

a Faculty in the University, may in like manner make a representation to the Visitor, if it shall appear that the provisions of these Statutes respecting the subjects of examinations for Fellowships are not duly observed by the College.

Notice to President.

3. Before any representation is made under either of the foregoing provisions, the Vice-Chancellor or the Chairman of such Board of a Faculty (as the case may be) shall communicate the matter of the proposed representation to the President for the information of the College, and when a representation is made shall forthwith send him a copy of it.

XIII.—ALTERATION OF STATUTES.

The College may from time to time, by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the persons present and voting at a General Meeting specially summoned for that purpose (subject to the provisions of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877), alter or amend the Statutes of the College.

XIV.—REPEAL OF EXISTING STATUTES.

1. The existing Statutes of the College, and the Ordinance framed by the Commissioners for the purposes of the Statute 17 and 18 Vic. c. 81, in relation to the College, and all amendments of the said Statutes and Ordinance respectively heretofore made are hereby repealed, without prejudice nevertheless to any right acquired, liability incurred, or thing done thereunder, or any repeal effected thereby.

2. The existing Bylaws and Regulations of the College, so far as they are not repugnant to these Statutes, shall continue in force until and except in so far as they may be repealed or varied by the College under the powers herein contained.

XV.—SUPPLEMENTAL AND TEMPORARY PROVISIONS.

Vested Interests.

1. Subject to the provisions of Clause 4 of this Statute, these Statutes shall operate without prejudice to any right or interest possessed by any person by virtue of his having, before they come into operation, become a member of the College or been elected to any College emolument or acquired a vested right to be elected thereto. But no such person shall, unless he agrees to place himself under these Statutes, as herein-after mentioned, be entitled by virtue of them, to any greater rights than he would have had if these Statutes had not been made.

Existing President.

2. The existing President may at any time, with the consent of the College at a Stated General Meeting, by a Declaration of consent in writing recorded and preserved in the College, place himself under these Statutes and shall thenceforth hold his office on the same terms and subject to the same conditions in all respects as if he had been elected to the office under these Statutes.

Transference of Existing Fellows.

3. The President and Fellows may, if they think fit, at any Stated General Meeting by resolution transfer, with his own consent, any existing Fellow who is a Tutor, Lecturer, or Bursar to an Official Fellowship tenable under these Statutes, on such terms as to precedence, stipend, duration of tenure and otherwise as the President and Fellows may determine: provided that such terms do not as regards stipend or tenure exceed the maximum amount or duration allowed by these Statutes, and that for the purpose of qualification for a pension not more than one half of any period of service anterior to the approval of these Statutes by Her Majesty in Council shall be reckoned in the case of a person so transferred.

Limited Tenures.

4. The foregoing Clauses 1, 2, 3, shall not apply to any person who at the time when these Statutes come into operation holds an emolument within the College, subject to the condition that his tenure of such emolument shall from and after the approval by Her Majesty in Council of new Statutes to be made by the Commissioners in relation to such emolument be subject to such new Statutes. Every such person shall hold his emoluments subject in all respects to these Statutes, and being a Fellow, shall be entitled to hold his Fellowship during the residue of the time and on the terms for and on which he would have been entitled to hold it if these Statutes had been in force at the time of his election and he had then been elected to a Non-official Fellowship tenable under them.

These Statutes are made wholly for Trinity College within the meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, Section 30.

Privy Council Office, July 15, 1881.

THE following Statutes made on the sixteenth day of June, 1881, by the University of Oxford Commissioners, under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, for St. John Baptist College, Oxford, have been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty, and notice of their having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the said Act.

We, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present Instrument under our Seal make the Statutes hereunto annexed for St. John Baptist College in the University of Oxford.

Given under our Common seal this sixteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

STATUTES OF ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE, OXFORD.

PREAMBLE.

SAINT JOHN BAPTIST COLLEGE was founded by Sir Thomas White, Knight and Alderman of the City of London, under a Licence granted by King Philip and Queen Mary by Letters Patent in the year of our Lord 1555, "ad honorem sanctissimæ et Individuæ Trinitatis, Patris Filii et Spiritus Sancti, et ad totius cœlestis hierarchiæ gloriam, et ad Christianæ religionis augmentum."

STATUTE I.

Constitution.
