THE Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the decoration of the Victoria Cross upon the undermentioned Officer and Soldier, of Her Majesty's Army, whose claims have been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, for their conspicuous bravery at the assault of the Inhlobane Mountain, in Zululand, as recorded against their names:—

Regiment.	Names.	Acts of Courage for which recommended.
2nd Battalion, The Cameronians (Scottish Rifles)	Lieutenant Henry Lysons...	On the 28th March, 1879, during the assault of the Inhlobane Mountain, Sir Evelyn Wood ordered the dislodgment of certain Zulus (who were causing the Troops much loss) from strong natural caves commanding the position in which some of the wounded were lying. Some delay occurring in the execution of the orders issued, Captain the Honourable Ronald Campbell, Coldstream Guards, followed by Lieutenant Lysons, Aide-de-Camp, and Private Fowler, ran forward in the most determined manner, and advanced over a mass of fallen boulders, and between walls of rock, which led to a cave in which the enemy lay hidden. It being impossible for two men to walk abreast, the assailants were consequently obliged to keep in single file, and as Captain Campbell was leading, he arrived first at the mouth of the cave, from which the Zulus were firing, and there met his death, Lieutenant Lysons and Private Fowler, who were following close behind him, immediately dashed at the cave, from which led several subterranean passages, and firing into the chasm below, succeeded in forcing the occupants to forsake their stronghold. Lieutenant Lysons remained at the cave's mouth for some minutes after the attack, during which time Captain Campbell's body was carried down the slopes.
2nd Battalion, The Cameronians (Scottish Rifles)	Private Edmond Fowler (Since discharged)

C. L. Peel.

THE INSTITUTE OF CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS IN ENGLAND AND WALES.

Incorporated by Royal Charter of the 11th day of May, 1880.

Bye-Laws.

CHAPTER I.—Preliminary.

1. These Bye-Laws, being the first Bye-Laws made under the above mentioned Charter, in these Bye-Laws referred to as the Charter, shall come into operation as soon as they are allowed by the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, which time is in these Bye-Laws referred to as the commencement of these Bye-Laws.

2. Words in these Bye-Laws have the same meaning as in the Charter; and expressions in these Bye-Laws referring to Members, Fellows, Associates, and Meetings, are to be construed as having reference to Members, Fellows, Associates, and Meetings of the Institute.

Articled Clerk means a Clerk who has served under Articles to a Member or Members of the Institute, before or after, or partly before and partly after the commencement of these Bye-Laws.

Secretary means the Secretary of the Institute appointed by the Council, or the person acting in that capacity by the direction of the Council.

3. The Forms set forth in the Schedule to these Bye-Laws shall be used in the cases to which they are applicable, with such alterations, if any, as the Council from time to time determine; and all notes and directions thereon shall be deemed part of the Forms, and be observed accordingly.

CHAPTER II.—The Council.

4. The number of the Members of the Council shall be forty-five, of whom nine shall go out of office at each Annual Meeting of the Institute, but shall be re-eligible. Those who are to go out at each of the four Annual Meetings next after the first, shall be selected by lot at a meeting of the Council; such only of the Members of the Council who are first elected under these Bye-Laws as have not already retired being included in such selection. Afterwards those who are to go out at each Annual Meeting, shall be those who have been longest in office.

5. The first election of Members of the Council shall be had by means of the voting papers of

Members of the Institute, whether present at or absent from the place of election and not otherwise.

6. At the first Annual Meeting of the Institute, all the Members of the Council then in office, except any who have signified to the Council their desire not to offer themselves for election, shall be deemed to be nominated for election. Every other Candidate for election on the Council on that occasion shall be nominated by 10 Members, in writing, signed by the Members nominating, and by the Candidate, and deposited at the Offices of the Institute fourteen clear days before the day of the Meeting. The list of persons so nominated shall be read to the Meeting by the Chairman.

7. On every occasion subsequent to the first Annual General every retiring Member of the Council shall, unless he shall have signified to the Council his desire not to offer himself for re-election, be deemed to be nominated for election.

8. As regards any other Candidate to be put up for election on the Council at any Annual Meeting, after the first, previous notice thereof shall be given to the Council twenty-one clear days before the first of May, and such notice shall be accompanied by an intimation in writing from the proposed new Member of his willingness to serve if elected, and the receipt of such notice and intimation shall be stated in the circular issued by the Council before each Annual Meeting, and the provisions of these Bye-Laws relating to the nomination of candidates at the first Annual Meeting shall extend to candidates within this present Bye-Law.

