"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Bartholomew Brighton being:—

"All that part of the parish of Brighton in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded on the north by the parish of Preston in the said county and diocese and on part of the east by the district chapelry or new parish of Saint Martin Brighton within the original limits of the parish of Brighton aforesaid and upon all other sides that is to say on the remaining part of the east on the south and on the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Brighton from the district chapelry or new parish of Saint Martin Brighton aforesaid at a point at the north-western corner of the open space called or known as 'The Level' in the middle of the northern end of the road on the western side of the Level aforesaid known as Brunswick-place and extending thence southward along the middle of the said road for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to its junction with the street called or known as Oxford-place and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of four and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with London-road and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of four chains or thereabouts to its junction with the street called or known as Cheapside and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of twelve and a half chains or thereabouts to its western extremity on the eastern side of the goods station of the London Brighton and South Coast Railway and continuing thence still westward and in a direct line for a distance of one and a half chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the easternmost branch of the goods line of the said London Brighton and South Coast Railway and extending thence first northward and then north-westward along the middle of the said branch line of railway for a distance of twenty-two and a half chains or thereabouts to the boundary at the north-western end of the bridge which carries the same branch line of railway over New England-road which boundary divides the said parish of Brighton from the parish of Preston aforesaid."

hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Brighton, out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and incumbent have respectively signified their assent to such scheme:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the chapelry district of the Holy Trinity Eastbourne in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said chapelry district of the Holy Trinity Eastbourne which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed separate district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas the said annual interest and dividends to accrue due on account of the said sum of stock and to be receivable by the said minister or incumbent for the time being will amount to not less than the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds.

"And whereas the said sum of four thousand five hundred and fourteen pounds debenture stock of the said railway has been so contributed and paid as aforesaid upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or (as the case may be) new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto should be assigned to the said Lady Victoria Long Wellesley and to her heirs and assigns for ever.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Richard Bishop of the said Diocese of Chichester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said chapelry district of the Holy Trinity Eastbourne which is described in the schedule hereunder written all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named the district of All Souls Eastbourne.

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district and when the said district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Lady Victoria Long Wellesley and by her heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Matthew, situate within the limits of the township and chapelry of Rastrick as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parochial chapelry of Elland, in the parish of Halifax which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the said township and chapelry of Rastrick, all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Matthew, situate within the limits of the township and chapelry of Rastrick as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Matthew Rastrick.'

formance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that so long as the Reverend Francis Musson, Clerk in Holy Orders, the present rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parochial chapelry of Elland shall continue to be such rector or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication solemnization or performance at the said church of Saint Matthew, situate within the limits of the township and chapelry of Rastrick as aforesaid shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said Francis Musson: And provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

Lights.

1. Bidston Light will be so masked that to vessels approaching from the westward it will disappear on being brought to bear S.S.E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  E., remaining masked over all the eastern part of Liverpool Bay.

2. Leasowe Light will be so masked as to disappear similarly when brought to bear S.S.E., remaining masked over all the eastern part of Liverpool Bay.

3. Crosby Light will be so masked that to vessels approaching from the northward it will disappear when brought to bear S.E.  $\frac{1}{2}$  E., remaining masked over all the southern part of Liverpool Bay.

4. Crosby Light-vessel will be moved  $1\frac{1}{2}$  cables N.W.  $\frac{1}{4}$  W. from her present position.

Buoyage.

5. The pillar bell beacon (formerly moored in the fairway of Queen Channel, painted red and marked C. 3, will be placed off Askew Spit, one cable S.E. by E. from the present position of red can buoy with perch C. 3, in lieu of the said buoy.

6. An additional nun buoy, painted black and marked Q. 4, will be placed 180 fathoms N.N.W.  $\frac{1}{2}$  W. from Formby Light-vessel.

7. Two additional red can buoys will be placed at the south-west side of Queen Channel—one midway between the present red can buoys Q. 2 and 3, the other midway between buoys Q. 3 and 4. The first additional buoy will be marked Q. 3, the present Q. 3 will become Q. 4; the second additional buoy will be marked Q. 5, the present Q. 4 will become Q. 6.

NOTE.—The intended masking limits of Bidston and Leasowe Lights pass one mile westward of the Bar Light-vessel. The masking limit of Crosby Light passes over Zebra Buoy, which is situated 2 miles eastward of the Bar Light-vessel. Approaching the Bar Light-vessel, her single fixed white light will be visible, while the fixed white lights of Bidston, Leasowe, and Crosby Lighthouses will be obscured.

The change in the position of Crosby Light-vessel will not alter the present line of bearing of the Bar, Formby, and Crosby Light-vessels. Therefore vessels entering Queen Channel and passing northward of the Bar Light-vessel will have Formby and Crosby Light-vessels a-head nearly in line, and steering for Formby Light-vessel will clear the shoal water on the south side of the bar.

