PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by clause 13 of an Order of Her Majesty the Queen in Council dated the 12th day of February, 1876, setting forth Regulations for Her Majesty's Civil Service, it is ordered that "the salaries of certain members of that Service, in the said clause called 'Men 'Clerks in the Lower Division,' shall commence at £80 and shall rise by triennial increments of £15 to £200, provided that in any office in which a regular attendance of seven hours a day is required, the commencing salary may be £90, and the maximum salary may be £250;"

And whereas it is expedient to amend the said clause:—

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

The words following and including the word "provided," in the said clause 13, are hereby cancelled, and, in place of them, shall be substituted the following words—"provided that in any office in which a regular attendance of seven hours a day is required, the commencing salary may be £95, and the maximum salary may be £250."

The clause thus amended shall regulate all future appointments to Men Clerkships of the Lower Division in offices where a regular attendance of seven hours a day is required; and the salaries of all Clerks now serving in such offices shall, from the date hereof, be raised by the sum of five pounds, the date of the triennial increments remaining as before.
