KENMARE,

Lord Chamberlain

Whitehall, May 10, 1882.

THE following Address of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, was presented to the Queen on the occasion of Her Majesty's visit to Epping Forest, on the 6th instant:—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, Conservators of Epping Forest.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the city of London, desire to express the deep sense we entertain of your Majesty's gracious condescension in visiting Epping Forest this day.

The Royal Forest of Waltham was for many centuries a hunting ground for the sovereigns of this kingdom. It has been reserved for your Majesty in the gracious exercise of royal prerogative, and with the consent of Parliament for royal privilege to substitute popular right and to dedicate these beautiful scenes to the enjoyment of your people for ever.

Many difficulties which had to be overcome in bringing about this happy result are at length surmounted, and an open space of nearly 6,000 acres of almost unbroken forest scenery extending from the confines of the Metropolis for a distance of 13 miles is now available for public health and recreation.

As the capital of your Majesty's Empire is the largest and most populous in Europe, it is fitting that its inhabitants should possess the most extensive pleasure-ground.

Your Majesty has already manifested a deep interest in this wild and picturesque tract of ancient woodland by appointing His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught and Strathearn its Ranger.

We speak on this occasion as well for ourselves as for the many thousands who attend to-day to testify, by their presence, their sincere and ardent gratitude for the solicitude your Majesty has always exhibited for their welfare and happiness, and especially for the gratification afforded them on this occasion by your Majesty's auspicious visit.

May your Majesty long live in the enjoyment of health, and of the choicest blessings which Divine Providence can bestow, so that the many millions of your loyal subjects may continue to experience the unspeakable benefits of so beneficent a rule.

By order of the Court,
John B. Monckton, Town Clerk.
Guildhall, 27th April, 1882.

To which Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious reply:—

"I thank you sincerely for your loyal and dutiful address.

"It gives me the greatest satisfaction to have been able to dedicate this beautiful Forest to the enjoyment of my people for ever.

"I thank you for the expression of your continued solicitude for my welfare."

By the QUEEN.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-seven duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for assigning the right of patronage of the new parish of Saint Luke Bilston in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council bearing date the eighth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five and published in the London Gazette on the third day of September in the same year the district of Saint Luke Bilston was constituted out of the chapelry of Saint Leonard Bilston in the parish of Wolverhampton in the said county of Stafford and in the said diocese of Lichfield, and the same district has since become and now as aforesaid is a new parish under the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act.

"And whereas no specific assignment of the whole or any part of the right of patronage and nomination of the minister of the said district or (as the case might be) of the incumbent of the said new parish was made by the said Order, and such right of patronage and nomination has hitherto continued to be exercised in accordance with the directions in that behalf contained in the said Act.

"And whereas Edward Pugh, of Wolverhampton aforesaid, Gentleman, has paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England a capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling upon the understanding and to the intent that we should hold the same capital sum for or towards the augmentation of the endowment of the said new parish of Saint Luke Bilston, and we have in respect of the said capital sum agreed with the said Edward Pugh that we will pay by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year to the vicar or incumbent of the said new parish of Saint Luke Bilston (being duly licensed thereto) the yearly sum of fifty pounds so long as the said capital sum shall remain in our hands.

"And whereas the said capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling was so paid to us by the said Edward Pugh as aforesaid upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said new parish of Saint Luke Bilston and of the nomination of the vicar or incumbent thereto should be assigned to the five persons hereinafter mentioned and to their heirs and assigns as is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now therefore we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said new parish of Saint Luke Bilston and of the nomination of the vicar or incumbent thereto shall without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised jointly by the following five persons that is to say, the said Edward Pugh, and the Reverend Alexander Baring-Gould, Clerk in Holy Orders, vicar or incumbent of the district chapelry and new parish of Christ Church, Winchester, and the Reverend Frederic Williams, Clerk in Holy Orders, vicar or incumbent of the district and new parish of Saltley in the diocese of Worcester, and William Millington of Wolverhampton aforesaid Doctor of Medicine and the Reverend William Haggard Barlow, Clerk in Holy Orders, Principal of the Church Missionary College, Islington, in the county of Middlesex, and their heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

RIO DE LA PLATA.

Unsuccessful Search for Camillia Rock.

THE following account has been received from the Senior Naval Officer on the South-East Coast of America of unsuccessful search having been made for Camillia Rock, stated to lie W. by N. from Flores Islet Lighthouse, distant 2¼ miles.

This rock (reported as having 12 feet water over it, with 4½ fathoms muddy bottom, close around, on which the British ship "Camillia" is said to have struck) was searched for by H.M.S. "Firefly" in January, 1882. Lieutenant Law, commanding, reports having anchored near the reported position of the danger, and to have carefully sounded round it during seven days without finding any indication of a rock.

The depth over the soundings around Sara Bank correspond closely with those given of Camillia Rock. The bearing of the two dangers from Flores Islet Lighthouse is also identical, though they differ in distance $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

From the above it is considered that Camillia Rock does not exist. It has, therefore, been expunged from the Admiralty charts.
