

ber, 1881, reporting that no assets were disclosed by the bankrupt in his statement of affairs, and since his appointment as Trustee he has been unable to discover any estate or assets whatever, that a composition of one shilling in the pound offered by the bankrupt was duly accepted by him, to which the approval of this Court was given on the 21st day of July, 1874 but the same has not been paid or carried into effect, and upon reading the report of the Official Assignee, and no one appearing to oppose, the Court being satisfied that no assets were disclosed by the bankrupt in his statement of affairs, and since the appointment of Thomas Brooks as Trustee he has been unable to discover any, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Edward Keogh has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 16th day of December, 1881.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.
In the County Court of Warwickshire, holden at Birmingham.

In the Matter of George Keel, of 5, Carr's-lane, Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Auctioneer, a Bankrupt.
UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 9th day of December, 1881, reporting that the bankrupt having absconded before the date of the adjudication without filing any statement of his affairs, and that he, as trustee, up to the present time has not been able to discover either the bankrupt's whereabouts or any of his estate, and that in his opinion (the trustee's), it would only be needlessly protracting the bankruptcy to keep the matter open longer, as he does not think that any thing will ever be realized for the benefit of the estate, the Court being satisfied that under these circumstances it would only be needlessly protracting the bankruptcy, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said George Keel has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 29th day of December, 1881.