The alteration in the position of Crosby Light-vessel is to facilitate her use as a fairway or mid-channel guide for vessels following the directions contained in the "Act for Preventing Collisions in the Sea Channels leading to the Mersey," and in Article 21 of the General Regulations for preventing collisions at sea, which direct certain vessels to keep to that side of the channel which lies on the starboard side of such vessels.

In following the above directions, it will be necessary in the future for inward bound vessels, avoiding the courses of the outward bound, to hug the edge of Burbo Bank, near Askew Spit. The substitution of the Pillar Beacon for the present buoy off the elbow of Burbo Bank will serve to verify a vessel's position while maintaining a mid-channel course between Askew Spit and Crosby Light-vessel.

The new position of black nun buoy Q. 4 will caution outward bound vessels passing northward of Formby Light-vessel to steer to the westward in order to clear Spit Buoy Q. 3 (black). The additional red can buoys on the edge of Little Burbo will indicate to inward vessels, which, meeting the outward bound at this point, may have to alter course to starboard, how far they may proceed in the direction before resuming the proper inward course.

CAUTION.—Vessels approaching from the westward, before bringing the leading beacons in line, should keep Point Lonsdale Lighthouse well open westward of the flagstaff, to ensure clearing Lightning Rocks. Vessels approaching from the eastward will know, that with the leading beacons in line, they are eastward of Lightning Rocks.

WE, whose names are hereunder written, having been sworn this thirteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, before the Queen's Remembrancer, at Goldsmiths' Hall, in the city of London, have made the Assays and Trials of Her Majesty's Silver Coins in the Pyx of the Mint, and which, according to accounts produced by the Officers of the Mint, were coined in the said Mint from the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, both days inclusive. We ascertained that the number of coins of silver in each packet produced to us, corresponded with the number which the Officers of the Mint represented it to contain, and we took a coin or coins from each of such packets of Silver coins, making altogether ten half-crowns, twelve florins, nineteen shillings, sixteen sixpences, one fourpenny piece, eleven threepences, one twopenny piece, and one penny piece, and weighed each of the said Silver coins separately, so as to ascertain whether they were within the remedy of the First Schedule of the Coinage Act, 1870. We found that the amount of variation from the Standard of Weight specified in the said First Schedule of the said Act was minus one-thousandths of an ounce (or .001) on the whole of such coins, and that, therefore, they were within the prescribed remedy as to weight. We then melted the said Silver coins, so taken out and weighed, into an ingot, and assayed such ingot, comparing it with the Standard Silver Trial Plate produced by the Board of Trade, so as to ascertain whether the metal was within the remedy as to fineness prescribed in the said First Schedule to the said Act, and we found that the amount of variation from the Standard of Fineness specified in the said First Schedule to the said Act, was minus six ten-thousandths of an ounce (or .0006), and, therefore, that the said metal was within the prescribed remedy as to fineness. We weighed the residue of the said Silver coins in bulk, and we ascertained that they were within the remedy as to weight. We then took from such residue one half-crown, one florin, one shilling, one sixpence, and one threepenny piece, and weighed and assayed them separately, and we found that such half-crown weighed 218.191 grains, that such florin weighed 174.875 grains, that such shilling weighed 87.072 grains, that such sixpence weighed 43.546 grains, and that such threepenny piece weighed 21.758 grains. We then assayed the said half-crown, the said florin, the said shilling, the said sixpence, and the said threepenny piece separately, and we found the millesimal fineness of such half-crown to be 924.2, of such florin to be 925.5, of such shilling to be 924.9, of such sixpence to be 925.9, and of such threepenny piece to be 925.8.

Provided nevertheless, that in order to entitle any such owner, or any such unlicensed driver or conductor, to the benefit of the aforesaid proviso, such owner, driver, or conductor shall within twenty-four hours next after the employment of any unlicensed person to act as such driver or conductor, under the circumstances aforesaid, give notice in writing at the office of the Inspector of Hackney Carriages for the said city, stating the cause of such unlicensed driver or conductor being required so to act, with his true name and address, and the name of the licensed driver and conductor for whom he is acting, and obtain from the Inspector a temporary badge and certificate approving of such unlicensed person being so employed.

Licenses shall be granted for so many tramway carriages as the Council shall, from time to time, in their reasonable discretion, think fit, upon payment of such sum not exceeding two shillings and sixpence, and upon such reasonable conditions as the Council shall determine, and there shall be specified in such license the number of passengers to be conveyed in and upon such carriage; and such licenses respectively may be suspended or withdrawn at any time by the Council, or by any Committee of the Council authorized by the Council in that behalf: and no person shall allow any tramway carriage to ply for hire without having a license for the same; and all such licenses shall determine on the first day of June in each year, irrespective of the dates they may bear.

Every tramway carriage shall be submitted for examination and inspection, at such place, and on such day, and at such time, within one month before the annual licensing day, as the Council may appoint; and whenever the license to any tramway carriage shall be revoked suspended, or the tramway carriage shall cease to be used, the owner shall, within twenty-four hours thereafter, deliver the license at the office of the Town Clerk.

