

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, MAY 17, 1881.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 30, 1881.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be generally kept on Tuesday, 24th May next; but that, in order to avoid interference with the business of Parliament on that day, it will be celebrated in London alone on Saturday, 28th May.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 13, 1881.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 23rd of May next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is

Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

KENMARE,
Lord Chamberlain.

Privy Council Office, May 2, 1881.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 16th day of May, 1881.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. The area described in the Schedule to this Order is hereby declared to be an area infected with foot-and-mouth disease.
2. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the eighteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

C. L. Peel.

SCHEDULE.

An area comprising the parishes of Clench-warton, North Lynn, and West Lynn, in the county of Norfolk.

THE CONTAGIOUS DISEASES (ANIMALS) ACT, 1878.

THE following areas are now Areas Infected with Foot-and-Mouth Disease under the above-mentioned Act (except the lines of railway within those areas as far as those lines are used or required for the transit of animals through those areas, without untrucking):—

Whereas an Humble Address has been presented unto Us by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, praying that We will be graciously pleased to appoint a Royal Commission to inquire into the constitution and working of the Ecclesiastical Courts, as created or modified under the Reformation Statutes of the 24th and 25th years of King Henry VIII, and any subsequent Acts:

Now know ye that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your knowledge and ability, have nominated, constituted, and appointed, and do by these presents nominate, constitute, and appoint you, the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury; William, Archbishop of York; John Alexander, Marquess of Bath; William Reginald, Earl of Devon; Henry Thomas, Earl of Chichester; Edward Harold, Bishop of Winchester; John Fielder, Bishop of Oxford; Edward White, Bishop of Truro; James Plaisted, Baron Penzance; Frederic, Baron Blachford; John Duke, Baron Coleridge; Sir Robert Joseph Phillimore, Sir Richard Assheton Cross, Sir Walter Charles James, William Charles Lake, John James Stewart Perowne, Brooke Foss Westcott, William Stubbs, James Parker Deane, Edward Augustus Freeman, Thomas Espinell Espin, Alexander Colvin Ainslie, Arthur Charles, Francis Henry Jeune, and Samuel Whitbread, to be Our Commissioners for the purpose aforesaid.

And for the better enabling you to form a sound judgment on the premises We do hereby authorise and empower you, or any seven or more of you, to call before you, or any seven or more of you, all such persons as you may judge most competent, by reason of their situation, knowledge, or experience to afford you correct information on the subject of this Our Commission, and also to call for, have access to, and examine all such official books, documents, and records as may afford you the fullest information on the subject. And to inquire of and concerning the premises by all other lawful ways and means whatsoever.

And We do by these presents will and ordain that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you, Our said Commissioners, or any seven or more of you, may from time to time proceed in the execution thereof and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment.

And Our further will and pleasure is that you do, with as little delay as possible, report to Us, under your hands and seals, or under the hands and seals of any seven or more of you, your opinion upon the matter herein submitted for your consideration.

And for your assistance in the execution of this Our Commission, We have made choice of Our trusty and well-beloved Alfred Bray Kempe, Esq., Barrister-at-Law, to be Secretary to this Our Commission.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, in the forty-fourth year of Our reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,

W. V. Harcourt.

War Office, May 16, 1881.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the decoration of the Victoria Cross upon the undermentioned Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer, and Soldiers of Her Majesty's Army, whose claims have been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, for their gallant conduct during the recent operations in Afghanistan and South Africa, as recorded against their names:—

