Spalding Union.—Parish of Pinchbeck.

To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish of Pinchbeck, in the County of Lincoln;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the population of the said parish of Pinchbeck, according to the last census, exceeds two thousand persons;

And whereas at a Meeting of the Vestry of the said parish, held at the Vestry at the Parish Church (and by adjournment at the Library in the National Schools), pursuant to public notice in that behalf, on Thursday, the 10th day of February, 1881, it was resolved,—

"That the Local Government Board (formerly called the Poor Law Board) be requested
"to issue an Order under their Seal of Office
"directing that the Act passed in the "fourteenth year of the reign of Her present
"Majesty (13 and 14 Vict., c. 57), intituled
"An Act to prevent the holding of Vestry
"or other Meetings in Churches, and for
"regulating the Appointment of Vestry
"Clerks, shall be applied to and put in
"force in this parish as regards the whole
"of its provisions."

And whereas the Churchwardens of the said parish have made Application in writing to the Local Government Board, pursuant to the above resolution:

Now therefore, we, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to us by the Statutes in that behalf, hereby order as follows :

ARTICLE I.—So much of the Act passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled “An Act to prevent the holding of “ Vestry or other Meetings in Churches, and for “ regulating the appointment of Vestry Clerks,” as relates to the providing of a room or suitable buildings for the purpose of holding Vestry or other Meetings, shall forthwith be applied to and be put in force within the said parish of Pinchbeck.

ARTICLE II.—A copy of this Order shall be published in the London Gazette by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said parish.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this twenty-first day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

J. G. Dodson, President.

Walter J. Sendall, Assistant-Secretary.

The National Bank.

13, Old Broad-Street, London, E.C.,
September 30, 1881.

THE following Resolutions were passed at two successive Special General Meetings of Proprietors held in London on the 29th and 30th September, 1881:—

“That each of the present existing shares of £50, in the nominal capital of the Bank, shall be henceforth divided into three shares, and to each of which three shall be attached the proportionate one-third part of the credit and liabilities which attach to each of the previous existing shares, and by which division the present nominal capital of the Bank being £2,500,000, divided into 50,000 shares, shall henceforth be divided into 150,000 shares of £16 13s. 4d. each, and upon each of which last mentioned shares a sum of £10 (being one-third part of the £30 already paid up on each of the previous existing shares) will be credited as paid up.

“That in the deed of settlement of the Bank and also in Resolutions of any Special General Meetings of the Bank heretofore held to alter that deed, all such clauses and provisions as require or confer any qualification, or rights, or privileges on the part of or upon or to any sole proprietor holding any specified number of shares (being five shares or upwards), or upon or to several sole proprietors holding together any specified number of shares, or upon or to any specified number of proprietors, such specified number of shares or proprietors, as the case may be, shall henceforth in each of such several cases, and consequent on the proposed division of shares, be increased to a number treble or threefold such specified numbers (but not so as to increase the number of 20 qualified proprietors whose presence is required and sufficient at present to constitute a General Meeting, each of them being a holder of 15 shares, as the number of shares henceforth and consequent as aforesaid required in order to render them qualified proprietors). And it is further resolved, that the clauses and provisions above referred to shall be and are hereby altered as above stated, and the same and the other clauses and provisions in the deed of settlement as heretofore altered shall be read and operate accordingly, and so to render them consistent with these resolutions. And whenever two or more persons are or shall be jointly entitled to a share or shares, the person whose name stands first on the register of shareholders as one of the joint proprietors or holders of such share or shares will be deemed to be “a sole proprietor” of the same share or shares within the meaning hereof, except so far as relates to the qualification required for holding the office of Director.”

*By order of the Directors,
W. G. Simm, Secretary.*

The following Resolutions were passed a Special and Extraordinary General Meeting of the Proprietors held in London on the 30th September, 1881:—

1. “That on the 1st January, 1882, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the National Bank shall be registered and incorporated as a Bank with Limited Liability, or as a Limited Company under the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1879.

2. “That on and from and after such registration the name of the Bank shall be changed to and be ‘The National Bank Limited,’ instead of its present name.

3. “That the nominal capital of the Bank be increased by increasing the nominal amount of each share of £16 13s. 4d. therein to the nominal amount of £50, but that no part of such increased capital shall be capable of being called up, except in the event of and for the purposes of the Company being wound up.”

*By order of the Directors,
