AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 15th day of December, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas from the increase of population, or from other circumstances, it may be expedient that two or more benefices which have been heretofore united or which may be hereafter united under the provisions of this Act should be disunited," it is amongst other things, enacted, "That when two or more benefices shall have been united, or may be hereafter united into one benefice, and with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop of the Province, that one or more of the benefices within his diocese, of which such united benefice shall consist, may be separated therefrom with advantage to the interests of religion, the said Archbishop shall enquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such enquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully dissolved, so far as respects such benefice or benefices, he shall six weeks at least before certifying such inquiry to Her Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement, in writing, of the facts, and in all other cases a copy, in writing, of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church or in some public and conspicuous place in each of the benefices forming part of the united benefice, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they may within such six weeks show cause, in writing, under his, her, or their hands to the said Archbishop against any such disunion: and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent, when the patron's consent is necessary, to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to issue an Order for separating such last-mentioned benefice or benefices from such united benefice, and for declaring the rights of patronage of the several patrons, if there be more than one patron, and such Order shall be registered in the registry of the diocese to which such united benefice shall belong, which Order the Registrar of such diocese, immediately on the receipt thereof, is hereby required to register accordingly, and thereupon immediately if such united benefice shall be then vacant, otherwise on the first avoidance thereof, such union shall be ipso facto dissolved, so far only as regards such benefice or benefices so proposed to be separated from such united benefice, but in all other respects shall remain in full force and effect, and thenceforward such last-mentioned benefice or benefices shall be and be deemed and taken to be a separate and distinct benefice or benefices to all intents and purposes whatever as if no such union had taken place, and the patron or patrons thereof shall and may according to the terms of such Order present or nominate thereto respectively, and so from time to time upon each and every avoidance of the same: Provided always, that no benefices which have been united for more than sixty years before the passing of this Act shall be disunited without the consent in writing of the patron or patrons thereof: and it was also enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council, on the recommendation of the Archbishop of the Province, with the consent of the patron or patrons of such benefices respectively (such consent to be signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons) to assign and attach such portion of the glebe lands, tithes, moduses, rent-charges, or other endowments, or emoluments belonging to or arising or accruing within the limits of such united benefice to each of such benefices respectively, as to Her Majesty in Council shall seem fit."

And whereas on the 19th day of February 1881 John Thomas Lord Bishop of Norwich made a representation to the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury in the words and figures following:—

"To the Most Reverend Archibald Campbell
Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

"I John Thomas Lord Bishop of Norwich do hereby represent to your Grace that it appears to me that the disunion of the united vicarages of Thornham and Holme-next-the-Sea in the county of Norfolk and my diocese of Norwich by the separation of the said vicarage of Thornham from the said vicarage of Holme-next-the-Sea may be made with advantage to the interests of religion.

"Witness my hand this 19th day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty one.
John T. Norwich."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop having enquired into the circumstances of the case, it appeared to him on such enquiry that the said union might be usefully dissolved. The said Lord Archbishop therefore six weeks and upwards before certifying such enquiry to Her Majesty in Council caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation to be affixed to the principal outer door of each of the said parish churches of the said united benefice with notice to any person or persons interested to show cause against the proposed disunion. No such cause having been shown within the period limited by the said Act, and the patrons having consented to the proposed disunion, the said Lord Archbishop hath, pursuant to the hereinbefore recited provisions of the said Act, duly certified the enquiry and the patrons' consent to Her Majesty in Council. And the said Lord Archbishop did recommend (with the consent of the patrons of the united benefice) that each of the said vicarages should retain its original endowments and emoluments; the certificate of the Lord Archbishop containing such recommendation bearing date the 24th day of November 1881, is in the words following:—

"To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We the undersigned Archibald Campbell Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury Primate of all England and Metropolitan do hereby certify to your Majesty in Council.

