

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, APRIL 15, 1881.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 30, 1881.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be generally kept on Tuesday, 24th May next; but that, in order to avoid interference with the business of Parliament on that day, it will be celebrated in London alone on Saturday, 28th May.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 13, 1881.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold Drawing Rooms at Buckingham Palace, on Tuesday, the 3rd, and on Thursday, the 5th, of May next, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Ladies who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Rooms, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

KENMARE,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 13, 1881.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 23rd of May next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

KENMARE,

Lord Chamberlain.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 1st day of April, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the tenth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church situate at Sayers Common in the parish of Hurstpierpoint in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church situate at Sayers Common as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Richard Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Hurstpierpoint which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church called Christ Church situate at Sayers Common as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Christ Church Sayers Common.'

"And with the like consent of the said Richard Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church called Christ Church situate at Sayers Common as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Christ Church Sayers Common being:—

"All that part of the parish of Hurstpierpoint in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester which is bounded on the south-west by the parish of Albourne on the north-west by the parish of Twineham, the parish of Bolney and the parish of Cuckfield on the north-east by the last-named parish and by the new parish of Saint John's Common (all which said parishes and new parish are in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester aforesaid) and on the remaining side that is to say on the south-east by an imaginary line commencing at the point near the south-west corner of Shelley's Wood where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John's Common from the parish of Hurstpierpoint aforesaid crosses the road leading from St. John's Common and Burgess Hill to Hurstpierpoint and extending thence first south-westward and then southward along the middle of such road for a distance of thirty-six chains or thereabouts to its junction with the bridleway known as the Whapple-road and extending thence westward along the middle of the said bridleway for a distance of twenty-five chains or thereabouts to its junction with High Hatch-lane and with Pomper's otherwise Pump House-lane and continuing thence still westward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of eighteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road leading from Cuckfield to Hurstpierpoint and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of thirty-six chains or thereabouts to the point where it is intersected by the footpath leading from Danworth Farm past New Barn and past the orchard of Knowle's Villa into Langton-lane and extending thence first westward then southward then south-westward and then again westward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of fifty-five and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Langton-lane aforesaid and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of thirteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with the waggon way or occupation-road which leads through Coombe Farm past the northern end of Coombe Wood into the high road from London to Brighton and extending thence westward along the middle of the said waggon way or occupation-road for a distance of thirty-six chains or thereabouts to its junction with the high road aforesaid and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the same highroad for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Hurstpierpoint from the parish of Albourne aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 1st day of April, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventeenth day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Stephen situate at Upper Holloway in the district parish of Saint John Upper Holloway in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said district parish of Saint John Upper Holloway and of the new parish of Saint Mary, Hornsey Rise in the said county of Middlesex and in the said diocese of London, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such district parish and new parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said district parish of Saint John, Upper Holloway, and of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Hornsey Rise, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Stephen situate at Upper Holloway as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of London, as such Bishop with the consent of the Reverend Daniel Wilson, Clerk in Holy Orders now vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Saint Mary Islington in the said diocese of London, with the consent of the Reverend William Hagger Barlow, Clerk in Holy Orders now Principal of the Church Missionary College at Islington, with the consent of the Reverend Robert Long, Clerk in Holy Orders now vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Saint Andrew Auckland in the diocese of Durham with the consent of the Reverend Thomas Pownall Boulton, Clerk in Holy Orders of Saint John's Hall Highbury in the said diocese of London, and with the consent of the Reverend Charles Welland Edmonstone Clerk in Holy Orders now vicar or incumbent of the new parish of Christ Church Hornsey in the said diocese of London, the patrons of the vicarage of the said district parish of Saint John Upper Holloway; and with the consent of the Reverend Robert Douglas Monro now vicar or incumbent of the new parish of Saint Mark Tollington Park in the diocese of London aforesaid and as such vicar or incumbent the patron of the vicarage of the new parish of Saint Mary Hornsey Rise aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said district parish of Saint John Upper Holloway and of the said new parish of Saint Mary Hornsey Rise which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Stephen situate at Upper Holloway aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Stephen Upper Holloway.'

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Stephen, Upper Holloway, being:—