9. In the event of any vacancy occurring in the Council between one Annual Meeting and another, the vacancy may be filled up by the Council at a Meeting summoned with notice of this object, and a person so becoming a Member of the Council shall hold Office as long only as the vacating Member would have been entitled to hold Office, but shall be re-eligible.

10. A Member of the Council may resign by sending in his resignation to the Council, and on its acceptance by the Council, but not until then, he ceases to be a Member of the Council.

11. The office of a Member of the Council is vacated—

1. If he ceases to be a Member of the Institute, or is excluded or suspended for any period from membership.
2. If he is absent from the meetings of the Council for more than six consecutive months without the consent of the Council in writing.
3. If he becomes bankrupt or insolvent, or suspends payment, or compounds with his creditors.
4. If he is declared lunatic, or becomes of unsound mind.

12. The Institute may at any time, by a resolution passed by a majority of two-thirds of the votes of Members present and voting at a Special Meeting, remove any Member of the Council from his office before the expiration of his period of office, provided that if a poll be demanded as to the resolution for removal, the same majority of two-thirds shall be necessary on the taking of the poll for carrying that resolution; and may by a resolution passed by a majority of the votes of Members present and voting at that Meeting, elect another qualified person in his stead. The person so elected shall hold office during such time only as the Member in whose place he was elected would have been entitled to hold the same if he had not been removed.

CHAPTER III.—Proceedings and Powers of the Council.

13. The Council shall meet at the Offices of the Institute on the first Wednesday in each month, or at such other times and places as they may determine.

14. A meeting of the Council may at any time be called by order of the President or Vice-President, or at the request of any five Members of the Council.

15. Three clear days' notice of a Meeting of a Council, or twenty-four hours' notice in a case of emergency, shall be delivered or sent to each Member of the Council at his usual or last known address, and such notice shall, so far as practicable, contain a statement of the business to be transacted at such meeting. It shall not be necessary in any case to prove that such notice has been delivered or sent, but the same shall be taken as delivered or duly sent unless the contrary be shown, and the non-receipt of any notice by any Member or the non-existence of any supposed emergency, shall not affect the proceedings of any meeting.

16. At all meetings of the Council the President, and in his absence the Vice-President, shall be Chairman; and in the absence of both, the Chairman shall be elected from among those present.

17. At all Meetings of the Council, in the event of difference of opinion, the majority shall rule the minority (except where otherwise required by the Charter or by Bye-Laws), and in case of equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a casting vote, in addition to his original vote.

18. Subject to the provisions of the foregoing Bye-Laws, the Chairman of any Meeting of the Council may, with the consent of the Meeting, adjourn the Meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned Meeting other than the business left unfinished at the Meeting from which the adjournment took place. No notice need be given of an adjourned Meeting unless it is so directed in the resolution for adjournment.

19. The number of Members of the Council whose presence shall be requisite for the transaction of business shall be seven.

20. At the first Meeting of the Council after each Annual Meeting, the Members of the Council then present shall choose one of the Members of the Council as President, and another as Vice-President for the year following such choice, and any vacancy in either of those offices shall be filled up in like manner at the next monthly or other ordinary Meeting of the Council.

21. Minutes shall be made in proper books to be provided for the purpose of all resolutions and proceedings of Meetings of the Council or the Committees thereof, and every Minute signed by the Chairman of the Meeting to which it relates or by the Chairman of a subsequent Meeting, shall be sufficient evidence of the facts therein stated.

22. All moneys payable to the Institute shall be paid by the Council or by the direction thereof into the account of the Institute at its Bankers, and all moneys payable by the Institute above the amount of £5 shall be paid by Cheques drawn upon its Bankers signed by two Members of the Council and countersigned by the Secretary, provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent the Council placing in the hands of the Secretary or other officer such sum or sums as may be necessary to meet Salaries or Petty Expenses.

23. All funds of the Institute not needed immediately for the ordinary purposes of the Institute, may be invested in the name of the Institute or of any two or more Members of the Council, in any of the following securities, namely: Public Stocks or Funds of Great Britain; British Railway Debentures and Debenture Stock; Metropolitan Board of Works Stock; East India Stock; and Bank of England Stock; with power, from time to time, to sell or vary such securities; but if invested in the name of the Institute, the same shall not be sold, varied, or dealt with, except according to general instructions issued under the Common Seal of the Institute.

24. The Council may with the consent of a General Meeting, employ any part of the funds of the Institute in the payment of Lecturers, or the foundation of Prizes, Scholarships, or Exhibitions in connection with the subjects of the Examinations conducted or held by the Institute, as well as for any other general purposes of the Institute.

