

as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Luke, situate at Tittensor, within the limits of the new parish (sometimes particular district) of Christ Church, Stone, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Luke situate at Tittensor, as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William Dalrymple Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Christ Church, Stone, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Luke situate at Tittensor as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Tittensor.'

"And with the like consent of the said William Dalrymple Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Luke situate at Tittensor, as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Tittensor, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Christ Church, Stone, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, wherein the present incumbent of such new parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is comprised within and is bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the centre of Darlaston Bridge which carries the Rugeley, Stone, and Chester turnpike-road over the River Trent and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said turnpike-road for a distance of one mile and twenty-three chains or thereabouts to its junction with the occupation-road called or known as Gorsey-lane and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-mentioned road or lane for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Stone, from the parish of Swynnerton in the county and diocese aforesaid and extending thence first north-westward and then northward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of two and a half miles or thereabouts to the point on the north-eastern side of the road leading from Beech Dale to Hanchurch Heath where the said last-mentioned boundary joins the boundary dividing the said new parish of Christ Church, Stone, from the parish or parochial chapelry of Trentham, in the county and diocese aforesaid and extending thence first north-eastward and then eastward and south-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of two miles and forty-five chains or thereabouts thereby passing in one part along the southern side of Trentham Park and in another part following the course of the River Trent aforesaid to the point where the same river is joined by the Mill Race flowing from Strongford Mill and where the said last-mentioned boundary is joined by the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Stone, from the parish or parochial chapelry of Barlaston in the county and diocese aforesaid and extending thence generally southward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of one mile and thirty-eight chains or thereabouts thereby continuing to follow the course of the River Trent aforesaid to the point where the said last-mentioned boundary leaves the said river and continuing thence first generally south-eastward and then generally southward along the middle of the main stream of the same river for a distance of two miles and eight chains or thereabouts to the first-described point at the centre of Darlaston Bridge aforesaid at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 3rd day of May, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty chapter eighty-two, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a