"That the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas Lord Bishop of Norwich as Bishop of the diocese within which is situate the united benefice consisting of the vicarages of Thornham and Holme-next-the-Sea in the county of Norfolk having represented unto us that the disunion of such united benefice by the separation of the vicarage of Thornham from the vicarage of Holme-next-the-Sea might be made with advantage to the interests of religion we enquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such inquiry it appeared to us that the union of the said united benefice might be usefully dissolved and that the patrons of the said united benefice are the said Lord Bishop in right of his Bishoprick and Thomas L'Estrange Ewen of Dedham in the county of Essex Esquire the right to collate or present to such united benefice being exercised alternately by such patrons who have signified their consent in writing to the proposed disunion.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such inquiry to your Majesty in Council we caused copies in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of the parish church of each of the said vicarages with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such disunion and no such cause has been shown.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Norwich our inquiry into the circumstances of the case the statement of circumstances in reply thereto the consent in writing of the patrons the copy of the representation and notice before mentioned affixed to the said parish church of Thornham and a copy of the representation and notice affixed to the parish church of Holme-next-the-Sea (the original having been surreptitiously removed) are herewith annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the enquiry and consent aforesaid to your Majesty in Council to the intent that your Majesty in Council may in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issued an Order for dissolving the union of the said united benefice and for separating the said vicarage of Thornham from the said vicarage of Holme-next-the-Sea and for declaring the rights of patronage of the several patrons as follows that is to say the right of collation to the said vicarage of Thornham shall be vested in the said Lord Bishop of Norwich and his successors Bishops of Norwich in right of the Bishoprick and the right of presentation to the said vicarage of Holme-next-the-Sea shall be vested in the said Thomas L'Estrange Ewen his heirs and assigns and in accordance with the consent in writing of the patrons of the said united benefice we recommend that each of the said vicarages shall retain its original endowments and emoluments.

"As witness our hand this twenty-fourth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

"A. C. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said united benefice, consisting of the vicarage of Thornham and the vicarage of Holme-next-the-Sea, shall be disunited by separating the said vicarage of Thornham from the said vicarage of Holme-next-the-Sea.

And Her Majesty in Council by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased to declare that when the said vicarages shall be so disunited as aforesaid the right of collation to the said vicarage of Thornham shall be vested in the said Lord Bishop of Norwich and his successors, Bishops of Norwich in right of the Bishoprick and the right of presentation to the said vicarage of Holme-next-the-Sea shall be vested in the said Thomas L'Estrange Ewen his heirs and assigns.

And Her Majesty in Council is also pleased to assign and attach to each of the said vicarages such endowments and emoluments as were received and enjoyed by the respective Incumbents thereof previous to the union of the said vicarages into one benefice: and also to direct that the Incumbent of each disunited vicarage shall be liable for such charges and outgoings only as were chargeable upon and borne by the Incumbent thereof previous to the union of the said vicarages.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for enabling the Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Chester to provide for the efficient performance of certain duties of the same church.

"Whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council bearing date the third day of July one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and published in the London Gazette on the day following, all the manors lands tithes tenements and hereditaments which then belonged, either in possession or reversion to the Dean and Chapter of the said Cathedral Church of Chester, were with certain exceptions, in the same Order specified transferred for the consideration in the same Order expressed, to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England and our successors.

"And whereas the lands tenements and hereditaments described in the schedule to the scheme ratified by the said Order were not transferred by the said Order, but were specifically excepted therefrom as is above-mentioned, and amongst the lands tenements and hereditaments, so specifically excepted as aforesaid, was a certain messuage or dwelling-house and appurtenances in the said schedule described as "the house and premises "situate in Abbey-court, within the precincts of the said cathedral, now in the occupation of the Reverend Francis Edward Thurland, the Precentor:" which house and premises were upon the aforesaid transfer reserved to the said Dean and Chapter as a house of residence for the Precentor for the time being of the said Cathedral Church of Chester.

"And whereas the said house and premises are still vested in the said Dean and Chapter accordingly, and have down to the present time been occupied by successive Precentors of the said Cathedral Church of Chester and the same were until lately occupied by the Reverend Charles Henry Hylton Stewart, Clerk in Holy Orders, the present Precentor of the same Cathedral Church.

