Denbigh Water.
(Application to the Board of Trade under "Gas and Waterworks Facilities Act, 1870," for Provisional Order authorizing Extension of Water Supply, Increase of Capital, &c.)
NOTICE is hereby given, that the Denbigh Water Company (hereinafter called "the Company") intend to apply to the Board of Trade, under the Gas and Waterworks Facilities Act, 1870, for a Provisional Order, to be confirmed by Parliament in the ensuing session, for the following purposes, that is to say:—
To extend the area or limits within which the Company are now authorized to supply water, and to include within such limits and enable the Company to supply water for public, private, and other purposes to and within such parts of the several parishes of Llanrhaiadr-yn-Cinmerch and Henllan, in the county of Denbigh, as are within the borough of Denbigh, and to confer upon the Company all necessary powers for affording throughout the whole or any part of their limits of supply as so extended a proper and sufficient supply of water, and for preventing the waste, misuse, or contamination of the water of the Company.

The intended Order will authorize the Company to increase their share and loan capital, and to exercise the following, or some of the following, powers:—
To lay down and maintain conduits, aqueducts, pipes, and other works in, under, over, across, and along, and to cross, break up, alter, divert, or stop up, or otherwise interfere with roads, streets, highways, footpaths, bridges, railways, canals, sewers, drains, pipes, passages, and places within such parts of the aforesaid parishes.
To levy rates, rents, and charges in respect of the supply of water within their extended limits, and to vary or extinguish existing rates, rents, and charges, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of rates, rents, and charges.

To contract and agree with any Local Authorities, Company, Commissioners, Trustees, Surveyors, or other bodies and persons for a supply of water in bulk or otherwise, for any purpose whatsoever, and the Order will enable any such Local Authority, Company, Commissioners, Trustees, or Surveyors, or other bodies or persons, to contract and agree with the Company for such supply, and to appropriate and apply funds and raise additional funds by rates or otherwise, for the purpose of any such contract or agreement.

The Order will amend as far as may be necessary for the purposes thereof, the Denbigh Water Act, 1863, and the Denbigh Water Order, 1873, and confer upon the Company all necessary powers for carrying into effect the aforesaid objects, and all such rights, powers, or privileges as they have or may exercise within their existing district for the supply of water, and the Order will vary or extinguish all such rights or privileges as may impede the carrying of the objects thereof into effect, and confer other rights and privileges.

The Order will incorporate with itself all or some of the provisions of the "Water Works Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863," and such parts of the "Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," as relate to roads, and the temporary use and occupation of lands and such other matters as may be deemed expedient, and it will also confer upon the Company the powers mentioned or referred to in the "Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and parts 1, 2, and 3 of the "Companies Clauses Act, 1863," and the "Companies Clauses Act, 1869," and the "Gas and Waterworks Facilities Act, 1870," and all such other powers as are usually conferred upon Water Companies.

On or before the 30th day of November, 1881, a copy of this notice or advertisement will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Denbigh, at his office at Ruthin, in the said county, and also at the office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall, London, and on and after the 23rd day of December, 1881, printed copies of the draft Provisional Order as deposited, and also printed copies of the Order when made by the Board of Trade, may be obtained on application at the office of Messrs. Frankish and Buchanan, Devereux-chambers, Devereux-court, Strand, London, at the price of one shilling each.

All companies, corporations, or persons desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade, or of bringing before them any objection respecting the application, may do so by letter addressed to the Assistant-Secretary of the Railway Department of the Board of Trade, Whitehall, London, on or before the 15th day of January, 1882, and a copy of such representation or objection must at the same time be sent to the undersigned Solicitors or Parliamentary Agents for the Company, and in forwarding to the Board of Trade such objections the objectors or their Agents should state that a copy of the same has been forwarded to the Promoters or their Agents.
