

shall appoint. Any Stated General Meeting may be adjourned by resolution of the meeting to a day to be specified in the resolution.

Regulations.

7. Subject to the provisions of the Statutes in force for the time being, the College shall from time to time make such Bylaws or Regulations as may be deemed necessary respecting the admission of persons to be members of the College, the discipline to be observed by persons within or belonging to the College, and (subject to the Universities Tests Act, 1871) their attendance at Divine Worship, the education of the Undergraduate members thereof, and the residence of Probationer Fellows, and for securing orderly and seemly conduct on the part of the members, and respecting the distribution of rooms, and respecting the service of the College and the number, duties, and the payment of servants, and respecting the periodical visitation or inspection of estates, and generally respecting all other matters not herein expressly provided for which they may deem it expedient so to regulate; and may provide for the enforcement of such Bylaws or Regulations by such penalties or otherwise as shall be deemed expedient.

Courses of Instruction.

8. The President and Fellows shall provide courses of instruction for members of the College in statu pupillari during at the least twenty-four weeks in the Academical year, exclusive of the time devoted to any College examinations.

Divine Service.

9. The College shall make Regulations for the performance within the College of Divine Service according to the Liturgy of the Church of England daily during full Term, and at such other times as shall be thought proper, and may vary such regulations from time to time; but such Regulations shall be made and varied at Stated General Meetings only, and the Visitor shall have power to disallow and annul any such Regulations or any variation thereof. Such service shall, if practicable, be performed by one or more of the President and Fellows.

Religious Instruction.

10. The President and Fellows shall provide religious instruction for members of the College in statu pupillari. One or more of the Fellows or Officers of the College shall be charged with the duty of giving such instruction, and the President may, with his own consent, be charged with this duty.

IX.—ADDITIONS TO COLLEGE BUILDINGS.

Power to Borrow.

The President and Fellows may, if they think fit, borrow a sum or sums of money not exceeding 15,000*l.* in the whole for the purpose of erecting new or additional College buildings, or of acquiring (if necessary) a site for such buildings or of improving the existing buildings of the College.

And to apply Corporate Revenues; And to suspend a Fellowship.

Any part of the Corporate Revenues not required to satisfy the charges created by these Statutes may, so long as any part of the money borrowed shall remain unpaid, be applied to the repayment of the principal and interest; and for the purpose of making further provision for such repayment the President and Fellows may, if they think fit, suspend for so long a period as may be necessary, the election to one of the ten Fellowships which under these Statutes the College is required to maintain.

And to apply Funds held in Trust for Purchasing Advowsons.

Any moneys held in trust for the purpose of purchasing Advowsons for the benefit of members of the College, except moneys held under any trust created after the tenth day of August 1827, shall be applied to the purposes to which the money to be raised by loan is herein-before made applicable, and the College shall not be required to replace moneys so applied.

And the Proceeds of Advowsons.

The President and Fellows may further, if they think fit, apply to the same purpose any moneys arising from the sale of Advowsons, sold or to be sold, by the College.

X.—DISPOSAL OF REVENUE.

Disposal of Revenue subject to University Statutes as to College Contributions.

1. The application of the revenues of the College under the provisions and to the purposes of these Statutes shall be subject to any Statute or Statutes made for the University under the powers of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, for enabling or requiring the Colleges to make contributions out of their revenues to University purposes, and to the payment of the charges imposed thereby.

Income of Endowments and Trusts to be included in General Revenue.

2. Income arising from any endowment, benefaction, or trust, and applicable to the maintenance of any Fellowship, Scholarship, or Exhibition within the College, or to any other purpose for the benefit of the College or of the Head or any member of it (including any fund for the purchase of advowsons), shall be liable to contribute to the payment of any charges for University purposes imposed on the College by Statutes made for the University as aforesaid in the same manner as if such income had formed part of the general revenue of the College, except in the following cases:—

Exceptions.

- (a.) Income of, or constituting, any emolument the trusts or directions affecting which are protected from alteration by Section 13 of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.
- (b.) Income wholly appropriated to any emolument, not being a Fellowship, in elections to which a school has a right of preference within the meaning of Section 39 of the said Act (not including any such emolument which is held for the time being under an election held by open competition).

Scheme to be approved by Visitor.

3. If at any time it shall appear to the Visitor that the revenues of the College have become more than sufficient to provide for its expenditure, the Visitor may, if he think fit, make an order directing that any part of the surplus revenue shall be set apart and applied to purposes relative either to the College or to the University, according to a scheme submitted or to be submitted to him by the College and approved by him. After an order so made by the Visitor, any sums thereby directed to be set apart shall be applied in conformity with a scheme submitted to and approved by the Visitor as aforesaid, and under an order of the Visitor confirming the same, and not otherwise.

What included in Expenditure of College.

4. The expenditure of the College shall, in the foregoing Clause, be deemed to include as well the payment of charges for University purposes imposed by Statutes made for the University as
