

lument of his Fellowship a greater sum than will amount, with the emoluments of his Professorship (exclusive of fees), to 900*l.* per annum.

Provided also, that there shall not be in the College at any one time more than three Fellows elected under this clause in respect of the office of Prælector or Tutor, nor more than one Fellow elected under it in respect of the office of Chaplain, nor more than two Fellows elected under it in respect of the several qualifications mentioned in sub-sections (b) and (c) thereof, or either of them.

Tenure of Fellowship.

12. Every Fellow shall vacate his Fellowship at the end of the term of seven years from the day of his election or re-election (as the case may be), hereinafter called his seven years' Fellowship term, subject to the provisions and exceptions following:—

(a.) Such number of Fellows (not exceeding seven, inclusive of any Chaplain-Fellow at any one time), as the Master and Fellows shall from time to time determine, who shall reside and serve the College in one or both of the offices of Prælector and Tutor, shall be entitled to hold their Fellowships during the period of such residence and service in College, under the provisions as to such offices hereinafter contained.

(b.) In the computation of the aforesaid term of seven years any time may be excluded, not exceeding two years, during which a Fellow, not coming within the number mentioned in the last preceding sub-section of this clause, has since his election been resident in the University, and employed by the College in its educational work upon the terms of having the tenure of his Fellowship so extended: Provided that there should not be at any one time employed by the College in educational work more than two holders of Fellowships who shall be entitled to an extension of their Fellowships on those terms.

(c.) It shall be lawful for the College, upon being satisfied that a Fellow of the College is, at the time when he vacates his Fellowship, engaged in some definite literary or scientific work, or work of art or research, which he is willing and undertakes to prosecute in the College or the University, or elsewhere under the direction of the College or the University, (and which work shall be specified in the Resolution by which he is re-elected), to re-elect such person Fellow for a fresh Fellowship term of seven years, and such re-election may under the same conditions be repeated from time to time.

(d.) If any Fellow shall be appointed by the University to a Readership or Lectureship within or outside the University, and shall hold such appointment at the time when he would, but for this provision, have vacated his Fellowship, it shall be lawful for the College to continue such Fellow in his Fellowship for a further period of five years, or for any less period, and such continuation may be repeated from time to time.

Provided always, that there shall not be in the College at any one time more than three Fellows re-elected, or continued in their Fellowships, under sub-sections (c) and (d) of this clause, or either of them: Provided also that nothing in this clause contained shall dispense with the provisions of the clauses which follow with respect to the vacation of Fellowships.

Vacancies by Marriage.

13. Every Fellow elected under clause 11 (a) of this Statute in respect of the office of Prælector or Tutor, or holding his Fellowship as Prælector or Tutor under the provisions of clause 12 (a) of this Statute who shall be unmarried at the time of his election as Fellow under clause 11 of this Statute or in any other case at the time of his appointment to the office of Prælector or Tutor, shall vacate his Fellowship by marriage, if such marriage shall take place within seven years from the time of such election or appointment. There shall always be at least two unmarried Fellows, being Prælectors or Tutors, resident in the College during the usual College Terms. So long as that number is complete, a Fellow who, under this clause, vacates his Fellowship by marriage, shall not be incapable of being elected to fill the vacancy so created, if the College should desire to retain his services as Prælector or Tutor.

Or by Acceptance of a Headship or of another Fellowship;

14. Every Fellow who shall accept a Fellowship (other than an Honorary Fellowship) in any other College, or the Headship of any College or Hall, shall thereupon vacate his Fellowship.

Or by Enjoyment of Property or Income of a certain Amount.

15. Every Fellow, except a Fellow elected under clause 11 (b) or (c) of this Statute but including any such Fellow if re-elected under clause 12 (c) or continued in his Fellowship under clause 12 (d) of this Statute, who shall

(a.) become entitled in possession, either by descent or devolution, or by virtue of any testamentary or other gift or settlement, for his life or for any greater estate, to property, real or personal, or to any Government pension;

(b.) or be instituted to any ecclesiastical benefice, with or without cure of souls, or admitted to any office tenable for life or during good behaviour (not being an academical office within the University), or to any office in the permanent civil service of the State, and who shall retain such property, pension, benefice, or office for twelve calendar months from the day of his accession, institution, or admission thereto, shall, if the annual value of or income derivable from such benefice, property, pension, or office, or from any two or more of the above-mentioned sources clear of deductions (except for property or income tax), shall exceed 500*l.*, vacate his Fellowship at the expiration of twelve calendar months from the time of his accession, institution, or admission to such property, pension, benefice, or office, or from the time when he first entered into the enjoyment of such annual income (as the case may be); and for the purposes of this clause, the income which the estimated value of any property would produce, if invested in the 3*l.* per centum Consolidated Annuities at the price current at the time of the acquisition thereof, shall, in case of doubt, be considered to be the income derivable from such property.

With respect to Ecclesiastical Benefices in the patronage of the College, of less annual value than 500*l.*, it shall be in the power of the Master and Fellows, by Bylaw or otherwise, to determine from time to time whether the acceptance thereof shall, in any and what cases, and under any and what conditions, vacate a Fellowship.

Provided always, that nothing in this clause contained shall be taken to apply to any Fellow while residing and serving the College within the meaning of clause 12 (a) of this Statute.

Vacation of Fellowships in Special Cases.

16. Every Fellow elected under clause 10 or clause 11 (a) of this Statute, or continuing to hold
