

“benefice, from time to time, as the same shall become vacant.”

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury pursuant to the provisions of the said Act hath duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a certificate in writing, bearing date the twelfth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, in the words following, that is to say:—

“To the QUEEN’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

“We the undersigned Archibald Campbell Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury Primate of all England and Metropolitan do hereby certify to your Majesty in Council.

“That the Right Reverend James Lord Bishop of Hereford having represented unto us that the rectory of Holgate in the county of Salop and diocese of Hereford and the second portion or deaconry in the rectory and parish church of Holgate aforesaid which second portion or deaconry is a spiritual sinecure rectory in the parish of Holgate aforesaid and of which parish of Holgate the population does not exceed one thousand five hundred persons might with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one benefice we inquired into the circumstances of the case.

“That on such inquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully made and would not be of inconvenient extent and that the Right Reverend James Lord Bishop of Hereford being in right of his see the patron or person entitled to collate to the said rectory of Holgate if the same were now vacant and the Right Reverend Henry Lord Bishop of Worcester being in right of his see the patron or person entitled to present to the said spiritual sinecure rectory of the second portion or deaconry in the rectory and parish church of Holgate aforesaid if the same were now vacant have signified their consents in writing to the union of the said rectory of Holgate with the spiritual sinecure rectory of the second portion or deaconry in the said rectory and parish church of Holgate into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

“That six weeks and upwards before certifying such inquiry and consent to your Majesty in Council we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of the parish church of the said benefices with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such union and no such cause has been shown.

“The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Hereford our inquiry into the circumstances of the case the statement of circumstances in reply thereto the consents in writing of the patrons and the copies of the representation and notice before-mentioned are herunto annexed.

“And we do hereby certify the inquiry and consents aforesaid to your Majesty in Council to the intent that your Majesty in Council may in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for uniting the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only. And for declaring that the course and succession in which the respective patrons for the time being shall after the said benefices shall have been united into one benefice collate or present to such united benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows that is to say for the first three turns the right to present to such united benefice shall belong to and be exercised by the Lord Bishop of Hereford for the time being and the fourth turn of presentation shall belong to and be exercised by the Lord Bishop of Worcester for the time being and thenceforth for ever every three turns of presentation out of four turns shall belong to the Lord Bishop of Hereford and his successors and every fourth turn of presentation shall belong to the Lord Bishop of Worcester and his successors.

“As witness our hand this twelfth day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

“A. C. Cantuar.”

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered that the rectory of Holgate situate in the county of Salop and diocese of Hereford and the second portion or deaconry in the rectory and parish church of Holgate aforesaid shall be united into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

And Her Majesty in Council by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased to direct that the course and succession in which the respective patrons for the time being shall after the said benefices shall have been united into one benefice collate or present to such united benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows that is to say, for the first three turns the right to present to such united benefice shall belong to and be exercised by the Lord Bishop of Hereford for the time being and the fourth turn of presentation shall belong to and be exercised by the Lord Bishop of Worcester for the time being and thenceforth for ever every three turns of presentation out of four turns shall belong to the Lord Bishop of Hereford and his successors and every fourth turn of presentation shall belong to the Lord Bishop of Worcester and his successors.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty’s reign, intituled “An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis,” it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time
