FREDERICK STANLEY, 22A, Austin-friars, Solicitor for the said Executors.

WILLIAM THOMAS NEWMARCH, Deceased.

Pursuant to an Act of Parliament of the 22nd and 23rd Victoria, chapter 35, intituled "An Act to further amend the Law of Property, and to relieve Trustees."

NOTICE is hereby given, that all persons having claims or demands against the estate of William Thomas Newmarch, late of No. 1, Elm-road, Clapham Common, in the county of Surrey, Gentleman (who died on the 14th day of August, 1881, and whose will was proved in the Principal Registry of the Probate Division of the High Court of Justice on the 17th day of February, 1882, by William Newmarch, since deceased, Frederick Edward Colman, and Arthur Colman, the executors therein named), are hereby required to send in the particulars of their claims and demands to me, the undersigned, the Solicitor for the surviving executors, on or before the 10th day of June next, at the expiration of which time the said executors will proceed to apply the whole of the assets of the said testator in accordance with the provisions of the said will, having regard only to the claims of which they shall then have had notice, and that the said executors will not be liable for the assets of the deceased, or any part thereof, so distributed to any person of whose debt or claim they shall not then have had notice.—Dated this 4th day of May, 1882.

T. H. DEVONSHIRE, 1, Frederick's-place, Old Jewry, E.C., Solicitor for the said Executors.

To Robert William Morgan, 11, London-street, Fenchurch-street.

TAKE notice, that on the 20th day of March, 1882, a writ was issued against you in the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, in a certain action of Morgan v. Morgan, 1882, M., 1126, at the suit of Harriet Morgan, claiming payment to her for her separate use of the sum of £434, standing in the names of the defendants, at their bankers, and any interest which may accrue in respect thereof, and that if necessary for the purpose of such payment the right to sue for and recover such sum and interest may be vested in the defendants, James Girdlestone and John Todd. And also take notice, that by an order of the Vice-Chancellor Bacon, the Judge of the said Division to whom the said action is assigned, dated the 22nd April, 1882, it was ordered, that service of the said writ by leaving a copy of the same, together with a copy of this order, at the place of business of the said defendant, Robert William Morgan, situate at 11, London-street, Fenchurch-street, in the city of London, and by inserting once in the London Gazette, and once in the Times newspaper this advertisement, should be deemed good service of the said writ of summons upon you. And take notice, that in default of your causing an appearance to be entered for you in the said Chancery Division within twenty-eight days from the date hereof, the plaintiff may proceed in the said action and judgment may be given in your absence.—Dated this 9th day of May, 1882.
