

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district and when the said district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and become absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Arthur Douglas Wagner and by his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or to any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Bartholomew Brighton being:—

"All that part of the parish of Brighton in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded on the north by the parish of Preston in the said county and diocese and on part of the east by the district chapelry or new parish of Saint Martin Brighton within the original limits of the parish of Brighton aforesaid and upon all other sides that is to say on the remaining part of the east on the south and on the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Brighton from the district chapelry or new parish of Saint Martin Brighton aforesaid at a point at the north-western corner of the open space called or known as 'The Level' in the middle of the northern end of the road on the western side of the Level aforesaid known as Brunswick-place and extending thence southward along the middle of the said road for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to its junction with the street called or known as Oxford-place and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of four and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with London-road and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of four chains or thereabouts to its junction with the street called or known as Cheapside and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of twelve and a half chains or thereabouts to its western extremity on the eastern side of the goods station of the London Brighton and South Coast Railway and continuing thence still westward and in a direct line for a distance of one and a half chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the easternmost branch of the goods line of the said London Brighton and South Coast Railway and extending thence first northward and then north-westward along the middle of the said branch line of railway for a distance of twenty-two and a half chains or thereabouts to the boundary at the north-western end of the bridge which carries the same branch line of railway over New England-road which boundary divides the said parish of Brighton from the parish of Preston aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Brighton, out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and incumbent have respectively signified their assent to such scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 15th day of July, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the second day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church situate at Street in the parish of Blackawton, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church situate at Street as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Frederick Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Blackawton which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church situate at Street as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Street.'

"And with the like consent of the said Frederick Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter (testified as aforesaid) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages baptisms churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church situate at Street as aforesaid and that the fees to be received in respect of