Regiments.	Names.	Acts of Courage for which recommended.
59th Foot ...	Captain (now Brevet Major) Euston Henry Sartorius	For conspicuous bravery during the action at Shah-jui, on the 24th October, 1879, in leading a party of five or six men of the 59th Regiment against a body of the enemy, of unknown strength, occupying an almost inaccessible position on the top of a precipitous hill. The nature of the ground made any sort of regular formation impossible, and Captain Sartorius had to bear the first brunt of the attack from the whole body of the enemy, who fell upon him and his men as they gained the top of the precipitous pathway; but the gallant and determined bearing of this Officer, emulated as it was by his men, led to the most perfect success, and the surviving occupants of the hill top, seven in number, were all killed. In this encounter Captain Sartorius was wounded by sword cuts in both hands, and one of his men was killed.
Royal Horse Artillery	Sergeant Patrick Mullane...	For conspicuous bravery during the action at Maiwand, on the 27th July, 1880, in endeavouring to save the life of Driver Pickwell Istead. This Non-Commissioned Officer, when the battery to which he belonged, was on the point of retiring, and the enemy were within ten or fifteen yards, unhesitatingly ran back about two yards and picking up Driver Istead, placed him on the limber, where, unfortunately, he died almost immediately. Again, during the retreat, Sergeant Mullane volunteered to procure water for the wounded, and succeeded in doing so by going into one of the vil'ages in which so many men lost their lives.
Royal Horse Artillery	Gunner James Colliss ...	For conspicuous bravery during the retreat from Maiwand to Kandahar, on the 28th July, 1880, when the Officer commanding the battery was endeavouring to bring on a limber, with wounded men, under a cross fire, in running forward and drawing the enemy's fire on himself, thus taking off their attention from the limber.
Army Hospital Corps	Provisional Lance-Corporal Joseph John Farmer	For conspicuous bravery during the engagement with the Boers at the Majuba Mountain, on the 27th February, 1881, when he showed a spirit of self-abnegation and an example of cool courage which cannot be too highly commended. While the Boers closed with the British troops near the wells, Corporal Farmer held a white flag over the wounded, and when the arm holding the flag was shot through, he called out that he had "another." He then raised the flag with the other arm, and continued to do so until that also was pierced with a bullet.

Downing Street, May 13, 1881.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to direct Letters Patent to be passed under the Great Seal granting and declaring that the Degrees of Bachelor and Master of Arts and Bachelor and Doctor of Medicine, of Laws, of Science, and of Music, granted or conferred by the University of Adelaide, South Australia, on any person, male or female, shall be recognized as Academic Distinctions and rewards of merit, and be entitled to rank, precedence, and consideration in the United Kingdom and in the Colonies and possessions of the Crown throughout the world, as fully as if the said Degrees had been granted by any University of the said United Kingdom.

Downing Street, May 16, 1881.

THE Queen has been pleased to appoint Henry Lettsome Maclean, Esq., to be a Member of the Legislative Council of the Virgin Islands.

Whitehall, April 23, 1881.

THE Queen has been pleased to grant unto Henry Jaffies Burford Hancock, of the Inner Temple, Barrister-at-Law, and Chief Justice of the Leeward Islands, Her Royal licence and authority that he and his issue may take and bear the surname of Burford in addition to and before his own surname; provided that the said concession and declaration be duly recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.

Whitehall, April 28, 1881.

THE Queen has been pleased to grant unto Richard Henry Goodwin, of Hinchley Wood House, in the parish of Mappleton, and county of Derby, Esquire, in the Commission of the Peace for that county, and formerly a Captain in the 6th (Royal) Regiment of Foot, Her Royal licence and authority that he and his issue may take and use the surname of Gladwin, in addition to and after that of Goodwin, and that he and they may bear the arms of Gladwin; and to direct that the same be duly recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise the said Royal concession to be void and of none effect.

EXCHEQUER BILLS.

Treasury Chambers, Whitehall,
 May 16, 1881.

THE Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice to the holders of Exchequer Bills issued under the authority of the Act 29 Vict., cap. 25, and dated the 11th June, 1876, that the interest thereon for the half-year ending on the 11th June, 1881, will be payable at the Bank of England on and after the 11th day of June, 1881.

The said EXCHEQUER BILLS, dated the 11th June, 1876, WILL BE PAID OFF, either in New Bills or in money, on the 11th June, 1881, WHEN THE INTEREST WILL CEASE. Such Bills will be received at the Bank of England daily from ten till two o'clock;

UNTIL THURSDAY, THE 2ND DAY OF JUNE, 1881, INCLUSIVE.

Printed forms, containing instructions for the preparation of the Lists and the arrangement of the Bills, may be obtained on application at the Chief Cashier's Office, Bank of England.

The holders must insert their names and addresses in each List; but where the names of holders are inserted in the body of the Bills, the indorsements of such holders must be obtained previously to their Lists and Bills being left for examination.