"All that portion of the new parish of Saint Mary, Hornsey Rise, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London and also all that contiguous portion of the district parish of Saint John Upper Holloway in the same county and diocese which said portions of such new parish and district parish are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary Hornsey Rise from the district parish of Saint John Upper Holloway aforesaid at the point where such boundary is crossed by the line of the Tottenham and Hampstead Branch of the Midland Railway such point being opposite to the northern end of Shadwell-road and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of such branch line of railway for a distance of five and three-quarter chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries the Tottenham-road over the said line of railway and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to its junction with Birkbeck-road and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to its junction with Sunnyside-road and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts to its junction with Hazelville-road and continuing thence still north-westward for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Cheverton-road and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of fourteen and three-quarter chains or thereabouts thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary Hornsey Rise from the district parish of Saint John Upper Holloway aforesaid to the junction of the said last-named road with the public footpath which leads from Hornsey-lane to Saint John's-road and extending thence south-eastward for a distance of four chains or thereabouts along the middle of the said public footpath to a point opposite to a boundary-stone inscribed 'U. H. St. S. C. C. 1881' and placed on the eastern side of such footpath against the western boundary wall of the Islington Workhouse, and extending thence south-westward and in a direct line for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts partly across the close numbered 30 upon the map of the ordnance survey of the parish of Saint Mary Islington on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ scale (published in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy) and upon the map hereunto annexed, and partly along the course of the commencement of a certain new road to a point in the middle of the north-western end of Miranda-road and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to its junction with Saint John's-road aforesaid and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of three and a-half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Summerfield-road and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to its junction with Birkbeck-road aforesaid and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of Saint John's-road East and extending thence south-eastward and in a direct line for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts traversing thereby and following the middle course of the commencement of a certain new street to be called Ashbrook-road and also crossing the two closes numbered respectively 60 and 63 on the said maps to a point in the middle of the line of the Tottenham and Hampstead Branch of the Midland Railway aforesaid and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of such branch line of railway for a distance of eight and a half chains or thereabouts to the point upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary Hornsey Rise from the district parish of Saint John Upper Holloway as aforesaid at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 1st day of April, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, or representation bearing date the tenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, in the words following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting under the provisions of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Luke Brierfield and of the new parish of Little Marsden both which new parishes were sometime part of the parochial chapelry of Little Marsden within the original limits of the parish of Whalley in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council bearing date the third day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three and published in the London Gazette upon the following day a part of the said parochial chapelry of Little Marsden was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Luke situate at Brierfield within the limits of the said parochial chapelry and such district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Luke Brierfield.'

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of your Majesty in Council bearing date the seventh day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven and published in the London Gazette upon the twentieth day of the same month a part of the said parochial chapelry of Little Marsden was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church situate at Little Marsden and such district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of Little Marsden.'

"And whereas both the said district chapelry of Saint Luke Brierfield and the said district chapelry of Little Marsden have under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and four become new parishes of the character contemplated by that Act and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and by the said above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries both of the said new parish of Saint Luke Brierfield and of the said new parish of Little Marsden should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend James Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order all that part of the said new parish of Saint Luke Brierfield which is described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended and is thereon coloured pink shall be dissevered from such new parish and shall be annexed to and shall form part of and shall become and be and be deemed to be within the limits of the said new parish of Little Marsden.

"And we further represent recommend and Propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory proposed to be dis-severed from the new parish of Saint Luke Brierfield in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester and to be annexed to the new parish of Little Marsden in the same county and diocese is as follows:—

"All that part of the said new parish of Saint Luke Brierfield which is bounded on the south-west partly by the extra-parochial territory known as 'Reedley Hallows' in the county and diocese aforesaid and partly by the new parish of Saint James Briercliffe in the same county and diocese, on the south-east by the last-named new parish and on the north-east by the new parish of Little Marsden aforesaid and on the remaining side that is to say on the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Little Marsden from the new parish of Saint Luke Brierfield aforesaid at the point near Edge End where the said boundary is crossed by the public footpath which leads from 'Edge End' aforesaid past 'Bent Head' and past 'High Head' and 'Parson Clough' to 'Reedley Barn' and extending thence first south-westward and then south-eastward along the middle of the same footpath for a distance of forty chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Luke Brierfield from the extra-parochial territory known as Reedley Hallows aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the two cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, or representation and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester. C. L. Peel.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 45.)—MEDITERRANEAN.—FRANCE.—SOUTH COAST.—APPROACH TO MARSEILLE.

(1.) Planier Islet Light Partially Obscured.

THE French Government has given notice, that the light now shown on Planier Islet, southern approach to Marseille, is obscured by the new lighthouse in course of construction, through a sector of about 25°, extending from north of Riou Island to Mount Rose.

Also, that the new light will be exhibited in the course of the year 1881.

The following particulars concerning certain lights in the Black Sea and Sea of Azov are derived from the Russian Admiralty Light List, 1880 :—

BLACK SEA—KERTCH STRAIT.

(2.) Tuslinski Light-vessel.

Tuslinski Light-vessel, moored in 19 feet water, near the south-west extreme of Tuzla Bank, is painted black, and carries a black frame ball at the main mast head. During the day, when at her station, a yellow flag with a blue cross is hoisted at the mizen mast.

The light (fixed white) should be visible in clear weather from a distance of 6 miles. The illuminating apparatus is catoptric, or by reflectors.

During thick or foggy weather, a bell is sounded once every minute.

