

regulations as they may think fit for fixing the time during which such carriages shall be allowed to remain at any such place, and for enforcing order at any such place. No carriage using a tramway shall stop, except at such junctions, stations, starting, stopping, and other places as aforesaid, for the taking up and setting down of passengers, changing of horses or otherwise, unless when necessary to preserve the distance required by Bye-law No. 13. Every owner, driver, or conductor who shall wilfully disregard or not conform himself to the regulations shall be deemed guilty of a breach of these Bye-laws.

15. Smoking.

No passenger shall smoke inside any carriage, and no driver or conductor shall smoke in or on any tramway carriage.

16. Offensive Language.

No person shall swear or use obscene or offensive language whilst in or upon any carriage, or commit any nuisance in or upon or against any carriage, or wilfully interfere with the comfort of any passenger.

17. Intoxicated Persons.

A person in a state of intoxication shall not be allowed to mount or enter upon any carriage, and if found in or upon any carriage shall be immediately removed by or under the direction of the conductor.

18. Dogs.

No dog or other animal shall be allowed in or on any carriage. No person shall take a dog or other animal into any carriage after having been requested not to do so by the conductor. Any dog or other animal taken into or on any carriage in breach of this regulation shall be removed by the person in charge of such dog or other animal from the carriage immediately upon request by the conductor, and in default of compliance with such request may be removed by or under the direction of the conductor.

19. Damaging Carriages.

No person shall wilfully cut, tear, soil, or damage the cushions or the linings, or remove, or deface any number, plate, printed or other notice, in or on the carriage, or break or scratch any window of or otherwise wilfully damage any carriage. Any person acting in contravention of this regulation shall be liable to the penalty prescribed by these Bye-laws and regulations, in addition to the liability to pay the amount of any damage done. A person whose dress or clothing might, in the opinion of the conductor, soil or injure the linings or cushions of the carriage, or the dress or clothing of any passenger, or a person who, in the opinion of the conductor, might for any other reason be offensive to passengers, shall not be entitled to enter or remain in the interior of any carriage, and may be prevented from entering the interior of any carriage, and shall not enter the interior of any carriage after having been requested not to do so by the conductor; and if found in the interior of any carriage shall, on the request of the conductor, leave the interior of the carriage upon the fare, if previously paid, being returned.

20. Payment of Fares.

Each passenger shall, upon demand, pay to the conductor, or other duly authorized officer of the lessees, the fare legally demandable for the journey.

21. Tickets.

Each passenger shall show his ticket (if any), when required so to do, to the conductor or any duly authorized servant of the lessees; and shall also, when required so to do, either deliver up his ticket or pay the fare legally demandable for the distance travelled over by such passenger.

22. Luggage.

Personal luggage (to include the tools of artisans, mechanics, and daily labourers) shall be placed on the front or driver's platform, unless otherwise permitted by the conductor, and not in the interior or on the roof of any carriage. The conductor may decline to take into or upon the carriage any luggage which, from its size or otherwise, is not suitable for conveyance in or upon the carriage.

23. Entering Full Carriages.

When a carriage contains the full licensed number of passengers, a notice to that effect shall be placed in conspicuous letters and in a conspicuous position on the carriage. When any carriage contains the full number of passengers which it is licensed to contain, no additional person shall enter, mount, or remain in or on any such carriage when warned by the conductor not to do so. The conductor shall not permit any passenger beyond the licensed number to enter, mount, or remain in or upon any part of a carriage. Any passenger refusing to leave shall be deemed guilty of a breach of these Bye-laws.

24. Travelling on Steps, &c.

No passenger or other person, not being a servant of the lessees, shall be permitted to travel on the steps or platforms of any carriage, or stand either on the roof or in the interior, or sit on the outside rail, or on the roof of any carriage.

25. Firearms.

No person shall travel in or on any carriage with firearms.

26. Conductor.

The expression "Conductor" shall include any officer or servant in the employment of the lessees, and having charge of a carriage.

27. Driver not to carry Diseased Persons or Corpses.

That no owner or driver of any such tramway carriage shall knowingly carry or convey therein any person afflicted with any infectious or contagious disease, or any dead body.

28. Drivers and Conductors to Comply with Police Regulations.

That drivers and conductors shall conform to all such orders and regulations as may be made by the Mayor or the police.

29. Owners, Drivers, and Conductors to have a Copy of Bye-laws, and to Produce the same on Demand.

That the owner or owners of every such tramway carriage, and every driver and conductor, shall have a copy of these Bye-laws, and with the name of the owner or owners, or driver, or conductor to whom the same respectively shall be delivered, and the number of his, her, or their license written distinctly thereupon; and such owners, drivers, and conductors respectively shall at all times have the same ready to produce, and shall, upon request, produce the same for perusal and inspection to any passenger, or to any inspector of hackney carriages or constable of the city. And in case any such owner, driver, or conductor shall lose or otherwise part with the Bye-laws, he shall forthwith make application at the office of the Town Clerk, and shall be furnished with another copy of such Bye-laws, upon payment of sixpence for the same. And every driver and conductor shall at all times when plying for hire have with him the duplicate of his
