

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented :

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein as can be buried at or below that depth.

POWICK.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Powick, in the county of Worcester ; and that in the churchyard the following regulations for new burial-grounds be observed :—

1. That no earthen grave be dug within one foot of any other grave.

2. No body shall be buried in any vault or walled grave unless the coffin be separately entombed in an airtight manner, that is, by properly cemented stone or brickwork which shall never be disturbed.

3. One body only shall be buried in a grave at one time unless the bodies be those of members of the same family.

4. No unvalled grave shall be re-opened within fourteen years after the burial of a person above twelve years of age, or within eight years after the burial of a child under twelve years of age, unless to bury another member of the same family, in which case a layer of earth not less than one foot thick shall be left undisturbed above the previously buried coffin, but, if on re-opening any grave, the soil be found to be offensive, such soil shall not be disturbed, and in no case shall human remains be removed from the grave.

5. No coffin shall be buried in any unvalled grave within four feet of the ordinary level of the ground unless it contains the body of a child under twelve years, when it shall not be less than three feet below that level.
