In the Matter of Lucy Hood Irwin (commonly known as Lucy Hood Shadgett), of No. 20, Leicester-square, in the county of Middlesex, Boarding-house Keeper, a Spinster, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr. Registrar Murray, acting as Chief Judge.

UPON reading a report of the Registrar-Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 11th day of January, 1882, reporting, so far as he is aware, the whole of the available property of the bankrupt had been realized by the late Trustee, as shown by the statement annexed to the said report, and that the bankrupt has not filed any statement of her affairs, and that she did not appear on the day appointed for her public examination, and that it had not been brought to the knowledge of the said Registrar-Trustee that the bankrupt had since the adjudication acquired any further property that could be realized for the benefit of the creditors, and that in his opinion it is expedient that the bankruptcy should be closed, and the affidavit of Archibald Reid, sworn the 19th day of January, 1882, and upon hearing Mr. Aldridge, Official Solicitor, on behalf of the said Registrar-Trustee, and no one appearing to oppose, the Court being satisfied that the whole of the available property of the bankrupt has been realized by the late Trustee, as appears by the statement annexed to the said Registrar-Trustee's report, and that the bankrupt has not since the adjudication acquired any further property that could be realized for the benefit of the creditors, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Lucy Hood Irwin has closed.— Given under the Seal of the Court this 28th day of January, 1882.
