south-eastward along the middle of the said Plaistow-road for a distance of forty-four chains or thereabouts to its junction with Widmore-road and with the roadway leading to the Widmore Brick and Tile Works and extending thence southward along the middle of the said roadway for a distance of eighty-eight yards to a point at the southern end of such roadway at or near to which point a boundary-stone inscribed 'B. St. J. C. C. 1880 No. 3' has been placed and extending thence westward for a distance of eighteen and a half chains or thereabouts in a direction parallel to and distant eighty-eight yards (measured in a direct line) from the middle of Widmore-road aforesaid to a boundary-stone inscribed 'B. St. J. C. C. 1880. No. 4' and placed on the eastern side of Wanstead-road at a distance of eighty-eight yards (measured along the last-named road) from the middle of Widmore-road aforesaid and continuing thence still westward for a distance of fifteen chains or thereabouts in a direction parallel to and distant eighty-eight yards (measured in a direct line) from the middle of Widmore-road aforesaid to a boundary stone inscribed 'B. St. J. C. C. 1880, No. 5,' and placed on the eastern side of the private road leading from the Palace Farm into Widmore-road aforesaid at a distance of eighty-eight yards (measured along the said private road) from the middle of Widmore-road aforesaid, and continuing thence that is from the last-mentioned boundary-stone to a point in the middle of the said private road and extending thence northward for a distance of eighty-eight yards along the middle of the same private road to its junction with Widmore-road aforesaid and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of nine and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Denmark-road and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to its junction with Park-road and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of eight and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road called or known as Palace-grove as aforesaid and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of thirteen chains or thereabouts to the first described point where the same road is joined by the road leading from the northern end of Palace-road to East-street as aforesaid such point being upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Bromley from the new parish of Saint Mary Plaistow aforesaid at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

The Carmarthenshire Railway or Tramroad Company.

WHEREAS in pursuance of the Llanelli and Mynydd Mawr Railway Act, 1875, which was extended by the Act, 1880, the Committee appointed by the Carmarthenshire Railway or Tramroad Company at the special general assembly of proprietors, held on the 5th day of July, 1880, for the purpose of carrying into effect the powers conferred upon the said Company by the said Acts, or one of them, have, on behalf of the said Company, taken all proper and necessary steps for providing, and provided a new book or new books, to be called the Register of Proprietors, and for registering therein the names and places of abode of such persons as, after due enquiry, the said Committee were and are satisfied were at the date of making any entry therein the lawful holder or holders of shares of and in the undertaking of the said Company, or entitled either at law or in equity to be registered as the proprietor or proprietors of such shares, together with the number of the shares to which such proprietors were respectively entitled; and the amount of the subscriptions paid on such shares. And whereas, in further pursuance of the said Acts, or one of them, the said Committee have, on behalf of the said Company, taken all proper steps for providing and provided a new book or books, to be called the Register of Mortgagees, and for registering therein the names and places of abode of such persons (if any) as after due enquiry the said Committee were, and are satisfied were, at the time of making any entry therein, entitled, either at law or in equity, to sue upon any mortgage or assignment of the undertaking of the said Company, together with the date of such mortgage or assignment, the sum of money borrowed, and the rate of interest to be paid in respect of the same.

Now, in further pursuance of the said Act, notice is hereby given by the said Committee on behalf of the said Company, that it is the intention of the said Company to apply by petition, in a summary way, to the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice for the confirmation of the entries in such registers respectively according to the particulars set forth in the schedule hereto; and notice is hereby also given, that such registers may be inspected, during office hours, on any day, between the 17th day of December, 1880, and the 1st day of February, 1881, at the office of Messrs. Johnson and Stead, Solicitors, Llanelly, in the county of Carmarthen. And notice is hereby also given, that the said petition will be heard, by special leave of his Lordship, on the 4th day of February, 1881, by Vice-Chancellor Sir Charles Hall, one of the Judges of the Chancery Division aforesaid, at his Lordship's Court, situate at Lincoln's-inn, Middlesex; and that any objection to, or application to vary or cancel any such entry as aforesaid, may be then made to the Chancery Division aforesaid; and that in the event of no such objection or application being made or sustained, application will be made by the said Company to the Chancery Division aforesaid on the said 4th day of February, 1881, to confirm the said register and registers respectively in respect of the entries to which this notice refers in case the Chancery Division aforesaid shall be satisfied of the correctness thereof, and that thenceforth such entry or entries will be evidence of the ownership or the proprietorship of such shares and mortgages or assignments respectively, to the same extent as entries made in a register provided and kept under the powers of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845.