New Bills, prepared in accordance with the provisions of the Act 29 Vict., cap. 25, dated the 11th day of June, 1881, may be obtained in payment of the principal of the whole, or part, of the Exchequer Bills advertised for payment, on the claimants specifying in their Lists the amount of New Bills required by them.

The interest of the said New Bills will be payable by coupons, half-yearly, on the 11th December and 11th June, at the Bank of England. The rate of interest will be advertised from time to time in the London Gazette. Such rate for the half-year to the 11th day of December, 1881, will be two per cent. per annum.

The Bills will be current from year to year, for a period of five years, commencing on the 11th June, 1881, at the option of the holders; and they will be payable for duties, aids, and taxes, at any time during the last six months of every year, viz., between the 11th December, in each year, and the 11th June following.

The New Bills in payment of the Bills left on or before the said 2nd day of June for Exchange, will be issued ON SATURDAY, THE 11TH DAY OF JUNE, 1881, when the claimants must attend at the Bank of England to sign receipts for the payment of Principal.

Notice will be given yearly of the days on which holders of the New Exchequer Bills who may be desirous of being paid the principal moneys must send their Bills to the Bank of England for examination and payment.

Payment, in money, may be obtained at the Bank of England after the said 11th day of June next for any Exchequer Bills hereby advertised for payment in New Bills or in money as above, and which may not be brought in accordingly, upon the claimants leaving the Bills for examination three days prior to that on which such payment is desired, between the hours of Ten and Two.

(3.) Akyab Beacon on Western Borongo Island.

The Government of India has given notice, dated 24th February, 1881, that as a guide to vessels approaching the port of Akyab, and in order to distinguish Table-land from the other hills on Western Borongo Island, a basket beacon has been erected on the top of the old light tower.

The tower is painted white, and in the afternoon shows up well against the trees in the back ground. The beacon, 8 feet in diameter, is painted black and yellow in vertical stripes, and in clear weather can be seen above the trees from a distance of nearly 10 miles.

(1.) Buoy and Light-Vessel Marking Wreck off Dover.

THE Trinity House, London, has given notice, dated 23rd April, 1881, that a buoy has been placed 15 fathoms N.N.W. from the brig "Mary," sunk off Dover:—

The buoy, painted green and marked wreck, lies in 41 feet at low-water spring tides, with the following bearings and distance, viz.:—
Cornhill Coast-guard Station N.E. by N.
South Foreland High Light-

house	N.E. ¾ E.
Dover Pier Lighthouse	...	W. ¼ S., Sly., distant	1 ⅜ths miles.

There is 23 feet over the deck of the wreck at low-water spring tides.

A wreck-marking vessel has been placed about three-quarters of a cable S.S.E. from the wreck, exhibiting marks by day and lights by night—in accordance with the regulations indicating that she should be passed on that side on which two balls or two lights are shown.

Civita Vecchia—Obstruction in Southern Entrance.

INFORMATION has been received from Vice-Admiral Sir Beauchamp Seymour, K.C.B., Commander-in-Chief in the Mediterranean, dated 27th April, 1881, that the southern entrance to the port of Civita Vecchia is greatly obstructed by the wreck of the British steam vessel "Linda":—

During a gale in January, 1881, the "Linda" parted her stern moorings, swung to her anchors, and was bilged on the rocks at the north-east end of the southern arm of the mole. She is lying with her head to the northward, the masts still standing, sunk from the taffrail to the mainmast, the bow being high out of water, and is a dangerous obstruction to the navigation of the port during the night.

The cargo (coal) was being slowly got out by divers, but no attempt had been made to raise the vessel.

By command of their Lordships,

Fredk. J. Evans, Hydrographer.