" And whereas the said Dean and Chapter of the said Cathedral Church of Chester have now represented to us that the said house and premises, so excepted and reserved as aforesaid, have become delapidated and unfit for occupation and that consequently the said Charles Henry Hylton Stewart has ceased to reside therein, and has now no official residence; and that they the said Dean and Chapter intend to pull down the same and to throw the site thereof into the open area or space around the Cathedral called the Green.

" And whereas the said Dean and Chapter have under the circumstances aforesaid, and considering that the reservation of an official house of residence for the Precentor of the said Cathedral Church of Chester, which was made as aforesaid, by the said Order of your Majesty in Council of the third day of July one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, has now by reason of the circumstances aforesaid become of none effect, requested that the recommendations and proposals herein-after contained should be submitted by us to your Majesty in Council.

" And whereas there is in Abbey-street, within the precincts of the said Cathedral Church of Chester, a certain messuage or dwelling-house, being Number 7 in the said street, which in the opinion of the said Dean and Chapter would be a fit and proper house of residence for the Precentor of the same Cathedral Church, in lieu of the house and premises which have become delapidated and unfit for occupation as aforesaid.

" And whereas the same messuage or dwelling-house is part of the hereditaments which as aforesaid were transferred from the said Dean and Chapter to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, under and by virtue of the said Order of your Majesty in Council of the third day of July one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four; and the same is now vested in us accordingly subject to a certain beneficial lease by which the same was demised by the said Dean and Chapter for a term of years expiring on the twenty-third day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

" And whereas the said Dean and Chapter have expressed to us their intention of providing the said Charles Henry Hylton Stewart or other the Precentor for the time being of the said Cathedral Church of Chester, with the means of residing rent free in the neighbourhood of the same church until the expiration of the said lease.

" And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said request made to us by the Dean and Chapter of the said Cathedral Church of Chester is, under the circumstances aforesaid reasonable and proper, and that the same may and should be carried into effect in manner hereinafter mentioned.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Chester aforesaid in testimony whereof they have to this scheme set their common or capitular seal, we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and as from the day on which any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the messuage or dwelling-house being Number 7 in Abbey-street within the precincts of the said Cathedral Church of Chester with the appurtenances thereof and all our estate and interest therein (as such messuage or dwelling-house and the appurtenances thereof are more particularly described in the schedule to this scheme annexed) shall by virtue of this scheme and of the said duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than the said duly gazetted Order be transferred (subject nevertheless to the said beneficial lease of the same messuage and to the covenants in the same lease contained) from us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and our successors to the Dean and Chapter of the said Cathedral Church of Chester, and shall as from the day aforesaid become and be vested in the same Dean and Chapter, and their successors for ever as part of their capitular estate, it being understood that the same messuage or dwelling-house with the appurtenances thereof, shall from and after the expiration of the said beneficial lease, and until the said Dean and Chapter with the consent of their Visitor shall otherwise determine, be the official house of residence for the Precentor for the time being of the said Cathedral Church of Chester, in lieu of the house and premises specifically excepted as aforesaid from the said Order of your Majesty in Council of the third day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

" The SCHEDULE to the foregoing Scheme.

