Privy Council Office, 1st April, 1881.

THE following Statutes made on the fifteenth day of March, 1881, by the University of Cambridge Commissioners, under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, for the University of Cambridge, have been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty, and notice of their having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the said Act:—

WE, the University of Cambridge Commissioners, by virtue of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, and subject and according to the provisions thereof do hereby by writing under our Seal make the Statute hereunto annexed for the University of Cambridge, and do hereby declare it to be a Statute for the University.

Given under our Common Seal this fifteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

STATUTE B.

This Statute is declared to be a Statute for the University of Cambridge.

CHAPTER I.

FOR CONTRIBUTIONS OF COLLEGES FOR UNIVERSITY PURPOSES.

1. Each of the Colleges shall pay to the University in every year for University purposes the sum determined by subsequent provisions of this Statute, according to a per-centage on its income.

The income of a College shall, for the purposes of this Chapter, be taken to be the gross income, external and internal, including the profits, if any, derived from the hall, kitchen, buttery, sale of commodities, and supply of service, including also such parts of the income arising from the investment of sums received from members of the College as compositions for dues thereafter payable to the University or to the College or both as may be applied, either yearly or otherwise, to the general revenue of the College or to any purpose within the College; not including, however, the rents paid for rooms, but including instead thereof the amount at which the College buildings are from time to time assessed under the provisions of the Cambridge Award Act, 1856, or any other Act for the assessment of property in the town of Cambridge for the purposes of parochial or municipal rates; after deducting from such gross income any sums paid thereout under the several heads next following:—

- (a.) Rates, taxes, and insurance on the College buildings.
- (b.) Rates, taxes, insurances, tithe or other rentcharge, fee farm rents, quit-rents, fines on copyhold estates, fines on renewals of leases, if and when paid by the College.
- (c.) The University dues paid to the University in each year by the College for such of its members as have not made compositions for dues payable to the University or the College.
- (d.) The cost of maintenance and repairs of the College buildings.
- (e.) The cost of maintenance, repairs, and improvements on the College estates incurred by the College.
- (f.) Necessary repairs of chancels in all cases where the same are chargeable upon the College and paid by it.
- (g.) Compulsory charges on the College estates or general revenue for the augmentation of benefices, and stipends of perpetual curates in parishes where the College possesses tithe rentcharge or land given in lieu of tithe.
- (h.) The cost of management of the College estates including the stipends paid to College officers for the purpose.
- (i.) The interest on debts and loans and the repayment of principal money by instalments in all cases in which the debt has been incurred or the loan contracted for the extension of the College buildings or for the improvement of the College estates and such instalments are spread over a period of not less than twenty years.
- (k.) Such receipts from minerals or other sources as the College is by law required to treat as capital.
- (l.) Such portions of the income of trust funds as are applicable exclusively to purposes without the College.
- (m.) One half of the income derived from the tuition fees paid by students.

2. Subject to the deductions mentioned in the clause next following, the aggregate sum to be