TAKE notice, that a Meeting of the Joint Creditors of Thomas Ridley Oswald and John Murray Mordaunt, both of Woolston, in the county of Southampton, Iron Shipbuilders, a special resolution for the liquidation of whose affairs by arrangement and not in bankruptcy was duly passed on the 29th day of March, 1881, and registered on the 7th day of April, 1881, will be held at the offices of Messrs. R. Mackay and Co., 3, Lotlibury, in the city of London, Chartered Accountants, on Friday, the 27th day of May, 1881, at two o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of considering the propriety of the assent by the trustee to the following scheme of settlement of the affairs of the debtors, and, if approved, of passing a special resolution of the creditors sanctioning the acceptance of the same:—1. That a sale be made to the debtors, Thomas Ridley Oswald and John Murray Mordaunt, of the whole of the freehold and leasehold lands, buildings, and fixed and loose plant, loose tools, stores, book debts, contracts, and all the assets of the joint estate, subject to the various claims of secured creditors thereon, and to the arrangements and payments to creditors under the powers conferred upon the trustee by this scheme, for the payment by them of a composition of 15s per pound to the creditors of the joint estate upon the amount of their respective debts (upon which a dividend would be properly payable in bankruptcy), payable as follows, viz.:—5s. per £1, payable on or before the 20th August, 1881; 5s. per £1, payable on or before the 20th April, 1882; 2s. 6d. per £1, payable on or before the 20th April, 1883; 2s. 6d. per £1, payable on or before the 31st

December, 1883;—15s. The said debtors Thomas Ridley Oswald and John Murray Mordaunt to give to the trustee for distribution amongst the creditors their promissory notes for the above instalments; 2. That the whole of the joint estate shall remain vested in the trustee, and that he shall be at liberty to carry on the works and business under the direction of the Committee of Inspection, and with the assistance of the said Thomas Ridley Oswald and John Murray Mordaunt until the whole of the above composition has been paid to the creditors, and all the costs, charges, and expenses of the liquidation, and the liabilities of the trustee have been discharged; 3. That the trustee is authorised and empowered during the continuance of such working of the business to pay the interest due and to become due on the claims of the various creditors holding security, and also to pay off not exceeding the following sums of principal monies to the mortgagees of the shipbuilding works at Woolston, in such instalments as may be arranged:—First mortgagees of the lands and works not exceeding £2,600; second mortgagees of the lands and works not exceeding £8,000. 4. That the trustee is, subject to the approval of the Committee of Inspection, authorised and empowered to pay off the various mortgages and charges upon the other properties and assets of the estate and the interest thereon. 5. That the trustee is authorised and empowered to borrow upon security of the properties or assets of the estate such sums of money as he may from time to time require for carrying on the business. 6. That the trustee is authorised and empowered, out of any monies to be received by him under the trusts and powers hereinbefore mentioned, to pay and discharge, in addition to the payments hereinbefore authorised, all debts that may at any time be due from him for or in relation to the said business, or any such loans as aforesaid, and also all the costs, charges, and expenses of the said liquidation, and of carrying on the said business, including such remuneration of the trustee as shall from time to time be approved by the Committee of Inspection, and also the allowances to the debtors, and also the payment of the instalments of the said composition as they shall become due and payable. 7. That the payments to be made to the trustee for his remuneration, and the costs, charges and expenses of the liquidation and of this scheme, shall be subject to the sanction and approval of the Committee of Inspection. 8. That the payments to be made to the said Thomas Ridley Oswald and John Murray Mordaunt for managing the works and business, be such as are from time to time sanctioned by the Committee of Inspection. 9. That on the whole of the instalments of the composition of 15s. per £1 being paid to the creditors on or before the due dates thereof, and all the costs, charges and expenses of the liquidation paid, and the liabilities of the trustee discharged, of which facts the certificate of the trustee shall be conclusive evidence, the whole of the joint estate and assets shall, subject to the charges then remaining upon them, be conveyed to the said Thomas Ridley Oswald and John Murray Mordaunt, or as they may in writing direct. 10. That in the event of the first or any subsequent instalment of the above composition not being paid when due, this scheme of arrangement shall be deemed to be at an end, and the trustee shall be at liberty to sell or otherwise realize the joint estate in his hands, and apply the same in payment to the creditors as if this scheme of arrangement had not been made. 11. That the said Thomas Ridley Oswald and John Murray Mordaunt shall be discharged from the joint debts as from the date of approval of this scheme by the Court, without any further resolution being necessary.—Dated this 16th day of May, 1881.
