

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

EAST MALLING FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. By Memorial, dated the 7th day of February, 1881, a representation has been duly made to me by the Justices of the Division of Upper South Aylesford, in the county of Kent, that a Fair has been annually held on the 15th of July, in the parish of East Malling, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished:

2. On the 18th day of March, 1881, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

W. V. Harcourt.

Whitehall, February 18, 1881.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

WOODSIDE GREEN FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Magistrates acting in and for the Petty Sessional Division of Harlow, in the county of Essex, that a Fair has been annually held on Tuesday in Whitsun Week, at Woodside Green, in the parish of Great Hallingbury, within the said Petty Sessional Division, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas John Archer Houblon, Esq., as lord or owner of the said Fair, and the tolls thereof, has consented in writing that the said Fair should be abolished:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on Tuesday in Whitsun Week, at Woodside Green, in the parish of Great Hallingbury, within the Petty Sessional Division of Harlow, in the county of Essex, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 17th day of February, 1881.

W. V. Harcourt.