So often as any such owner shall change his address, he shall, within three days next after such change, give notice thereof, in writing, to the Town Clerk, specifying in such notice his new place of abode; and such owner shall at the same time produce his license, or licenses, at the office of the Town Clerk, in order that a memorandum may be endorsed thereon, specifying the particulars of such change.

34. Spare Carriages.

That if, by any unavoidable accident, any such tramway carriage shall become unfit for use, and also during such reasonable time as any such tramway carriage may be undergoing repair, it shall be lawful for the owner to use a spare tramway carriage, but the same shall in all respects, except as to a license, be subject to these Bye-laws, in the same manner as if a license had been granted for the same; and the owner using the same shall be liable, in the same manner, for any non-compliance with these Bye-laws in respect thereof, as if the same had been licensed.

In order to entitle an owner to the benefit of the above provision, he shall, before using such spare tramway carriage, give notice thereof, in writing, at the office of the Inspector of Hackney Carriages for the said city, stating the true cause of the licensed tramway carriage being disused, and the period during which such spare tramway carriage will be required; and no such spare tramway carriage shall be used until it has been inspected and approved of by the Inspector of Hackney Carriages, nor for a longer period than that stated in a certificate to be signed by such Inspector and delivered to the owner.

35. Seats for Passengers.

The seats provided in or upon every tramway car shall allow for every passenger on an average, upon each and every separate seat, a space convenient for sitting thereon of seventeen inches, measuring in a straight line lengthwise on the front of each seat, provided always, that no child under five years of age sitting in the lap shall be deemed a passenger.

36. Carriages to be kept in Good Order and Readiness.

That the owner of every tramway carriage shall have the same in good order, with the harness perfect and in good condition, and the glasses and frames of the windows thereof whole, and the inside thereof clean and in good repair and order, and with a suitable check-string or such other means of communication between the conductor and the driver, and the passenger and the conductor as the Council may from time to time reasonably direct. In order to distinguish the routes of the several tramway carriages, panels and outside lamps, of such form, colour, and number, and with such particulars painted thereon, as the Council may from time to time direct, shall be placed on each carriage, and the owner of every carriage shall cause to be placed inside the same a lamp or lamps to the satisfaction of the Council. Outside every carriage a standing-place, satisfactory to the Council, shall be provided for the conductor, and suitable aprons for the reasonable convenience of outside passengers.

37. Owners' Name and Number, and Rate of Fares to be Painted on Carriage.

A table of fares shall at all times be kept painted, in clear and legible characters, to the satisfaction of the Council, on the inside of every tramway carriage, together with the license number of such carriage, and the name or names of the owner or owners, and the number of persons which such carriage is licensed to carry, and such other notices and particulars as the Council may from time to time reasonably direct, and the license number shall also be painted on each side of the outside of such carriage, and on the back of such carriage, in figures of not less than four inches in height, together with the names of the extreme places from and to which such tramway carriage shall run painted on each side of the outside and each side of the inside of such carriage in legible and conspicuous letters, to the satisfaction of the Council, on a ground different from the colour in which such carriage is painted, and in such position as shall be directed by the Council; and such particulars shall not be obliterated or covered during the time such carriage is being used.

38. Advertisements not to be placed on Carriages.

It shall not be lawful for the owner, driver, or conductor of any such tramway carriage, to suffer any notice, advertisement, or printed bill, or any names, letters, or numbers to appear upon the outside or inside of any such tramway carriage, without the consent of the Council.

39. Owner to give up name of Driver or Conductor on demand.

That the owner or owners of any tramway carriage shall, upon request made by any person or persons, who at any time within three days previous thereto shall have been a passenger in such carriage, or by the Inspector of Hackney Carriages for the time being, or by any constable of the city, declare and make known to the person or persons, inspector or constable requiring the same, the name and place of abode of the driver or conductor.

40. Inspector and his Duties.

That the Inspector of Hackney Carriages in the said city, and any other person or persons who may from time to time be appointed as inspector or inspectors, shall from time to time examine all such tramway carriages, and generally shall see that these Bye-laws are duly observed, and any such inspector or inspectors shall have power to prohibit the use of any such carriage which upon examination shall not be in a proper and cleanly state, and in all respects in compliance with these Bye-laws, or the horse or horses attached to which shall not be in a fit and proper state for work, and every owner, driver, and conductor shall comply with the orders and directions of any such inspector as to any of the matters aforesaid, or otherwise in relation to the Bye-laws in force for the time being, or any Act of Parliament relating to tramway carriages; and no owner, driver, or conductor, or other person shall obstruct or hinder any such inspector in the execution of his duties, or shall refuse to comply with any lawful order or direction of any such inspector in relation to such Bye-laws and Acts.

41. Penalty.

Any person infringing any of the foregoing Bye-laws shall be subject to a penalty of not exceeding forty shillings.