" All that messuage or dwelling-house, with the yard garden outlet and appurtenances thereunto belonging, situate and being on the north side of Abbey-street within the precincts of the said Cathedral Church within the said city of Chester, and being Number 7 in the said street, now in the holding of William Warrington, together with the way or passage to the said garden or outlet which the said William Warrington enjoys in common with the lessee of the adjoining premises, and also all that coach-house stable and saddle-room on the north-east end of Abbey-street aforesaid to the said messuage or dwelling-house belonging and usually occupied therewith, but now in the occupation of John Griffiths, Provision Dealer."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that such immediate transfers of patronage and such deferred apportionment of endowments as have been so proposed to us as aforesaid are expedient and we are of opinion that the same transfers of patronage will in each case tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage to be transferred arises or exists that is to say in the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Bordesley and in the said new parish of Saint James Ashted, and in the said new parish of Saint Barnabas Erdington.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Henry Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester, is consenting to the said proposed transfers of patronage and to the said proposed apportionment and has testified his consent in manner hereinafter appearing.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Arthur Fitzgerald Baron Kinnaird and of the said Edmund Hollond and of the said George Lea and of the said Sampson Samuel Lloyd and of the said George Edward Tate (in testimony of which consent they have respectively signed this scheme and sealed the same) and with the consent of the said William Eliot (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester (in testimony of which consent he the said Bishop has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of each of the said three benefices of the Holy Trinity Bordesley, and Saint James, Ashted, and Saint Barnabas, Erdington, shall be forthwith transferred from the said William Eliot in whom as vicar or incumbent of the said benefice of Aston-juxta-Birmingham such advowson or perpetual right of patronage is in the case of each of the same three benefices now vested as aforesaid, and from his successors in the same vicarage or incumbency and shall thereupon become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Arthur Fitzgerald, Baron Kinnaird and the said Edmund Hollond and the said George Lea and the said Sampson Samuel Lloyd and the said George Edward Tate, and their heirs and assigns upon the trusts nevertheless and subject to the powers provisions and declarations upon and subject to which the advowson of the said benefice of Aston-juxta-Birmingham is now held by them.

"And we further recommend and propose with the like consents testified as aforesaid that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than as aforesaid all and singular the lands tithes rent-charges in lieu of tithes and other (if any other) endowments which now belong or which may hereafter belong to the said benefice of Aston-juxta-Birmingham shall as from the next avoidance of the same benefice be chargeable and for ever thereafter be charged with three clear annual sums of forty pounds each by the year; of which three sums one shall be payable to the incumbent of the said benefice of the Holy Trinity, Bordesley and his successors, and another shall be payable to the incumbent of the said benefice of Saint James Ashted and his successors and the third shall be payable (in addition to the said other charge of eighty pounds by the year, which is hereinbefore in this behalf mentioned) to the incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Barnabas Erdington, and his successors: each of which said clear annual sums of forty pounds, and forty pounds, and forty pounds, is to be apportionable between any outgoing incumbent entitled to the same, or his representatives or representative and his successors in the same incumbency; and is to be receivable by each such incumbent by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and on the first day of November in every year, and is to be recoverable as against the person or persons who for the time being shall be beneficially entitled to the endowments of the said benefice of Aston-juxta-Birmingham.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Worcester.

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter fifty-five have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Peter situate at Oughtrington in the benefice and rectory of Oughtrington some time part of the ancient parish of Lymm in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas the said parish of Lymm was sometime a parish in which both the profits and the spiritual charge were divided between two incumbents each having a mediety of the benefice that is to say of the benefice of Lymm.

"And whereas by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-sixth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four and published in the London Gazette upon the thirtieth day of the same month ratifying a scheme of us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners it was provided that the said two medieties of the said benefice of Lymm should be divided each from the other and should be constituted into two separate benefices and rectories, the one to be called 'The

"And whereas the said Thomas Redhead Branfoot has not with our privity executed any such instrument of consent but he has now ceased to be rector or incumbent of the said first mediety of the benefice of Lymm as aforesaid and consequently the provisions of the above-mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council have now come into effect and the aforesaid benefice and rectory of Lymm and the aforesaid benefice and rectory of Oughtrington are now duly divided and constituted with the boundaries as defined and described in the two schedules of the said Order and as delineated and set forth upon the map annexed to the same Order which said Order and map are now registered in the Registry of the said diocese of Chester.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that the area comprised within the said rectory of Oughtrington should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Peter Oughtrington under the provisions of the above mentioned Acts, with a view to creating the Cure into a separate and distinct parish for ecclesiastical purposes such as is contemplated by the New Parishes Acts 1843 1844 and 1856 or some or one of them.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend William Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said ancient parish of Lymm which is comprised within the said rectory of Oughtrington as the same is defined and described in the said Order of your Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-sixth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan annexed to this present representation should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Peter situate at Oughtrington as aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Peter Oughtrington.'
