AT the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of March, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning

"the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows; viz.:—

In the churchyard of Saint John, Sheffield, to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, on condition that the restrictions contained in that part of the Order in Council of the fourth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, relating to that churchyard be observed.

In the parish churchyard of Woodstone, to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

In the parish churchyard of Belgrave, to the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

In the parish churchyard of Headington, to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

In the parish churchyard of Forest Hill, in the county of Oxford, to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

In the parish churchyard of Wilburton, in the county of Cambridge, to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

In the churchyard of Sidbury, in the county of Devon, to the thirty-first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

ERRATUM.—In Order in Council relating to burials in Kinver and other places, published in the London Gazette on 8th March 1881 for "Harley" read "Hailey."

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 11th day of March, 1881.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878; (in this Order referred to as the Act of 1878,) and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. The limits of the area which is described in the Order of Council dated the twenty-first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and