The light-vessel is withdrawn on the close of navigation, when, the position is indicated by a perch and flag.

GULF OF AZOV.

(3.) Bielosarai Light.

Referring to Notice to Mariners, No. 81 (2), of 9th June, 1879, on the exhibition of two fixed white lights on Bielosarai Spit, northern entrance point to the Gulf of Azov :—

One light (fixed white) is now exhibited from an octagonal shaped lighthouse situate about 2360 yards within the extremity of the Spit, visible between the bearings of S.E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E., through north, and S.W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W.

(4.) Petchany Light-vessel.

Petchany Light-vessel, moored near the extremity of Sazalnitz Bank, Gulf of Azov, carries a black frame ball at the main mast head. The illuminating apparatus is catoptric, or by reflectors.

Position, approximate, lat. 47° 0' 30" N., long. 38° 15' 30" E.

During thick or foggy weather, a bell is sounded for the space of ten minutes, at intervals of five minutes.

(5.) Beglitzkaia Light-vessel.

From Beglitzkaia (Golden Bank) Light-vessel, moored south-eastward of Beglitzkaia Spit, Gulf of Azov, one light (fixed red) is now exhibited. A red frame ball is carried at the main mast head.

During thick or foggy weather, a bell is sounded once every three seconds for the space of ten minutes, at intervals of five minutes.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of one hundred and fifty-eight pounds and ten shillings, which has been paid to us in favour of the rectory of Saint Martin, Colchester, in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Saint Albans, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same rectory, and to his successors, a yearly sum of five pounds five shillings and eight pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said rectory of Saint Martin, Colchester, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of five pounds and six shillings, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend, so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said rectory in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of two hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint James,

Lathom, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Liverpool, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint James, Lathom, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Croydon, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Canterbury, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twentieth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said last-mentioned days in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the Archbishop of Canterbury, that three Assistant-Curates, duly licensed by him, have been employed within the parish of Croydon aforesaid during the quarter of the year then ended: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said parish and vicarage of Croydon.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Eston, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us: To have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments with their appurtenances to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments for and in respect of the period intervening between the twenty-third day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness thereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

Inland Revenue, Somerset House,
London, April 14, 1881.

INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS by the Taxes Management Act, 1880 (43 and 44 Vict., ch. 19), power is given for increasing in certain cases the number of persons appointed, under the provisions made by the Income Tax Act of 1842, Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax, and persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners in each district or division in Great Britain; and it appearing to the Board of Inland Revenue that the number of persons so appointed for the division of Kendal Ward, in the county of Westmorland, is insufficient for the proper discharge of the business therein arising under the Tax Acts, the said Board hereby authorize the increase in the number of the Commissioners for the said division to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen; and we, the undersigned, two members of the said Board, do hereby convene a meeting of the persons appointed for putting in execution within the said county, an Act passed in the 38th year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for granting an aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain for the service of the year 1798," being respectively qualified to act as Commissioners in the execution of the last-mentioned Act, to be holden at the Townhall, in Kendal, on Saturday, the 23rd day of April, 1881, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of choosing and appointing, according to the regulations of the said Income Tax Act of 1842, such number of fit and proper persons to be Commissioners for general purposes for the said division of Kendal Ward, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners, as may be sufficient to increase the number of such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen.

Shiffnal Union.—Parish of Shiffnal.

To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish of Shiffnal, in the County of Salop;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the population of the said parish of Shiffnal, according to the last census, exceeds two thousand persons;

And whereas at a Meeting of the Vestry of the said parish, held in the Vestry Room of the Parish Church, pursuant to public notice in that behalf, on Thursday, the 21st day of October, 1880, it was resolved,—

"That the Churchwardens of the Parish of Shiffnal be, and they are hereby authorized, to apply to the Local Government

"Board to make an Order for putting in force in the Parish of Shiffnal so much of an Act passed in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled 'An Act to prevent the holding of Vestry or other Meetings in Churches, and for regulating the Appointment of Vestry Clerks,' as relates to the providing of a place other than the Parish Church or the Vestry Room thereof for the purpose of holding of any Vestry or other Meeting for the transaction of any business of or relating to the Parish of Shiffnal."

And whereas the Churchwardens of the said parish have made application in writing to the Local Government Board, pursuant to the above resolution:

Now therefore, we, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to us by the Statutes in that behalf, hereby order as follows:

ARTICLE I.—So much of the Act passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act to prevent the holding of Vestry or other Meetings in Churches, and for regulating the appointment of Vestry Clerks," as relates to the providing of a room or suitable buildings for the purpose of holding Vestry or other Meetings, shall forthwith be applied to and be put in force within the said parish of Shiffnal.

ARTICLE II.—A copy of this Order shall be published in the London Gazette by the Churchwardens of the said parish.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this eleventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.
