

to affect the Visitor's right to exercise such powers proprio motu.

Surplus Revenue.

9. Subject to the right of the Visitor to exercise the powers hereby given to him, any surplus of the revenue of the College shall from time to time be applied by the Warden and Fellows at their discretion to any purposes relative to the College and not inconsistent with these Statutes, or (subject to the Statutes of the University in force for the time being) to any purposes relative to the University and conducive to the advancement of learning, science, or education.

Restrictions on Application of Surplus Revenue.

10. No addition shall under the powers of this Statute be made to the emoluments of the Headship, or of any Fellowship, in the College; nor (unless under a scheme confirmed by the Visitor or under any express power hereinbefore contained) to the number of Fellowships authorised by these Statutes. But this clause shall not be deemed to prohibit or restrain the College from making payments under the preceding clause out of its surplus revenue for research or other work in any department of learning or science.

X.—THE VISITOR.

The Visitor.

1. The Visitor of the College is the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being.

Right of Visitation.

2. It shall be lawful for the Visitor in person, or by his Commissary or Commissaries duly appointed, once in every ten years (or oftener, if and whenever he deem it expedient for enforcing the due observance of the Statutes in force for the time being to do so), without any request or application by the College or any of its members, to visit the College, and to exercise at such visitation all the powers which are by law incident to the office of General Visitor of a College, any statute or usage of the College to the contrary notwithstanding.

It shall be lawful for the Visitor, at any such visitation, or, if he think fit, at other times, to require the Warden and Fellows to answer in writing touching any matter as to which the Visitor may deem it expedient to inquire, for the purpose of satisfying himself whether the Statutes in force for the time being are duly observed.

Power to Interpret Statutes.

3. If any question arises on which the Warden and Fellows are unable to agree, depending wholly or in part on the construction of any of the Statutes of the College, it shall be lawful for the Warden and Fellows, or for the Warden, or for any three of the Fellows, to submit the same to the Visitor; and it shall be lawful for the Visitor to declare what is the true construction of such Statute or Statutes with reference to the case submitted to him.

Appeal to Visitor.

4. It shall be lawful for the Warden, or for any Fellow, if he conceive himself aggrieved by any act or decision of the Warden and Fellows, to appeal against such act or decision or sentence to the Visitor; and it shall be lawful for the Visitor to adjudicate on such appeal, and to disallow or annul such act or decision, and to reverse or vary such sentence, as he may deem just.

Visitor's Power to Disallow Bylaws.

5. It shall be lawful for the Visitor, either proprio motu or on the complaint of the Warden or of any of the Fellows, to disallow and annul any Bylaw or Resolution of the Warden and Fellows which may, in the Visitor's judgment be repugnant to any of the Statutes of the College in force for the time being.

Suspension of Fellowships, &c., and Abatement of Charges.

6. If at any time it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Visitor, that, owing to any cause, the revenues of the College are, or without the exercise of the power hereby conferred would be likely to become, insufficient to meet the charges created by these Statutes and to defray the rest of its necessary or ordinary expenditure, it shall be lawful for the Visitor, on a petition in writing presented to him by order of the Warden and Fellows at a meeting specially called, to direct that any vacant Fellowship shall, either permanently or during any limited period, be kept vacant, or that the charges created by these Statutes shall be rateably diminished, either permanently or for a limited period: Provided, that no such diminution shall be made in the charges proposed by Statutes IV, V, and VI, unless thirty days' notice thereof shall have been previously given to the Vice-Chancellor of the University.

XI.—PROVISIONS RELATIVE TO THE UNIVERSITY.

Representations as to Provisions Affecting the University.

1. If at any time it appear to the Hebdomadal Council of the University that any provisions of these Statutes, or of any other Statutes of the College in force for the time being respecting the accounts of the College, or the audit or publication thereof, or the exercise of the borrowing powers of the College, or any other provision of such Statutes, by the non-observance of which any interest of the University is liable to be prejudicially affected, is not duly observed, the Hebdomadal Council may submit a representation to the Visitor; and the Visitor shall, upon receiving such representation, inquire into the matter, and, after considering any representation made by the College, make such order therein as he shall deem just for enforcing the due observance of the said Statutes in the matter to which the representation shall relate.

Representations as to Examinations for Fellowships.

2. The Hebdomadal Council, or any Board of a Faculty in the University, may in like manner make a representation to the Visitor, if it shall appear that the provisions of these Statutes respecting the subjects of examinations for Fellowships are not duly observed by the College.

Notice to Warden.

3. Before any representation is made under either of the foregoing provisions, the Vice-Chancellor or the Chairman of such Board of a Faculty (as the case may be) shall communicate the matter of the proposed representation to the Warden for the information of the College, and when a representation is made shall forthwith send him a copy of it.

XII.—SUPPLEMENTAL AND TEMPORARY PROVISIONS.

Number of Fellowships to be Filled up until the 2nd of November, 1887.

1. Until the 2nd day of November, 1887, not more than two elections shall be made in every year to Fellowships to which emoluments are attached. The Fellowships which may be so filled up shall be Fellowships, awarded under Statute III, cl. 1, after examination in subjects connected with the studies of Law and History.

Provided nevertheless that the Warden and Fellows may, if they think fit, within the period aforesaid determine that two (and not more than
