

doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Samuel Lemon has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 3rd day of March, 1882.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of George Robert William Bone, of 399, Old Kent-road, in the county of Surrey, Draper, a Bankrupt. Before Mr. Registrar Murray, sitting as Chief Judge.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 15th day of February, 1882, reporting that so much of the property of the bankrupt as can, according to the joint opinion of himself and the Committee of Inspection, be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy has been realized, and dividends to the amount of four shillings and eleven pence in the pound have been paid, and upon reading the affidavit of the said Trustee, sworn on the 20th day of February, 1882, and upon reading the affidavit of Horace Alfred Mayes, sworn on the 3rd day of March, 1882, and upon reading the report of the Official Assignee, dated the 4th day of March, 1882, and upon hearing the said Trustee, and no creditors appearing to oppose, the Court being satisfied that so much of the property of the bankrupt as can be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy has been realized, and dividends to the amount of four shillings and eleven pence in the pound have been paid, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said George Robert William Bone has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 11th day of March, 1882.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Somersetshire, holden at Frome. In the Matter of George Holland, of Sinton Veney, in the county of Wilts, Gentleman, a Bankrupt. Before the Registrar, sitting as Judge.

UPON reading the report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 13th day of February, 1882, reporting that the whole of the property has been realized for the benefit of his creditors, and that having made due inquiries concerning the bankrupt and his affairs he, the Trustee, had been unable to discover any property of the bankrupt save and except such as appeared in his accounts furnished from time to time to the Comptroller, and that in his opinion the whole of the property to which the bankrupt is now entitled has been realized for the benefit of the estate, and upon reading the affidavit of the said Trustee, filed this day, and the concurrence and consent, in writing, dated 25th day of February last, and signed by Thomas Anstey Guthrie, and upon hearing Mr. Edmund Gifford Ames, Agent for the Trustee's Solicitors, and the Court being satisfied that the whole of the property of the bankrupt has been realized for the benefit of the creditors, and that the Trustee has made due inquiries concerning the bankrupt and his affairs, and that the Trustee has been unable to discover any property of the bankrupt save and except as aforesaid, and that the whole of the property to which the bankrupt is now entitled has been realized for the benefit of the estate, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said George Holland has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 10th day of March, 1882.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Surrey, holden at Kingston. In the Matter of Elizabeth Griffin, of the Royal Oak, Malden, in the county of Surrey, Spinster, a Bankrupt.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Surrey, holden at Kingston. In the Matter of C. H. Clark, of 4, Grove-road, Kingston-on-Thames, in the county of Surrey, Clerk in Civil Service, a Bankrupt.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 9th day of March, 1882, reporting that the late Trustee, having reported to the Comptroller in Bankruptcy that he had been unable to discover any assets, and in June, 1880, had promised to take steps to close the bankruptcy, and that the present Trustee (the Registrar of this Court) had been unable to discover any assets or property of the bankrupt to realize for the benefit of the creditors, and the Court being satisfied that it is needless to protract the said bankruptcy, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said C. H. Clark has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 10th day of March, 1882.
