

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 4, 1881.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 31st day of December, 1880.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, (in this Order referred to as the Act of 1878,) and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :

1. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the ninth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one ; and words in this Order have the same meaning as in the Act of 1878.

2. The area described in the Schedule to this Order, except the lines of railway within that area as far as those lines are used or required for the transit of animals through that area, without being untrucked within it, (with which transit nothing in this Order shall be deemed to interfere,) is hereby declared to be an area infected with foot-and-mouth disease.

3. No market, fair, exhibition, or sale of animals shall be held in the said area except as follows :

Markets, exhibitions, and sales of animals may be held with the licence in writing of the Local Authority.

Animals exposed for sale or exhibited in such markets, exhibitions, or sales so licensed shall be slaughtered within ten days after the holding of the market, exhibition, or sale (as the case may be), and every licence so granted by the Local Authority shall specify such slaughter as the condition on which the licence is granted.

4. If any animal so required to be slaughtered is not so slaughtered, the purchaser or owner thereof or his agent (as the case may be) shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

— C. L. Peel. — SCHEDULE.

An area comprising the County of Leicester, and the Borough of Leicester.
