PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapeltries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for

"ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That when, with respect to his own diocese, it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme, in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration), describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas by another Act of Parliament, passed in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," it is, amongst other things, further enacted "That when, by any Order of Her Majesty in Council as aforesaid, a separate parish for ecclesiastical “ purposes is constituted, the same shall, on registration thereof, and with the consent in writing of the incumbent or incumbents of the benefice or benefices to be thereby affected, become a perpetual curacy and benefice, and the minister thereof, duly nominated and licensed thereto, and his successors, shall be a body politic and corporate, with perpetual succession, and may receive and take to himself and his successors all such lands, tenements, tithes, rent-charges, and hereditaments as shall be granted unto him or them, and such perpetual curate shall thenceforth have, within the limits of the district parish formed under the Church Building Acts for the church of such perpetual curacy, sole and exclusive cure of souls.”

And whereas the Lord Bishop of Chichester hath made a Representation in writing to his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury in the words and figures following, that is to say :—

“ To the Most Reverend Archibald Campbell Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury.

“ I the Right Reverend Richard Lord Bishop of Chichester do hereby represent to your Grace that there are in the borough of Hastings in the county of Sussex and the diocese of Chichester the small parish of Saint Michael and the reputed parish or extra-parochial place of Holy Trinity otherwise Dissolved Priory, the respective boundaries whereof are well known and defined.

“ That there is not any church or place of worship in the said parish of Saint Michael.

“ That within the said reputed parish or extra-parochial place of Holy Trinity otherwise Dissolved Priory and immediately contiguous to the said parish of Saint Michael there has been long built a church now awaiting consecration which has been accepted by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners as a fit and proper church and which prior to the ratification of the scheme will be conveyed to them ; it has been open since the twenty-ninth day of September one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight for Divine worship under a licence from the Bishop and it has been used by the inhabitants of both the said parish of Saint Michael and the said reputed parish or extra-parochial place of Holy Trinity otherwise Dissolved Priory as their parish church, and the minister licensed to serve in this building has had pastoral charge of both the said parish of Saint Michael and the said reputed parish or extra-parochial place of Holy Trinity otherwise Dissolved Priory, and no other minister of the Church of England has at any time had jurisdiction or exercised his office within them.

“ That the said parish of Saint Michael and the said reputed parish or extra-parochial place of Holy Trinity otherwise Dissolved Priory are set forth upon the plan which accompanies this representation and that on such plan the said parish of Saint Michael is coloured red and the said reputed parish or extra-parochial place of Holy Trinity otherwise Dissolved Priory is coloured green.

“ That the population of the said parish of Saint Michael amounts, according to the census of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, to three hundred and fifty-two : and that the population of the said reputed parish or extra-parochial place of Holy Trinity otherwise Dissolved Priory amounts, according to the said census, to three thousand six hundred and nineteen.

“ That the said church of the Holy Trinity holds about nine hundred ; and that the sittings are all free ; it is supported by the offertory, and the income tax return for some years made by the officiating minister has been five hundred and twenty pounds.

“ That the patronage of the said parish of Saint Michael is not known.

“ That it appears to me that the said reputed parish or extra-parochial place of Holy Trinity otherwise Dissolved Priory may under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament of the 1st and 2nd years of Her present Majesty, chapter 106, and the second and third years of Her present Majesty, chapter 49, be advantageously annexed to the said parish of Saint Michael and the whole be constituted a separate parish and perpetual curacy to be called or known as ‘ Holy Trinity, Hastings.’

“ That, pursuant to the direction contained in the 26th section of the said first-mentioned Act of Parliament, I the said Lord Bishop have drawn up a scheme in writing appended to this representation describing the mode in which it appears to me the annexation above proposed may be best effected, and I do submit the same to your Grace to the intent that your Grace may, if on full consideration and enquiry you shall be satisfied with the said scheme, certify the same to Her Majesty in Council.

“ Given under my hand this twenty-fourth day of February one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two. “ R. Cicestr.”

And whereas the Scheme referred to in the said Representation is as follows :—

“ The SCHEME referred to in the foregoing Representation.

“ It is proposed to annex the said reputed parish or extra-parochial place of Holy Trinity otherwise Dissolved Priory to the said parish of Saint Michael and to constitute the whole a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes and a perpetual curacy of which the church belonging to the said reputed parish or extra-parochial place of Holy Trinity otherwise Dissolved Priory shall upon the consecration thereof be the parish church.