25. Notwithstanding anything herein contained, the Council may from time to time borrow money temporarily and may pay interest thereon.

26. The Council may, with the consent of a General Meeting, make such provision for pensioning retired Officers and Servants, whether by agreement at the time of appointment or employment, or otherwise, as to the Council may seem just.

28. The Council shall in each year publish or cause to be published at the expense of the Institute, or otherwise, a List of the Members of the Institute, together with such other particulars in respect to the Institute or its objects as they may deem advisable, and they may in such list in their discretion distinguish in such way as shall to the Council seem fit, the Fellows and Associates holding Certificates of Membership under section 16 of the Charter in that year, or may publish the list in any other form they determine upon, and such list shall be supplied to Members and others at such prices or gratuitously as the Council shall from time to time determine.

29. For the purpose of publishing such list, each Member shall, in January in each year, send in to the Secretary his name and address or place of business, failing which the list may be drawn up on such information as the Council may possess.

30. Subject to the provisions of the Charter and of Bye-Laws, the Council may appoint Committees from among themselves, and may fix the quorum thereof, and may delegate any of their powers to such Committees, and may lay down rules for regulating the proceedings of the Committees, and the President and Vice-President shall be, by virtue of their offices, Members of all Committees.

CHAPTER VII.—Meetings of the Institute.

92. A Meeting of the Institute for transaction of the ordinary annual business of the Institute—that is to say, for election of Members of the Council and Auditors, and for receiving and adopting the Annual accounts, with the Auditors' report, and a report from the Council on the past years' transactions, shall be held in London, on the first Wednesday in May, 1882, and every subsequent year, or on such other day in May as the Council from time to time determine, and shall be called the Annual Meeting of the Institute.

93. The Council may, whenever they think fit, call a Special Meeting of the Institute, and shall do so on receipt of a requisition in writing expressing the object of the proposed Meeting, and signed by not less than forty Members; the notice calling the Meeting in the last mentioned case to be issued by the Council within twenty-one days from the receipt by them of the requisition.

94. A Member wishing to bring before the Annual Meeting any motion, not relating to the ordinary annual business of the Institute as aforesaid, shall give notice thereof to the Council not less than twenty-one days before the first of May, and no motion shall come before the Meeting unless notice thereof has been so given.

95. The Council shall, not less than seven or more than fourteen days before each Meeting of the Institute, send to each Member, at his address, as registered with the Secretary, a notice, mentioning the day, place, and hour of Meeting; and stating, in the case of a Special Meeting, the business to be transacted thereat; and no other business shall be transacted thereat; and stating in the case of the Annual Meeting, any motion of which notice has been given as aforesaid, and forwarding a copy of the Council's report and of the annual accounts and Auditors' report, and a list of the persons nominated for election as Members of the Council, or as Auditors. But the non-receipt of such notice by any Member shall not invalidate the proceedings of any Meeting.

96. At all Meetings of the Institute the President of the Institute for the time being, and in his absence the Vice-President of the Institute, shall be Chairman; and in the absence of both, the Chairman shall be elected from among the Members of the Council present, and in the absence of all of them, then from among the Members present.

97. At the Annual Meeting, unless twenty Members are present within half-an-hour after the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall stand adjourned for one fortnight, to be then held at the same hour and place, and unless twenty Members are present within half-an-hour after the time appointed for the adjourned meeting, the meeting shall be thereupon further adjourned for one fortnight, to be then held at the same hour and place, and so from time to time as often as the same shall happen, until at any such meeting there shall be a sufficient number of Members present, when the meeting shall proceed to business and not before. At a Special Meeting, unless thirty Members are present within half-an-hour after the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall be thereupon and thereby dissolved.

98. Subject to the provisions of the foregoing Bye-Laws, the Chairman of any Meeting of the Institute may, with the consent of the Meeting, adjourn the Meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. No notice need be given of an adjourned meeting unless it is so directed in the resolution for adjournment.

99. Every resolution or amendment proposed and seconded at a Meeting of the Institute, shall be put to the Meeting by the Chairman, and decided on by show of hands, and the declaration of the Chairman as to the majority shall be final. On such declaration being made, a poll may be demanded in writing by at least ten Members present and entitled to vote at the meeting, but a poll shall not be taken as to the election of Chairman, the appointment of Scrutineers, or the adjournment of a Meeting.

100. On a poll being so demanded, the Chairman shall forthwith reduce the resolutions or amendments on which the poll is to be taken, into the form of alternative propositions, or otherwise state the same in such a way as best to take the sense of the Members upon the substantial question or questions contained in such resolutions or amendments. Voting papers containing such propositions, shall be then issued by the Council within seven days after the Meeting, and shall be returnable so as to be received by the Council within fourteen days after the Meeting.

