FRIDAY, MARCH 3, 1882.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
February 24, 1882.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Thursday, the 9th of March, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

KENMARE,

Lord Chamberlain.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of February, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by treaty grant usage sufferance and other lawful means Her Majesty the Queen has power and jurisdiction in relation to Her Majesty's subjects and others within the dominions of His Highness the Sultan of Zanzibar:

Now therefore Her Majesty by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts 1843 to 1878 or otherwise in Her Majesty vested is pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to order and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. Rule twenty-four of the rules designated as rules and regulations framed under Her Majesty's Order in Council of the ninth day of August one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six by Her Majesty's Political Agent, and Consul at Zanzibar and dated the twenty-eighth day of February one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven which rule is as follows (that is to say):

24. The Indian Penal Code shall be considered the criminal law to which British subjects at Zanzibar are amenable except in so far as any of the provisions thereof may be manifestly inapplicable of which the Court shall be the judge:

is hereby confirmed and that rule shall have and shall be deemed to have always had the like validity and effect as it would have had if it had been originally comprised in and made by an Order of Her Majesty in Council.

2. All judicial and other acts done before the passing of this Order in pursuance or execution or intended execution of the said rule shall have and shall be deemed to have always had the like validity and effect in law to all intents as they respectively would have had if they had been done after the passing of this Order.

3. This Order may be cited as the Zanzibar (Indian Penal Code) Order in Council 1882.

And the Right Honourable the Earl Granville and the Most Honourable the Marquess of Hartington two of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. L. Peel.