“ That the said perpetual curacy when constituted shall be called or known as ‘ Holy Trinity, Hastings,’ and shall be subject to the ecclesiastical jurisdiction of the Lord Bishop of Chichester for the time being and of the Archdeacon of the Archdeaconry of Lewes.

“ That baptisms churchings marriages and burials shall be performed in the church of the benefice so to be constituted and that the fees for all such offices performed within the limits of the said benefice, and all ecclesiastical dues offerings and other emoluments arising from or in respect of the said benefice, and usually payable to the incumbent of a benefice, shall belong to the incumbent of the said intended perpetual curacy or benefice of Holy Trinity Hastings.

“ That the incumbent of the said intended perpetual curacy shall have cure of souls within the limits thereof.

“ That the right of nominating a minister to the church of such perpetual curacy and benefice shall be for ever vested and be in the Lord Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Chichester.

And whereas the said Bishop of Chichester hath transmitted the said scheme to the Archbishop of Canterbury for his consideration and the said Archbishop being satisfied with such scheme, hath certified the same by his report, to Her Majesty in Council, dated the sixth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, which report is in the words and figures following :—

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We the undersigned Archibald Campbell Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury do hereby report to your Majesty in Council that the Right Reverend Richard Lord Bishop of Chichester has represented unto us (amongst other things)

"That the church aforesaid has been open since the twenty-ninth day of September one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight for Divine worship under a licence from the Bishop and it has been used by the inhabitants of both the said parish of Saint Michael and the said reputed parish or extra-parochial place of Holy Trinity otherwise Dissolved Priory as their parish church and the minister licensed to serve in this building has had pastoral charge of both the said parish of Saint Michael and the said reputed parish or extra-parochial place of Holy Trinity otherwise Dissolved Priory and no other minister of the Church of England has at any time had jurisdiction or exercised his office within them.

"That the patronage of the said parish of Saint Michael is not known.

"That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that the said reputed parish or extra-parochial place of Holy Trinity otherwise Dissolved Priory may under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament of the first and second years of Her present Majesty chapter 106 and the second and third years of Her present Majesty chapter 49 be advantageously annexed to the said parish of Saint Michael and the whole be constituted a separate parish and perpetual curacy to be called or known as 'Holy Trinity Hastings.'

"The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop is hereunto annexed.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty-three duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say :—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of your Majesty chapter sixty-three have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme with respect to the rural deaneries or some of them which are within one or other of the two archdeaconries of the diocese of Carlisle to wit the Archdeaconry of Carlisle and the Archdeaconry of Westmorland.

"Whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend Harvey Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle that the arrangements which are hereinafter recommended and proposed with respect to the said rural deaneries or some of them are desirable and should be carried into effect and we are of opinion that the same may properly be carried into effect.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to confer the "Albert Medal of the Second Class" on—

MR. JAMES CARNEY, a Subordinate employed in the Traffic Department of the East Indian Railway Company, in recognition of the gallantry displayed by him under the following circumstances.

On the 10th July last, a Native shunting porter was coupling up the wagon of a train that was moving through the Station at Dinapore at the rate of two or three miles an hour. A sudden movement of the train knocked the Native down, and he fell half stunned between the rails and underneath the train.

The man's convulsive struggles threatened every moment to throw him under the wheels of the moving wagon. MR. JAMES CARNEY, who was at the time on duty at the Station, jumped down from the platform without hesitation, rushed under the train which was still in motion, and grappling with the injured man, held him down until the train had passed over the two struggling men. In doing this MR. CARNEY narrowly escaped being struck upon the forehead by the axle-tree of a pair of wheels as it passed over him.

But for this act of gallantry, the Native, in all human probability, would not have escaped with his life.

4. The Company shall cause a number corresponding with the number of the licence granted in respect of any car using the tramways to be painted or marked in a conspicuous position at each end of such car, both in the interior and on the exterior thereof, in figures of not less than six inches in height and of proportionate breadth, and of such a colour as to be clearly distinguishable from the colour of the ground whereon such figures are painted or marked. The Company shall also cause a statement of the maximum number of passengers authorised to be carried at any one time in the inside and on the outside of such car respectively to be painted or marked in some suitable and conspicuous position both on the inside and on the outside of such car. The Company shall cause the numbers and statements hereinbefore specified to be renewed from time to time as often as shall be necessary for the purpose of keeping such numbers and statements clearly and distinctly visible and legible.

5. No driver or conductor of any car using the tramways shall at any time wilfully or carelessly or negligently obliterate or conceal any number or statement which in pursuance of the rule and regulation in that behalf may have been painted or marked in or upon such car.