101. The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a Meeting for the transaction of any business other than that on which the poll was demanded.

102. At every Meeting of the Institute at which a vote by voting papers is prescribed or demanded, the Meeting shall appoint five of their number as Scrutineers, any three of whom shall be competent to act.

103. The Scrutineers shall meet not less than fifteen or more than eighteen days after the Meeting, and they or any three of them shall draw up a report of the result of the voting, stating (among other things) what voting papers have been rejected wholly or in part for non-observance of the notes and directions thereon, or for any other and what reason. Such report shall as speedily as possible be forwarded to the Members by the Council, and the voting shall take effect from the date of the report of the Scrutineers, except in the case of a Meeting adjourned to receive the report of the Scrutineers, in which case the voting shall only take effect from the date of the adjourned Meeting, and such report shall be conclusive as to the result of the voting.

104. Minutes shall be made in proper books to be provided for the purpose of all resolutions and proceedings of Meetings of the Institute, and every Minute signed by the Chairman of the Meeting to which it relates or by the Chairman of a subsequent Meeting, shall be sufficient evidence of the facts therein stated.

CHAPTER VIII.—Exclusion or Suspension from Membership.

105. There shall be appointed in each year, by the Council from among its Members, a Committee consisting of not less than seven Members, any three of whom shall have power to act, for the purpose of investigating questions which may arise under sections 19 and 20 of the Charter, and of considering questions of professional practice generally, or of alleged misconduct of Articled Clerks.

106. It shall be the duty of the Secretary, and the right of any Member or of any aggrieved person, to lay before such Committee all facts brought to his knowledge which may require investigation as provided in the next preceding Bye-Law.

107. If it shall be the opinion of the Committee that any question investigated by them deserves further investigation it shall be the duty of the Member of the Committee who is next on the list for that purpose, to prefer a formal complaint to the Council, or (as the case may require) to bring the matter before the Council for further investigation, and any such further steps shall be taken as shall seem good to the Council.

108. In the event of the exclusion or suspension of a Member, the Council shall be at liberty to cause notice thereof to be published in such newspapers or journals as they may select.

109. In the event of the suspension or exclusion of a Member, every certificate of membership then held by him shall be delivered up by him to the Council, to be retained during his suspension or to be cancelled.

CHAPTER IX.—Audit.

110. The Institute, at each Annual Meeting, shall elect from among the Members two Auditors, at such remuneration, if any, as the Meeting shall determine.

111. The first Auditors shall be appointed at a Special Meeting convened for that purpose not less than twenty-eight, or more than forty-two days after receipt by the Council of notification of the allowance of the Bye-Laws.

112. The Auditors shall go out of office at the next Annual Meeting after their election, but shall be re-eligible.

113. The Auditors shall be nominated by two Members of the Institute, in writing signed by the Members nominating and by the candidate, and, in the case of the first Auditors, deposited at the offices of the Institute within fourteen days of the receipt by the Council of notification of the allowance of the Bye-Laws, and in every other case twenty-one clear days before the first of May. The Auditors who are in office shall be deemed to be nominated at each Annual Meeting unless they have signified their desire not to be re-elected.

114. The accounts of the Institute as from the date of the Charter to the end of 1881 shall be audited by the first Auditors and laid before the first Annual Meeting, and thereafter the Council shall, not less than one calendar month before each Annual Meeting, deliver to the Auditors the accounts of the then last calendar year, and the Auditors shall examine such accounts and report thereon, not less than fourteen days before the date of the Meeting.

115. The Institute may at any time by a resolution passed by a majority of two-thirds of the votes of Members present and voting at a Special Meeting, remove any Auditor from his office before the expiration of his period of office, and may, by a resolution passed by a majority of the votes of Members present and voting at that Meeting, elect another qualified person in his stead, provided that if a poll be demanded as to the resolution for removal, the same majority of two-thirds shall be necessary on the taking of the poll for carrying that resolution. The person so elected shall hold office during such time only as the Member in whose place he was elected would have been entitled to hold the same if he had not been removed.

CHAPTER X.—Indemnity of Officers.

116. The Members of the Council, Auditors, Secretary, and other Officers, shall be indemnified by the Institute from all losses and expenses incurred by them in or about the discharge of their respective duties, except such as happen from their own respective wilful default.

117. No Member of the Council, Auditor, Secretary, or other Officer, shall be liable for any other Member of the Council, Auditor, Secretary, or other Officer, or for joining in any receipt or document, or for any act of conformity, or for any loss or expense happening to the Institute,
