

powers of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, for enabling or requiring the Colleges to make contributions out of their revenues to University purposes, and to the payment of the charges imposed thereby.

Income of Endowments and Trusts included in General Revenue.

2. Income arising from any endowment, benefaction, or trust, and applicable to the maintenance of any Fellowship, Scholarship, or Exhibition within the College, or to any other purpose for the benefit of the College or of the Head or any member of it (including any fund for the purchase of advowsons, shall be liable to contribute to the payment of any charges for University purposes imposed on the College by Statutes made for the University as aforesaid in the same manner as if such income had formed part of the general revenue of the College, except in the following cases:—

Exceptions.

- (a.) Income of, or constituting, any emolument the trusts or directions affecting which are protected from alteration by section 13 of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.
- (b.) Income wholly appropriated to any emolument, not being a Fellowship, in elections to which a school has a right of preference within the meaning of section 39 of the said Act (not including any such emolument which is held for the time being under an election held by open competition).

Scheme to be Approved by Visitor.

3. If at any time it shall appear to the Visitor that the revenues of the College have become more than sufficient to provide for its expenditure, the Visitor may, if he think fit, make an order directing that any part of the surplus revenues shall be set apart and applied to purposes relative either to the College or to the University, according to a scheme submitted or to be submitted to him by the College and approved by him. After an order so made by the Visitor, any sums thereby directed to be set apart shall be applied in conformity with a scheme submitted to and approved by the Visitor as aforesaid, and under an order of the Visitor confirming the same, and not otherwise.

What included in Expenditure of the College.

4. The expenditure of the College shall, in the foregoing clause, be deemed to include as well the payment of charges for University purposes imposed by Statutes made for the University as aforesaid, as the application of revenue to the purposes of these Statutes, reasonable and customary expenditure (not inconsistent with them) for College purposes, extraordinary expenditure (when required) on estates, and any reasonable donations for educational or charitable objects or connected with the duties of the College as a holder of property.

Communication of Scheme to Hebdomadal Council.

5. Before any scheme is confirmed by the Visitor, the College shall communicate it to the Vice-Chancellor for the information of the Hebdomadal Council of the University; and the Visitor shall consider any representations which the Hebdomadal Council may judge it expedient for the interests of the University to make with reference to such scheme.

Confirmation of Scheme.

6. An order made by the Visitor confirming a scheme submitted to him by the College shall continue in force until a new scheme varying it or in substitution for it shall have been submitted and confirmed in like manner.

Representation to Visitor.

7. The College or any three members of the Governing Body of the College may at any time make a representation to the Visitor requesting him to exercise, if he think fit, the powers of this Statute. But this provision shall not be deemed to affect the Visitor's right to exercise such powers proprio motu.

Surplus Revenues.

8. Subject to the right of the Visitor to exercise the powers hereby given to him, any surplus of the revenues of the College shall from time to time be applied by the President and Fellows at their discretion to any purposes relative to the College and not inconsistent with these Statutes or (subject to the Statutes of the University in force for the time being) to any purposes relative to the University and conducive to the advancement of learning, science, or education.

Restrictions on Application of Surplus Revenue.

9. No addition shall under the powers of this Statute be made to the emoluments of the Headship or of any Fellowship or Scholarship in the College; nor (unless under a scheme confirmed by the Visitor or under any express power herebefore contained) to the number of Fellowships or of Scholarships, the payments to the Tuition Fund, or to an Exhibition Fund, or the provision for a Pension Fund, which are respectively authorised by these Statutes. But this clause shall not be deemed to prohibit or restrain the College from making payments under the preceding clause out of its surplus revenue for research or other work in any department of learning or science.

STATUTE XVIII.

The Visitor.

Visitor.

1. The Bishop of Winchester shall be the Visitor of the College; or, in the case of his incapacity or absence in foreign parts, the Vicar-General of the diocese; or in the case of a vacancy of the see, the guardian of the spiritualities of the see.

Visitation.

2. It shall be lawful for the Visitor in person, or by his commissary or commissaries duly appointed, once in every ten years (or oftener, if and whenever he shall deem it expedient for enforcing the due observance of the Statutes), without any request or application by the President and Fellows or any of its members, to visit the College, and to exercise at such visitation all the powers which are by law incident to the office of general Visitor of a College. It shall be lawful for the Visitor at any such visitation, or if he shall think fit, at other times, to require the President and Fellows to answer in writing touching any matter as to which the Visitor may deem it expedient to inquire, for the purpose of satisfying himself whether the Statutes are duly observed.

Commissary.

3. The Visitor shall not appoint as his commissary the Chancellor of the University, the Vice-Chancellor, either of the Proctors, or any deprived Fellow of the College.

Construction of Statutes.

4. As often as any question shall arise on which the President and Fellows shall be unable to agree, depending wholly or in part on the construction of any of the Statutes of the College, it shall be lawful for the President and Fellows, or
