

scheme submitted to him by the College shall continue in force until a new scheme varying it or in substitution for it shall have been submitted and confirmed in like manner.

Representation to Visitor.

7. The College or any three members of the Governing Body of the College may at any time make a representation to the Visitor requesting him to exercise, if he think fit, the powers of this Statute. But this provision shall not be deemed to affect the Visitor's right to exercise such powers proprio motu.

Surplus Revenue.

8. Subject to the right of the Visitor to exercise the powers hereby given to him, any surplus of the revenues of the College shall from time to time be applied by the Warden and Fellows at their discretion to any purposes relative to the College and not inconsistent with these Statutes, or (subject to the Statutes of the University in force for the time being) to any purposes relative to the University and conducive to the advancement of learning, science, or education.

Restrictions on Application of Surplus Revenue.

9. No addition shall under the powers of this Statute be made to the emoluments of the Headship, or of any Fellowship, or Postmastership in the College; nor (unless under a scheme confirmed by the Visitor or under any express power herein-before contained) to the number of Fellowships or of Postmasterships, the payments to the Tuition Fund, or to an Exhibition Fund, or the provision for a Pension Fund, which are respectively authorized by these Statutes. But this clause shall not be deemed to prohibit or restrain the College from making payment under the preceding clause out of its surplus revenue for research or other work in any department of learning or science.

Accounts.

10. It shall be the duty of the Bursar to present annually to the College, and of the Auditor or Auditors or the Finance Committee to certify, a clear statement of the income and expenditure of the College, of the disposable surplus (if any), and of the proposed appropriation of it, together with a statement of the outstanding liabilities other than those relating to current expenditure, specifying the terms within which loans raised under the borrowing powers of the College are to be paid off. This statement shall include trust accounts, as well as the general accounts of the College.

STATUTE XI.

The Visitor.

The Visitor.

1. The Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being shall be the Visitor of the College.

General Powers of the Visitor.

2. (a.) The Visitor may, whenever he deems it expedient to do so, for enforcing the due observance of the Statutes in force for the time being, without any request or application by the College or any of its members, visit the College and exercise at such visitation all the powers which are by law incident to the office of General Visitor of a College.

(b.) The Visitor may at any such visitation, or if he think fit at other times, require the Warden and Fellows to answer in writing touching any matter as to which the Visitor may deem it expedient to enquire for the purpose of satisfying himself whether the Statutes in force for the time being are duly observed.

Power to interpret Statutes.

3. If any question arises on which the Warden and Fellows are unable to agree, depending wholly or in part on the construction of any of the Statutes of the College in force for the time being, the Warden and Fellows, or the Warden, or any three of the Fellows, may submit the same to the Visitor, and the Visitor shall thereupon declare the true construction of the Statutes with reference to the case submitted to him.

Appeal to Visitor.

4. The Warden or any Fellow of the College, if he considers himself aggrieved by any act or decision of the College, and any Postmaster, if deprived of his Postmastership by a decision of the College, may appeal to the Visitor, and the Visitor shall adjudicate on the appeal, and confirm, reverse, or vary the act or decision, as he deems just.

Suspension of Fellowships, &c., and Abatement of Charges.

5. If at any time it appears to the satisfaction of the Visitor that, owing to any cause, the revenues of the College are, or without the exercise of the power hereby conferred would be likely to become, insufficient to meet the charges created by these Statutes, and to defray the rest of its necessary or ordinary expenditure, the Visitor shall, on a petition in writing presented to him by order of the College at a Special General Meeting, direct that any vacant Fellowship or Postmastership shall, either permanently or during any limited period, be kept vacant, or that all the charges created by these Statutes shall be rateably diminished, either permanently or for a limited period: Provided that no such diminution shall be made in the contributions directed by these Statutes to be made for University purposes, unless thirty days' previous notice thereof shall have been given to the Vice-Chancellor of the University.

STATUTE XII.

Provisions relative to the University.

Representations as to Provisions relative to the University.

1. If at any time it appear to the Hebdomadal Council of the University that any provisions of these Statutes, or of any other Statutes of the College in force for the time being, respecting the accounts of the College, or the audit or publication thereof, or the exercise of the borrowing powers of the College, or any other provision of such Statutes, by the non-observance of which any interest of the University is liable to be prejudicially affected, is not duly observed, the Hebdomadal Council may submit a representation to the Visitor; and the Visitor shall, upon receiving such representation, inquire into the matter, and, after considering any representation made by the College, make such order therein as he shall deem just for enforcing the due observance of the said Statutes in the matter to which the representation shall relate.

Representations as to Examinations for Fellowships.

2. The Hebdomadal Council, or any Board of a Faculty in the University, may in like manner make a representation to the Visitor, if it shall appear that the provisions of these Statutes respecting the subjects of examinations for Fellowships are not duly observed by the College.

Notice to Warden.

3. Before any representation is made under either of the foregoing provisions, the Vice-Chancellor or the Chairman of such Board of a
