Foreign Office, December 7, 1881.

THE following Declaration has been signed by Her Majesty's Ambassador at Rome and the Italian Minister for Foreign Affairs.

DECLARATION.

WHEREAS the Treaty of Commerce and Navigation between Great Britain and Italy, of 6th August, 1863, would cease to be in force on the 31st December, 1881, and the two Governments having recognised the utility of prolonging its duration, the undersigned, duly authorized to this effect, have agreed to declare as follows:

The Treaty of Commerce and Navigation between Great Britain and Italy of 6th August, 1863, will continue to remain in force until the 31st May, 1882.

In faith of which, they have signed the present Declaration, made in duplicate, and have affixed their seals.

Done at Rome, on the 29th November, 1881.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of November, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and of the Act of the thirty-fifth and thirty-sixth years of Her Majesty chapter fourteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and four and of the Act of the thirty-fifth and thirty-sixth years of your Majesty chapter fourteen have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken partly out of the new parish of Christ Church Denton within the original limits of the parish of Manchester in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, and partly out of the new parish of Saint George Hyde within the original limits of the parish of Stockport in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester.

“Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said new parish of Christ Church Denton and of the said new parish of St. George Hyde which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

“And whereas for the purpose of providing an endowment for the said proposed district Joseph Sidebotham of Erlesdene, Bowdon, in the said county of Chester Esquire has contributed a sum of two thousand five hundred pounds four pounds per centum debenture stock of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company and has transferred the same into our name in the books of the same Company to be held in trust by us as and for a permanent endowment for the minister or incumbent for the time being of the said proposed district and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act, then of the said new parish the amount of the annual interest and dividends to accrue due on account of the said sum of stock to be receivable by the said minister or incumbent for the time being when he shall have been duly licensed according to the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act.

“And whereas the said sum of two thousand five hundred pounds four pounds per centum debenture stock of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company aforesaid has been so provided as aforesaid upon the understanding that we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners should out of our common fund created by the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act pay to the minister or incumbent for the time being of the said proposed district or new parish (as the case may be) when duly licensed as aforesaid a grant of fifty pounds per annum and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or new parish (as the case may be) and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the said annual grant of fifty pounds will be made and secured by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and eleven.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend James Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, and with the consent of the Right Reverend William Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said new parish of Christ Church Denton and of the said new parish of Saint George Hyde which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named ‘The District of Saint Anne Haughton’ and that such district shall be included in, and shall form part of, the Rural Deanery of Ashton-under-Lyne, of the Archdeaconry of Manchester, and of the diocese of Manchester aforesaid.

“And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district and when the said district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and become absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Joseph Sidebotham and by his heirs and assigns for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or to any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“The District of Saint Anne Haughton being:—

“All that portion of the new parish of Christ Church Denton within the original limits of the parish of Manchester in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester which consists of the whole of that part of the township of Haughton which is comprised within the limits of the said new parish all which said portion of such new parish is bounded on the south by the new parish of Saint Laurence Denton also within the original limits of the parish of Manchester aforesaid on the west by that part of the township of Denton which is comprised within the limits of the new parish of Christ Church Denton aforesaid on the north mainly by the new parish of Audenshaw also within the original limits of the parish of Manchester aforesaid and partly by the new parish of Saint Mark Dukinfield within the original limits of the parish of Stockport in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester and on the north-east and on the east partly by the new parish of Saint Mary Newton in Mottram within the original limits of the said parish of Stockport and partly by the hereinafter described portion of the new parish of Saint George Hyde also within the original limits of the same parish. And also all that contiguous portion of the said new parish of Saint George Hyde which is bounded on the south-east and on the east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the new parish of Saint Mary the Virgin Haughton within the original limits of the parish of Manchester aforesaid from the new parish of Saint George Hyde aforesaid at a point in the centre of Clarke’s Bridge over the River Tame at the southern end of Mill-lane and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the said lane for a distance of twelve chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Read-street and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts to its junction with Alfred-street and with Alma-street and continuing thence still in precisely the same direction and in a straight line for a distance of six chains or thereabouts across the open space in front of Barnfield Mill to a point in the middle of the Peak Forest Canal and extending thence first northward and then north-westward along the middle of the said canal for a distance of thirty-four chains and a half or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the new parish of Saint George Hyde aforesaid from the new parish of Saint Mary Newton in Mottram aforesaid all which above described portion of the new parish of Saint George Hyde aforesaid is bounded on the remaining sides other than the south-east and east that is to say upon the north upon the west and upon the south as follows upon the north by the new parish of Saint Mary Newton in Mottram aforesaid, upon the west partly by the herebefore described portion of the new parish of Christ Church Denton aforesaid, and partly by the new parish of Saint Laurence Denton aforesaid, and on the south by the new parish of Saint Mary the Virgin Haughton aforesaid or in other words upon the west and upon the south by the River Tame aforesaid.”

“And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herebefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the two new parishes, out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to such scheme:

“And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester, and by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

THE French Government has given notice, dated 25th October, 1881, that a fog-signal has been established at Plate Point, on the south-west side of Langlade (Little Miquelon) Island, Miquelon Islands.

The signal is a siren, which, during thick weather, fogs, or snowstorms, will be sounded twice every minute as follows:—Sound for seven seconds, silence nine seconds, sound for seven seconds, followed by silence of thirty-seven seconds.

NOTE.—This siren produces a trembling sound, which is shriller than that of the fog-signal on Galantry Head, St. Pierre Island.

FORTUNE BAY—HARBOUR BRETON.

(2.) Rocky Point Light Re-exhibited.

With reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 124 (1), of 11th July, 1881, on the destruction by fire in June, 1881, of the lighthouse on Rocky Point, western side of entrance to Harbour Breton:—

The Government of Newfoundland has given further notice, that on 21st November, 1881, the light would be re-exhibited from a tower since erected.

The light is a fixed white light, elevated 68 feet above the sea. It is obscured in the direction of Harbour Rock, which bears N.E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E. from the lighthouse, distant 230 yards.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric, or by lenses of the eighth order.

The lighthouse, circular in shape and constructed of iron, is painted red and white in alternate horizontal bands.

Position as given, lat. 47° 27' 30" N., long. 55° 47' 45" W.

EAST COAST—TRINITY BAY.

(3.) Red Light at Hants Harbour.

Also, that on 21st November, 1881, a light would be exhibited from a lighthouse erected on the north-east head, Hants Harbour, eastern side of Trinity Bay.

The light is a fixed red light, elevated 65 feet above the sea.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric, or by lenses of the eighth order.

The lighthouse consists of a wooden octagonal tower on a square base. The buildings are painted white.

Position, lat. 48° 1' 5" N., long. 53° 15' 5" W.

[The bearing is magnetic. Variation 29 $\frac{1}{2}$ ° Westerly in 1881.]

(No. 239.)—AUSTRALIA—SOUTH COAST.

(1.) Signals used by Dredgers.

THE Government of South Australia has given notice, that on and after 6th October, 1881, the following signals would be shown from the dredgers at works in that Colony, in lieu of those previously used:—

During the day, inward bound, a red ball denotes leave the dredger on the starboard hand. A black ball denotes leave the dredger on the port hand when passing.

At night, inward bound, a red light under a white light denotes leave the dredger on the starboard hand. A green light under a white light denotes leave the dredger on the port hand when passing.

SPENCER GULF—HARDWICKE BAY.

(2.) Fixed Light at Port Victoria.

Also, that on 1st October, 1881, a light would be exhibited from the extremity of the jetty at Port Victoria, Hardwicke Bay.

The light is a fixed white light, visible in clear weather from a distance of about 5 miles.

Position, lat. $34^{\circ} 29' 45''$ S., long. $137^{\circ} 28' 40''$ E.

NOTE.—This light shows directly over Eclipse Rock.

AUSTRALIA—NORTH-WEST COAST.

(3.) Tien Tsin Harbour—Harbour Light on Reader Head.

The Government of Western Australia has given notice, that on 1st October, 1881, a harbour light would be exhibited from a lighthouse erected on the summit of Reader Head, south side of Tien Tsin (Cossack) Harbour or Port Walcott.

The light is a fixed white light, visible seaward between the bearings of S. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. and W. by N. $\frac{1}{2}$ N. It is elevated 129 feet above high water, and should be seen in clear weather from a distance of about 13 miles.

The lighthouse, 24 feet high, is a dark pile structure with small lantern painted white.

Position on Admiralty Chart, lat. $20^{\circ} 40' 0''$ S., long. $117^{\circ} 8' 40''$ E.

SOUTH-WEST PACIFIC—NEW CALEDONIA.

(4.) Leading Light on Amédée Islet.

With reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 97 (3), of 16th June, 1881, on the intended exhibition of a leading light from a lighthouse erected on Amédée Islet, within Bulari Pass, south coast of New Caledonia:—

The French Government has given further notice, that on 1st September, 1881, the light was exhibited:—

The light is a fixed red light of the fourth order, elevated 47 feet above high water, and should be visible in clear weather from a distance of 5 miles.

The lighthouse consists of a foundation of masonry (29 feet above low water level), octagonal in shape and of a white colour, surmounted by an iron column 20 feet in height.

NOTE.—This light kept in line with the old light (fixed white) bearing N. $39\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ E. leads in mid-channel through the northern Bulari Passage.

In order to maintain the deepest water, vessels should keep the red light open a little northward of the white light—and with a heavy sea, should avoid opening it to the southward of the white light.

[The bearings are magnetic. Variation Tien Tsin Harbour $1\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ Westerly, Amédée Islet, $10\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ Easterly, in 1881.]

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Almeley, in the county of Hereford, and in the diocese of Hereford, one capital sum of four hundred and seventy-seven pounds three shillings and eight pence, such capital sum to be applied by us in discharging the amounts payable to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation and maintenance of the Poor Clergy, under three several subsisting mortgages of the said vicarage, which were effected by three deeds bearing date respectively the fifteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, the fifteenth day of October, in the same year, and the fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, for the purpose of providing or of improving the parsonage house of the said vicarage of Almeley.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of the Holy Trinity, in the city of Worcester, and in the diocese of Worcester, one capital sum of four hundred and fifty-five pounds eleven shillings and ten pence, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of the Holy Trinity, in the city of Worcester.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Hythe, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that annual sum of seventeen pounds twelve shillings and eight pence, payable by the rector of Fawley, in the county of Southampton, in respect of redeemed land tax, and formerly receivable by the Bishop of Winchester, and recently by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to have and to hold the said annual sum to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the said annual sum for and in respect of the period intervening between the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of East Harnham with the vicarage of West Harnham annexed, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Salisbury, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and seventy-seven pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May, and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate out of our said common fund to the said united vicarage of East Harnham with West Harnham, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said united vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said united vicarage of East Harnham with West Harnham: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, sufficient in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and seventy-seven pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said united vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Northorpe, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-first day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of one hundred and seventy-five pounds sterling, which has been paid over to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint Martin, Kentish Town, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage to meet such benefaction, one capital sum of one hundred and seventy-five pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of enlarging and improving the parsonage or house of residence of the said vicarage of Saint Martin, Kentish Town, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.
