

aforesaid, as the application of revenue to the purposes of these Statutes, reasonable and customary expenditure (not inconsistent with them) for College purposes, extraordinary expenditure (when required) on estates, and any reasonable donations for educational or charitable objects or connected with the duties of the College as a holder of property.

Communication of Scheme to Vice-Chancellor.

5. Before any scheme is confirmed by the Visitor, the College shall communicate it to the Vice-Chancellor for the information of the Hebdomadal Council of the University; and the Visitor shall consider any representations which the Hebdomadal Council may judge it expedient for the interests of the University to make with reference to such scheme.

Confirmation of Scheme.

6. An order made by the Visitor confirming a scheme submitted to him by the College shall continue in force until a new scheme varying it or in substitution for it shall have been submitted and confirmed in like manner.

7. The College or any three members of the Governing Body of the College may at any time make a representation to the Visitor requesting him to exercise, if he think fit, the powers of this Statute. But this provision shall not be deemed to affect the Visitor's right to exercise such powers proprio motu.

Surplus Revenue.

8. Subject to the right of the Visitor to exercise the powers hereby given to him, any surplus of the revenues of the College shall from time to time be applied by the President and Fellows at their discretion to any purposes relative to the College and not inconsistent with these Statutes, or (subject to the Statutes of the University in force for the time being) to any purposes relative to the University and conducive to the advancement of learning, science, or education.

Restrictions on application of Surplus Revenue.

9. No addition shall under the powers of this Statute be made to the emoluments of the Headship, or of any Fellowship, or Scholarship in the College; nor (unless under a scheme confirmed by the Visitor or under any express power herein-before contained) to the number of Fellowships or of Scholarships, the payments to the Tuition Fund, or to an Exhibition Fund, or the provision for a Pension Fund, which are respectively authorised by these Statutes. But this clause shall not be deemed to prohibit or restrain the College from making payments under the preceding clause out of its surplus revenue for research or other work in any department of learning or science.

XI.—THE VISITOR.

1. The Lord Bishop of Winchester for the time being shall be the Visitor of the College.

Visitation.

2. It shall be lawful for the Visitor in person, or by his Commissary or Commissaries duly appointed, once in every ten years (or oftener, if and whenever he shall deem it expedient for enforcing the due observance of the Statutes in force for the time being to do so), without any request or application by the College or any of its Members, to visit the College, and to exercise at such visitation all the powers which are by law incident to the office of General Visitor of a College, any Statute or usage of the College to the contrary notwithstanding. It shall be lawful for the Visitor at any such visitation, or if he shall think fit at other times, to require the President and Fellows to answer in writing touching any matter as to which the Visitor may deem it expedient to inquire, for the purpose of satisfying himself whether the Statutes in force for the time being are duly observed.

Construction of Statutes.

3. As often as any question shall arise on which the President and Fellows shall be unable to agree, depending wholly or in part on the construction of any of the Statutes of the College, it shall be lawful for the College, or for the President; or for any three of the actual Fellows, to submit the same to the Visitor; and it shall be lawful for the Visitor, after hearing the President and any actual Fellow who may desire to be heard thereon, to declare what is the true construction of such Statute or Statutes with reference to the case submitted to him.

Appeals.

4. It shall be lawful for the President, or for any Fellow or Tutor, if he shall conceive himself aggrieved by any act or decision of the College, and for any Scholar who may have been deprived of his Scholarship to appeal against such act or decision or sentence to the Visitor; and it shall be lawful for the Visitor to adjudicate on such appeal; and to disallow and annul such act or decision, and to reverse or vary such sentence as he shall deem just.

Annulling Bylaws.

5. It shall be lawful for the Visitor, either proprio motu, or on the complaint of the President or any of the Fellows, to disallow and annul any Bylaws or Resolution of the College which shall, in the Visitor's judgment, be repugnant to any of the Statutes of the College in force for the time being.

Visitor may Suspend Fellowships, &c., or Rateably Reduce Charges.

6. If in any case it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Visitor, that owing to any cause the revenues of the College are insufficient to provide for the charges created by these Statutes and to defray the rest of its expenditure, it shall be lawful for the Visitor, on a petition presented to him by order of the President and Fellows at a Stated General Meeting held after notice of the business to be transacted thereat, to direct that any vacant Fellowship or Scholarship shall, either permanently or during any limited period, be kept vacant, or (subject to vested interests) that the payments directed to be made out of the Tuition Fund be reduced, or that the charges created by these Statutes shall be rateably diminished, either permanently or for a limited period.

XII.—PROVISIONS RELATIVE TO THE UNIVERSITY.

Representations as to Provisions Affecting the University.

1. If at any time it appear to the Hebdomadal Council of the University that any provisions of these Statutes, or of any other Statutes of the College in force for the time being, respecting the accounts of the College or the audit or publication thereof, or the exercise of the borrowing powers of the College, or any other provision of such Statutes, by the non-observance of which any interest of the University is liable to be prejudicially affected, is not duly observed, the Hebdomadal Council may submit a representation to the Visitor; and the Visitor shall, upon receiving such representation, inquire into the matter, and, after considering any representation made by the College, make such order therein as he shall deem just for enforcing the due observance of the said Statutes in the matter to which the representation shall relate.

Representations as to Examinations for Fellowships.

2. The Hebdomadal Council, or any Board of
