

the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of Duddo, that the said new church of All Saints, situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church (dedicated to Saint James), of the same parish.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consents (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said Joseph Barber, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, and of the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Durham, and of the said Beverley Smelt Wilson, hereby declare that the said new church of All Saints, situate within the said parish of Duddo, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be and the same is hereby substituted for the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint James as aforesaid) of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of Duddo, in lieu of the said old parish church of Saint James, as fully in all respects as if the said new church of All Saints, so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same parish. And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint James as aforesaid) of the said parish of Duddo, or of or belonging to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof to the said new church of All Saints (now being, by virtue of these presents, the parish church of the said parish of Duddo), and to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said Joseph Barber, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, and the said Dean and Chapter of Durham have affixed their corporate seal, and the said Beverley Smelt Wilson has set his hand and affixed his seal, this ninth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty.
