War Office, June 7, 1881.

THE following Despatch from the General Officer Commanding the Forces, Natal and Transvaal, dated 16th April, 1881, has been received by the Secretary of State for War:—

SIR, Camp, Newcastle, April 16, 1881.

I HAVE the honour to transmit herewith a copy of a report (with enclosures) from Lieutenant-Colonel H. Stewart, 3rd Dragoon Guards, who was directed by me to ascertain the condition of the wounded and prisoners in the hands of the Boers.

From this report it will be seen that both at Heidelberg and at Brunker's Spruit, the prisoners and wounded received every attention, and that their confinement as prisoners of war was of the least irksome kind.

In pursuance of my instructions, Lieutenant-Colonel Stewart, after the peaceful termination of the negotiations with the Boers, made arrangements for the removal of the prisoners to Natal.

Accordingly on the 30th March, 3 officers, 61 non-commissioned officers and men, left Heidelberg under the command of Captain Hornby, 58th Regiment, and on the same day Captain Anton, 94th Regiment, with Second Lieutenant Miller, 94th Regiment, and Conductor Field, Commissariat and Transport Staff, left Heidelberg for Brunker's Spruit, in order to bring down those encamped at the latter place, viz. :—2 officers, 64 non-commissioned officers and men, 3 women, and 2 children.

According to latest information, 23 non-commissioned officers and men, 3 women, and 2 children have been sent to Pretoria by orders of the Boer Commandant.

Second Lieutenant Coombe, 94th Regiment, has received instructions to bring down from Potchefstroom any wounded that may be there. It is believed that there are only three or four now at that place.

Lieutenant-Colonel Stewart, with Captain Mac Gregor and Lieutenant Wright, 92nd Highlanders, arrived here on the 2nd instant, in advance of the rest.

Lieutenant-Colonel Stewart's arrangements have met with my entire approval.

I have, &c.,
EVELYN WOOD,
Major-General, Commanding Forces Natal
and Transvaal.

To the Chief of the Staff Head-Quarters.

SIR, Heidelberg, March 29, 1881.

I HAVE the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter dated March 14th, 1881, transmitted to me by Mr. Joubert, directing me to collect and forward to you information regarding the prisoners in the hands of Boers.

These prisoners were stationed at Brunkhorst Spruit and Heidelberg, with the exception of Major Clarke, who was detained at Potchefstroom.

The officers at Heidelberg, where I was living, were not allowed to see the men except by special permission. Upon receipt of your letter, having obtained the sanction of the authorities, I went to the camp where the men were located, and made the most careful inquiries. No camp could have been more comfortable, and I was assured on all hands that nothing but kindness had been experienced at the hands of the Boers. The rations issued to the men were liberal in the extreme, and were described to me as being "as much as they liked." No complaint of any sort was forthcoming.

I beg to attach a return marked "A,"* giving the names of the men at Heidelberg, and showing the actions in which they were captured. All the men described as wounded on this return have quite recovered, and the health of all appeared to be excellent. Sergeant Clements, 3rd Battalion 60th Rifles, was the only man indisposed. He was still suffering slightly from bruises received when endeavouring to escape being taken prisoner.

Upon the following day, March 25, I proceeded to Brunkhorst Spruit, arriving at the camp on the 26th instant. I saw all the prisoners, and spoke to every man individually. Here, also, I found that the same kindness and attention had been shown to the prisoners as at Heidelberg, and that all were more than satisfied with their treatment.

I beg to attach a letter marked "B" from Surgeon Ward, Army Medical Department, corroborating the views I have expressed above. I also beg to attach the following returns, marked:—

*"C."—Officers, non-commissioned officers, and men killed at Bruncker's Spruit.

*"D."—Officers, non-commissioned officers, and men wounded, and present condition.

*"E."—Officers, non-commissioned officers, and men taken prisoners, and disposal.

*"F."—Officers, non-commissioned officers, and men present in camp, Brunkhorst Spruit, on March 27th, 1881.

All men shown in the Returns "D" and "E" as having gone to Heidelberg have been sent into the Free State, with the exception of these still here, as shown on Return "A."

With regard to the officers at Heidelberg, all of whom were captured at the action of Majuba Hill, every possible consideration has been shown to them, both on the march and while quartered here.

Mr. Maclaren, an English gentleman, was requested by the Boers to make all arrangements for their residence in Heidelberg. He placed his house and garden at their entire disposal, and has left nothing undone which could add to their comfort.

I would mention that every facility has been given me to make all inquiries; and when proceeding to and from Bruncker's Spruit, I was most hospitably entertained at various farmhouses to which I was taken by Mr. Schutt, a Boer representative, who accompanied me.

I have written to Major Clarke, at Potchefstroom, conveying to him the contents of your letter, and requesting him to reply to it to you direct.

I have, &c.,
HERBERT STEWART,
Lieutenant-Colonel.

"B."

Camp, Brunkhorst Spruit, Transvaal, March 27, 1881.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to furnish you with nominal rolls* of the officers, non-commissioned officers, and men killed, wounded, and taken prisoners in the action at Brunkhorst Spruit on 20th December last, as well as the non-commissioned officers and men of the Army Hospital Corps in this camp who were sent from Pretoria after the action.

I have been in this camp since, and with the exception of a few days have been in charge, and I have the pleasure to inform you that the Boers in the neighbourhood have been most kind to us, and have aided us in many ways, enabling us to procure necessaries for the wounded.

The general health of the camp has been exceptionally good, and the conduct of the men excellent.

I have, &c.,
E. C. R. WARD,
Surgeon, Army Medical Department, in charge of Camp, Brunkhorst Spruit.

* These returns have not been printed, the information having already been published from time to time.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Justice, made in an action re Padwick, Medwin v. Padwick, 1879, P., No. 346, with the approbation of his Lordship Mr. Justice Fry, by Mr. John Whittaker Ellis, the person appointed by the said Judge, at the Auction Mart, Tokenhouse-yard, in the city of London, on Wednesday, the 6th day of July, 1881, at two o'clock in the afternoon precisely, the following freehold properties, in two lots:—

Lot 1. Walton Heath, comprising 525 acres, together with the manor of Walton-on-the-Hill, with manorial rights, fines at will, heriots, and quit rents, and all the privileges of sporting, minerals, timber, and other incidents of the manor. The estate occupies a beautiful stretch of country adjoining the well-known Banstead Downs, in the heart of a highly attractive residential district. The estates of Sir John Hartopp, Bart., the Earl of Egmont, Mrs. Bostock, and others are in proximity, and to whom the preservation of the character of Walton Heath is of importance. The Heath is at present let as a training ground, more particularly for steeplechasing, and in addition to the profits derivable from the manor and freehold lands, a considerable sum is received for the minerals, rights of shooting, &c., but as the property has always been strictly preserved to the user of the lord, and a few freehold tenants, there is no doubt but that an enclosure could be effected as it is beyond the prescribed Metropolitan area.

Lot 3. Walton Downs, with the "Six-mile-Hill," being a part of Epsom Race Course. A highly valuable freehold property of about 205 acres, included in which is that important portion of the Derby Race Course, approaching the turn of the far-famed Tattenham Corner, together with the famous training grounds, almost unequalled in the kingdom. The right of running the races is let on lease for an unexpired term of about nine years at £1,000 per annum; the training grounds are at present let at a nominal rent, but are estimated to be worth at least £250 per annum.
